PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

KIM CALDWELL ERA BEGINS

- Kim Caldwell was announced as Tennessee's new head coach on April 7, 2024, becoming the fourth leader of the Lady Vols during the NCAA era.
- Caldwell will begin her ninth season as a head coach with an overall record of 217-31 (.875), including 149-13 (.920) in conference games.
- She has directed teams to eight NCAA Tournaments, one NCAA title (NCAA DII, 2022), two NCAA Final Fours (NCAA DII, 2022 & 2023), seven conference championships and five conference tournament crowns in eight years as a head coach.
- The Parkersburg, W. Va., native arrived in Knoxville after leading Marshall to a 26-7 record (17-1 in the Sun Belt Conference) in 2023-24, a sweep of SBC regular season and tournament titles and the school's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 1997. She was named 2024 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and Spalding Maggie Dixon WBCA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year for her impressive job with the Thundering Herd.
- Prior to that, she guided Glenville State (W. Va.) to a 191-24 (.888) mark in seven campaigns, earning the Pat Summitt Trophy as the NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year after guiding the Pioneers to a 35-1 record and the 2021-22 national championship.

EXPECT FAST AND FURIOUS

- Caldwell brings a high-octane offense and pressure defense to Rocky Top, which her previous teams executed extremely well.
- Her first Marshall team last season ranked No. 4 nationally at 85.3 ppg., which incredibly is the lowest ranking and average her teams have ever had.
- Caldwell's units have never ranked worse than fifth nationally for three-pointers made per contest, rating No. 3 in 2023-24 at 10.6 per contest.
- Marshall averaged 13.2 steals per game a year ago, ranking No. 3 in the NCAA. Her teams have never been lower than fourth in steals per contest.
- The Thundering Herd forced foes into 24.2 turnovers per game in 2023-24, ranking No. 2 in the country, and placed third in turnover margin (7.94).
- Caldwell squads also hit the offensive glass hard, ranking in the NCAA's top six seven times, including No. 5 a year ago at 16.4 o-boards per game.

Jewel Spear led Tennessee with 69 three-pointers in 2023-24 and is the Lady Vols' top returning scorer at 13.1 points per game.

SPEAR, PUCKETT LEAD RETURNING CAST

- Tennessee welcomes back eight players from a year ago, including two starters, and features seven who will compete as Lady Vols for the first time.
- UT returns Jewel Spear (13.1 ppg., 69 3FGs) and Sara Puckett (9.9 ppg., 4.9 rpg., 38 3FGs) the only Lady Vols to start all 33 games a year ago.
- Tess Darby (5.2 ppg., 3.4 rpg., 44 3FGs), whose 170 career treys rank No. 5 in program history, has started 73 games and played in 113 while at UT.
- Jillian Hollingshead (4.6 ppg., 4.5 rpg.) and Kaiya Wynn (4.4 ppg., 2.6 rpg.) were key reserves a year ago, with Hollingshead notching eight starts.
- Destinee Wells (6.8 ppg., 3.5 apg.) played in 10 games in 2023-24 after transferring from Belmont and is returning from a season-ending injury.

STRONG PORTAL REINFORCEMENTS

- Caldwell added five transfers via the portal, filling needs in the areas of scoring, rebounding, defense, athleticism, experience and depth.
- Samara Spencer (13.9 ppg., 3.5 apg., 40 3FGs) and Ruby Whitehorn (12.3 ppg., 5.6 rpg., 25 3FGs) were starters at Arkansas and Clemson, respectively.
- Alyssa Latham (8.6 ppg., 7.0 rpg., ACC All-Freshman) and Zee Spearman (6.3 ppg., 6.0 rpg.) started at Syracuse and Miami, respectively.
- Favor Ayodele (4.7 ppg., 6.2 rpg., grabbed 10 rebs. nine times) was a part-time starter at Pitt and former two-time JUCO All-American.

ROSTER LOADED WITH EXPERIENCE

- Tennessee features a roster with eight members who are seniors or fifth-year players and 12 total who are classified as juniors or above.
- Eleven of UT's 15 players have started games during their careers.
- UT's roster members combined for 199 starts during the 2023-24 campaign and a total of 567 during their careers.
- Jewel Spear (121), Samara Spencer (97), Destinee Wells (94), Tess Darby (73), Ruby Whitehorn (62) and Sara Puckett (50) lead UT in career starts.
- Others with college starts include Alyssa Latham (26), Favor Ayodele (15), Avery Strickland (11), Zee Spearman (10) and Jillian Hollingshead (8).

REDSHIRTS SET TO MAKE UT DEBUTS

- Tennessee welcomes two lightning-quick redshirt guards who were top-35 players coming out of high school.
- Talaysia Cooper redshirted after playing a season at South Carolina. She was a McDonald's High School All-American and ranked No. 18 by espnW in 2022.
- Kaniya Boyd was rated No. 35 in the 2024 espnW class rankings and enrolled at UT in January 2024 after suffering an injury prior to her senior year of high school.

KEY LOSSES FROM A YEAR AGO

- Tennessee lost four players from 2023-24, led by Rickea Jackson, an All-SEC First Team and All-America honorable mention selection who was the No. 4 overall pick in the WNBA Draft. Jackson averaged 20.2 ppg. and 8.2 rpg. to pace the team in each category last season.
- Guard Jasmine Powell (9.3 ppg. 4.7 rpg., 4.3 apg.), center

Tamari Key (5.0 ppg., 3.7 rpg., 1.6 bpg.) and forward Karoline Striplin (7.2 ppg., 3.1 rpg.) also are gone after earning 30, 14 and 11 starts a year ago, respectively.

SIZING UP CALDWELL'S STAFF

- Kim Caldwell built her first staff at Tennessee by hiring five people with whom she's worked before, another who was in the orbit of her previous staff members, and two veteran coaches from SEC schools.
- Caldwell recruited Roman Tubner and Gabe Lazo, associate head coaches at Alabama and Mississippi State, to make the move to Knoxville and join her staff as assistants.
- Two more assistants, Jenna Burdette and Angel Rizor, followed Caldwell to Tennessee after each served stints alongside her at Glenville State and Marshall.
- The fifth assistant, Lexie Barrier came to UT after spending the past two seasons at JMU. She previously worked at Marshall as an assistant in 2021-22 alongside Jenna Burdette prior to Caldwell's arrival.
- Graduate assistants Mashayla Cecil and Maggie Stanley also came from Marshall, where Cecil was an assistant coach and Stanley was Caldwell's director of operations. Cecil also played for Caldwell at Glenville State from 2019-22.
- Nolan Harvath, UT's director of women's basketball sports performance, came from West Virginia University, but he previously served as Caldwell's director of strength and conditioning at Glenville State from 2018-20.
- Caldwell retained five staff members from the previous regime, including Dr. Catherine Greene, executive director of basketball operations/chief of staff; Heather Ervin, director of student-athlete success & external relations; Josh Theis, director of video and creative content; Casi Dailey, associate director of sports medicine; and Haley Hall, assistant director of operations.

THE SEC GAUNTLET GOT EVEN TOUGHER

- With the addition of Texas and Oklahoma, the SEC increased its number of teams to 16 and made the country's best conference even tougher.
- ESPN released its 2024-25 Way-Too-Early Top 25 on Sept. 25, and there are seven league teams rated in that poll.
- Tennessee will play eight combined games vs. No. 1 South Carolina, at No. 5 Texas, vs. and at No. 7 LSU, vs. No. 12 Oklahoma, vs. No. 20 Ole MIss, at No. 23 Kentucky and vs. No. 24 Alabama.

UCONN HEADS NON-CONFERENCE SLATE

- Tennessee's non-conference portion of the schedule features ranked tussles at home vs. No. 2 UConn and No. 19 Florida State.

AIMING TO KEEP THE STREAK GOING

- Tennessee seeks to keep its streak of NCAA Tournament appearances perfect.
- The Lady Vols are the only program to make every NCAA Tourney and will take aim at their 43rd straight berth.

OPENING WITH THREE 1K SCORERS

- Tennessee opens the 2024-25 campaign with three 1,000-point career scorers and three players who need fewer than 360 points to reach the 1K plateau.
- In 2022-23 and 2023-24, UT featured a program-best five players reaching the career 1,000-point scoring mark by season's end.

Sara Puckett started all 33 games in 2023-24 and is UT's top returning rebounder (4.9 rpg.) and second-best returning scorer (9.9 ppg.).

- Jewel Spear stands at 1,817 points during her collegiate career, needing only 183 to hit 2,000 for her time at both Wake Forest and Tennessee.
- Spear would need a career season best of 568 points to reach 1K solely during her time on Rocky Top.
- Destinee Wells has tallied 1,716 points combining her time at Belmont and UT. She is 284 shy of 2,000.
- Samara Spencer scored 1,368 points during her three seasons at Arkansas and needs to score 632 in 2024-25 to reach 2K.
- Sara Puckett (719), Ruby Whitehorn (711) and Tess Darby (642), stand 281, 289 and 358, respectively, away from hitting 1,000 points in their careers.
- All-time, Tennessee has had 50 players score 1,000 points while wearing a Lady Vol uniform, with Rickea Jackson (35th, 1,176) and Tamari Key (48th, 1,040) joining that club in 2023-24.
- UT has had three or more 1,000-point scorers at season's end on 14 occasions, four or more three times and five on two occasions.

PROFICIENT THREE-POINT THREATS

- Tennessee returns 161 of the 223 three-pointers (72.2 pct.) it made in 2023-24.
- Jewel Spear led the way a year ago with 69, followed by Tess Darby (44) and Sara Puckett (38).
- Other returnees and their totals last season include Destinee Wells (3), Kaiya Wynn (3), Avery Strickland (2) and Edie Darby (2).
- Spear tallied 58, 90 and 93 daggers from beyond the arc at Wake Forest before connecting on 69 last season at Tennessee.
- Tess Darby scorched the nets for seven, 49 and 70 her first three seasons before accumulating 44 in 2023-24.
- Wells hit totals of 37, 44 and 65 treys in her three years at Belmont before transferring to UT and seeing limited action in 2023-24 after suffering a season-ending injury.
- The Lady Vols added three players via the transfer portal who combined for 66 last season, including Samara Spencer (40), Ruby Whitehorn (25) and Zee Spearman (1).

- Spencer drained 44, 65 and 40 in her three seasons at Arkansas before joining the Lady Vols. Whitehorn, meanwhile, hit 12 as a freshman at Clemson in 2022-23.
- Redshirts Talaysia Cooper and Kaniya Boyd should provide Kim Caldwell additional threats from beyond the arc.

AN EYE ON THE UT RECORD BOOK

- Tess Darby ranks No. 5 in career three-pointers made at UT with 170 from 2020-24.
- Darby and Jewel Spear stand at No. 9 and No. 10 on the single season three-pointers made list, with Darby hitting 70 in 2022-23 and Spear knocking down 69 in 2023-24.
- Spear's 185 three-point attempts in 2023-24 tied for the eighth most in a single season at UT.
- Darby's 456 career three-point attempts stand at No. 6 in the Big Orange record book.
- With a career three-point field goal percentage of .373, Darby ranks 10th in the Lady Vol record book.
- Spear and Darby each tied for the No. 11 all-time total for three-pointers in a game at Tennessee, firing in six vs. Liberty on Dec. 31, 2023, and Alabama on March 8, 2024, respectively.
- Sara Puckett's .863 free throw percentage a year ago ranks as the tenth best in Lady Vol history with a minimum of 50 attempts.

WHERE THEY RANKED ON SEC LISTS

- Samara Spencer finished the 2023-24 campaign ninth on the SEC's active career scoring list with 1,368 points.
- She was fourth in career assists at the end of the year among active SEC players, tallying 365 dimes.
- Spencer was the 10th best scorer in SEC games last season, averaging 15.88 per contest, while Jewel Spear was 18th (14.06).
- Spencer was eighth in the league in assists per game vs. SEC foes at 4.0.
- Spear was fourth in free-throw percentage at 85.7 pct., while Spencer was 11th (76.2) vs. league opponents.
- Sara Puckett shot 86.3 percent from the charity stripe in conference games, but her 51 attempts weren't enough to qualify her to be ranked. She would have been fourth.
- Spencer was No. 2 in SEC games in minutes played, averaging 37.36 per contest in 2023-24.
- Spear tied for No. 7 in threes made per contest vs. SEC teams, knocking down 1.94.
- In all games, Spear's 37.3 percent accuracy beyond the arc tied her for third among SEC players, and she was fourth in threes made per game at 2.09.

LADY VOL ROSTER NOTES

- After going from 16 players on Tennessee's largest roster in modern history in 2022-23 to 14 in 2023-24, the Lady Vols are 15 strong in 2024-25.
- All 15 players are active entering the season, with Kaniya Boyd, Talaysia Cooper and Destinee Wells coming off redshirt campaigns.
- Kaniya Boyd, Edie Darby, Tess Darby, Sara Puckett and Kaiya Wynn are the only players who've spent their entire careers as Lady Vols, meaning 10 of this year's 15 players have transferred into the program. Five of those came during the summer of 2024.
- Three players are transfers from other SEC schools, including Talaysia Cooper (South Carolina), Jillian Hollingshead (Georgia) and Samara Spencer (Arkansas).
- Tess and Edie Darby (Greenfield, Tenn.) will play alongside one another for the third season. They are the second set of sisters to play basketball at Tennessee but the first to play on the same team.
- Amanda (1998-2002) and Abby Canon (2004-05) from Shelbyville, Tenn., were the first sister duo to represent the Big Orange, playing for Pat Summitt.
- Tennessee has five players from the Volunteer State on the roster, including Tess and Edie Darby (Greenfield/GHS), Avery Strickland (Knoxville/Farragut H.S.), Destinee Wells (Lakeland/Houston H.S.) and Kaiya Wynn (Nashville).
- Wynn attended Ensworth High School in Nashville before graduating from Foster High School in Richmond, Texas, after her family moved there during her senior year. She considers Nashville to be her hometown.
- Favor Ayodele and Avery Strickland previously played at Pitt for one season each before transferring to Tennessee. Ayodele was a Panther in 2023-24, while Strickland was at Pitt in 2022-23.
- Ruby Whitehorn hails from Detroit, Mich., where she attended the same Detroit Edison Public School Academy as LVFL and Los Angeles Sparks star Rickea Jackson.

One of the top three-point shooters in Lady Vol history, Tess Darby has drained 170 treys during her career to rank No. 5 all-time at UT.

HANDLING OUR ACADEMIC BUSINESS

- Tennessee, which has a 100-percent graduation rate for players who complete their eligibility in the program, has three players on its 2024-25 roster who have earned college degrees already.
- Tess Darby graduated with a degree in finance in the spring of 2023, earned a master's in agricultural leadership, education and communication in the summer of 2024 and is pursuing a second master's degree in business administration with emphasis in entrepreneurship and innovation.
- Jewel Spear earned a degree in journalism and electronic media at UT in summer 2024 and is pursuing a master's degree in agricultural leadership, education and communication.
- Favor Ayodele graduated from Pitt with a degree in criminology in May 2024 and is pursuing a master's in agricultural leadership, education and communication at UT.
- Sara Puckett was named to the CSC Academic All-District Team in 2023-24.
- Returnees Edie Darby, Tess Darby, Sara Puckett, Avery Strickland, Destinee Wells and Kaiya Wynn were members of the 2023-24 SEC Winter Sports Academic Honor Roll.

Family:
Spouse: Justin Caldwell

Kim Caldwell is in her first season as the women's basketball head coach at the University of Tennessee. She was announced on April 7, 2024, as the fourth leader of the Lady Volunteers during the NCAA era.

A rising star in the profession, Caldwell has quickly forged a reputation as an elite head coach at two different stops and makes her debut at the game's highest level as the leader of the all-time winningest program in women's hoops. She previously led NCAA Division II Glenville State and DI Marshall to championship seasons with a high-octane approach on both ends of the floor.

Simply put, Caldwell is a winner. In eight seasons as a head coach, she has compiled an impressive 217-31 (.875) career record. Those numbers include an astounding 149-13 (.920) mark in conference games. Along the way, her teams have earned berths in eight NCAA Tournaments, and she has directed those squads to one national championship, two NCAA DII Final Fours, seven conference championships and five conference tournament titles.

Statistically, her teams have excelled in scoring, three-point shooting and steals. As a head coach, her teams have led the nation five times in scoring, finishing second twice and never placing below fourth in points per game. Her squads have been the top team on four occasions in three-pointers made per game, never placing lower than fifth. In steals per game, Caldwell's units have never finished below fourth.

Prior to coming to Tennessee, Caldwell guided Marshall to a 26-7 overall record and 17-1 league mark in her only season there in 2023-24. She was named the WBCA's Spalding Maggie Dixon NCAA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year and the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year after piloting the Thundering Herd to both the league's regular season and tournament titles as well as the school's second NCAA Tournament berth ever and first since 1997.

After being picked ninth in the Sun Belt Conference preseason poll, Marshall proceeded to generate 85.3 points per game (4th in NCAA) and force 24.2 turnovers per contest in notching a program best for wins. Caldwell's victory total stands as the most by a first-year coach in MU women's hoops history and marked the first 20-win regular-season campaign by the school since 1990-91.

Caldwell got her start as a head coach at her alma mater under her maiden name of Kim Stephens. She led Glenville State to the 2021-22 NCAA Division II National Championship in her sixth year at the school and helped the Pioneers earn seven overall NCAA Tournament berths.

For the 2021-22 season's accomplishment, she was presented the Pat Summitt Trophy, which goes to the WBCA's NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year. Caldwell also earned the 2022 Furfari Award, which is presented to West Virginia's College Coach of the Year in all sports by the West Virginia Sports Writers Association. She also won that award in 2019 and 2024 (while at Marshall) as well.

In seven seasons with the Pioneers, from 2016-23, the 2011 GSU graduate compiled a 191-24 mark, including a 132-12 slate in the Mountain East Conference (MEC). Her final two editions forged a 68-4 combined record, including the 35-1 national championship season (22-0 in league play) in 2021-22, and a 33-3 outcome after advancing to the national semifinals in 2022-23. Her final unit there led NCAA Division II in points per game (91.2) and turnovers forced (27.3).

She guided Glenville State to six MEC regular season titles (2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2022, 2023) and four MEC Tournament trophies (2018, 2019, 2020, 2023), earning MEC Coach of the Year honors four times in 2018, 2019, 2022 and 2023. Her first four league titles came with her father, Scott Stephens, serving as her assistant coach before he passed away on Nov. 21, 2020.

Prior to her stint at GSU, she worked as an assistant at Sacramento State for three seasons from 2013-16 under Bunky Harkleroad, for the 2012-13 season at Glenville State as an assistant to Harkleroad and began her college coaching career at Ohio Valley University, filling a role as an assistant there from 2011-12.

A native of Parkersburg, W.Va., Caldwell played high school basketball for her dad at Parkersburg South High School, where he led that program to three state titles during a 13-year career. Her sisters Anne and Jill also played at PSHS before going on to collegiate careers at the University of Cincinnati from 2002-06 and 2005-09, respectively.

As a collegiate player, Caldwell (then Stephens) helped lead Glenville State to the 2010-11 West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship as a player and earn an NCAA Division II Tournament berth. She was named the WVIAC Student-Athlete of the Year that season and academically made the WVIAC Commissioner's Honor Roll as a junior and senior.

Caldwell is married to Justin Caldwell, who was head coach of the men's basketball program at Glenville State from 2018-23 and served as a men's hoops assistant at Marshall in 2023-24. He joined Rick Barnes' men's basketball staff on Sept. 20, 2024, when he was named player development coordinator for the Vols.

WHAT UT VICE CHANCELLOR/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS DANNY WHITE SAID...
"From the beginning, our goal has been to find a dynamic head coach who can restore our women's basketball program to national prominence. Kim Caldwell is the ideal person to lead us," said White. "Kim has a winning formula that she has successfully implemented everywhere she has coached, with a fast-paced, high-octane offense and pressure defense that has led to remarkable results. In this new era of college sports, it was vital that we found an innovative head coach with a strong track record of winning titles. We are eager to return the Lady Vols to a championship level, and we're confident that Kim Caldwell is the coach who can lead us back to the top."

WHAT NEW LADY VOL HEAD COACH KIM CALDWELL SAID...
"I am honored and humbled to accept the role as head coach of this historic program at the University of Tennessee," Caldwell said. "I can't help but reflect on accepting the Pat Summitt Trophy three seasons ago and be moved by the great responsibility and opportunity of now leading and building upon the incredible Lady Vol tradition she built. I am so excited to get to work and can't wait to see what we all can accomplish together."

ROMAN TUBNER

ASSISTANT COACH

CENTENARY '11

Roman Tubner joined Tennessee Athletics on April 16, 2024, as Kim Caldwell named him an assistant on her first staff as head coach of the Lady Vols.

Tubner, who is in his 12th season in the women's game, has accumulated a 195-136 record as a full-time coach at seven previous schools. The teams he has helped lead have recorded six postseason appearances (5 NCAA, 1 WNIT), two conference championships and a conference tournament title. They also carded two league tourney runner-up showings and a second-place league finish as well.

During his first year in Knoxville, Tubner attended the 2024 SEC Coaches Opportunity Forum in Atlanta. Created as a result of SEC Bylaw 23, the forum was implemented in 2021 to promote opportunities in paths to leadership. The goal is to empower participants with knowledge, skills and resources necessary to progress toward head coaching positions in their respective sports.

Tubner arrived on Rocky Top after spending three seasons on Kristy Curry's staff as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Alabama, earning a promotion to associate head coach in 2023 as the Crimson Tide went 64-35 during his tenure. During that span, UA earned three postseason berths that included NCAA appearances in the 2023 and 2024 tournaments following a WNIT quarterfinal result in 2022.

A 2019 selection to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's 30 Under Thirty and a member of Silver Waves Media's 2023 list of the 50 Most Impactful Assistants, he helped the Crimson Tide to three consecutive 20+ win seasons for the first time since 1999, including a 24-victory campaign in 2023-24 that was Bama's finest since 1998.

The 2023-24 unit forged a 24-10 overall record and 10-6 SEC mark, tying for fourth place and earning the league tourney's No. 4 seed. The Tide later advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, marking the program's first win in that event since 2021.

A contributing factor to that on-court success was UA's effort in recruiting, where he directed the charge in the signing or commitment of 16 players during his tenure as recruiting coordinator. He recruited and assisted in the development of two All-SEC players (Sarah Ashlee Barker, Aaliyah Nye) and an SEC All-Freshman selection (Essence Cody) in 2023-24 and helped land a 2023 recruiting class ranked No. 11 by espnW and a portal class rated No. 25 by 247Sports and Brandon Clay Scouting that season as well. The signing group included Cody, Reychel Douglas and Naomi Jones.

From the time he arrived in Tuscaloosa, the Tide elevated from 20-14/6-10 (10th) with a WNIT quarterfinal berth in 2021-22 to 20-11/9-7 (t5th) and an NCAA appearance in 2022-23 before the next step forward in 2023-24. During that window, he coached SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year Hannah Barber and All-SEC First Team selection Brittany Davis, the No. 36 overall pick by the Las Vegas Aces in the 2023 WNBA Draft.

Prior to his stint at Alabama, Tubner spent a season at Ball State under head coach Brady Sallee. He assisted for a 14-11/12-8 (6th, MAC) Cardinal squad and worked primarily with the point guards, developing All-MAC Honorable Mention selection Sydney Freeman.

In 2019-20, he served as an assistant coach to Karen Barefoot at the University of North Carolina-Wilmington. While there, he recruited 2021 All-Colonial Athletic Association Sixth Player of the Year ZaNautica Downs and worked with three student-athletes who garnered All-Colonial Athletic Association honors.

Tubner spent a season in Terre Haute, Ind., in 2018-19, holding the position of assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Indiana State. He helped the Sycamores produce their highest scoring average in five years and reeled in one of the top recruiting classes in the Missouri Valley Conference en route to being named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) 30 Under Thirty list.

From 2017-18, Tubner gained experience as an assistant at Austin Peay, where he helped lead the Governors to 16 wins, the most for the program in a decade. He also helped develop Brianne Alexander into an All-OVC First Team selection.

Prior to his stop at APSU, Tubner logged three years at Arkansas Tech from 2014-17. While there, he assisted the Golden Suns to a 72-19 record and three NCAA Division II Tournaments, two regular-season Great American Conference championships (2014-15, 2015-16) and a league tourney title (2015-16). Tech also carded a second-place conference regular season finish in 2016-17 and tourney runner-up showings in 2014-15 and 2016-17.

Tubner got his start in coaching at the University of Arkansas-Monticello, where he worked from 2011-13 as a men's basketball graduate assistant before being promoted to assistant women's basketball coach and recruiting coordinator for the 2013-14 campaign. He helped the 2011-12 UAM men's team to 21 wins and coached three DII All-Americans while with that program.

A graduate of Montgomery (Ala.) Catholic High School, Tubner was a three-sport athlete in high school who went on to play at Centenary College in Louisiana. He graduated from Centenary with a bachelor's in psychology in 2011 and earned his master's from Arkansas-Monticello in 2012 with studies in physical education and coaching. He is married to the former Kyndra Daniels, and they have two daughters: Skylar and Rhian.

GABE LAZO

FIRST YEAR AT TENNESSEE/8TH YEAR AS AN ASSISTANT
BARRY '08

Gabe Lazo joined Tennessee Athletics on April 16, 2024, as Kim Caldwell named him an assistant on her first staff as head coach of the Lady Vols.

Lazo, who is in his eighth season in coaching at the collegiate level, has accumulated a 114-95 record at four schools over a seven-year period. The teams he has helped lead have recorded three postseason appearances (2 NCAA, 1 WBIT), a conference championship and a conference tournament title.

In his first year in Knoxville, Lazo was chosen to attend the 2024 TopConnect Basketball Symposium in Las Vegas. The program identifies the top assistant basketball coaches in the country and connects them with mid-major athletic directors, providing tremendous networking and leadership development opportunities for both parties. He also was named to the board of directors for the Latino Association of Basketball Coaches (LABC).

Lazo arrived at Rocky Top after spending two seasons at Mississippi State, earning a promotion to associate head coach there after helping the Bulldogs make the NCAA Tournament Second Round in 2022-23 and the WBIT Elite Eight in 2023-24. They did so while posting back-to-back seasons of 22 and 23 victories and charting a 45-23 record during that time frame.

Known as a relentless recruiter, a motivator and a mentor to, and developer of, student-athletes. Lazo served as MSU's designated defensive coordinator. The first assistant hired by the Bulldogs' Sam Purcell when he took the job in 2022, Lazo provided opponent scouting and defensive approach as well as in-game tactics and adjustments from the bench.

His ability to identify talent and build relationships was critical to the Bulldogs landing the No. 3 transfer class ahead of the 2023-24 campaign. He also played a key role in Mississippi State securing highly-regarded classes over his last two signing cycles there, including the 16th-rated class in 2022-23, which was the second best in school history.

Lazo, who has been cited for his work ethic, was a key staff member for Purcell, highlighted by his scouting assignment that helped the No. 11-seeded Bulldogs upset No. 6 seed Creighton in the first round of the 2023 NCAA tournament. Lazo also played a significant role in the recruitment of former Seton Hall transfer Lauren Park-Lane, who broke MSU's single-season assists record during the 2023-24 campaign.

Prior to making the move to Starkville, Lazo spent the 2021-22 campaign as an assistant at George Washington, helping mold the second-ranked defense in the A-10 Conference. During that season, he signed top-30 recruit Nyanna Robertson and lent his expertise as an improving GWU squad reached the quarterfinals of the A-10 Tournament.

From 2019-21, Lazo served as an assistant at Stony Brook, helping the Seawolves fashion a 43-9 overall record. Among SBU's achievements were winning the 2019-20 America East regular-season championship, with 28-3 overall and 14-2 league marks, and capturing the 2021 America East Tournament championship and earning a berth in that season's NCAA Tournament. While on Long Island, Lazo assisted with the development of five all-conference selections in 2020, including first-team honoree India Pagan.

Lazo cut his teeth in the college coaching ranks at FIU, filling a role as an assistant there from 2017-19. Working for head coach Tiara Malcom, he contributed toward the Panthers carding in 2017-18 their most overall victories since 2013-14 and their most league wins since joining Conference USA.

Prior to making the move to college basketball, Lazo was varsity girls head coach at John. A. Ferguson Senior High School from 2012-17, earning Miami-Dade County Coach of the Year distinction on three different occasions. He guided the Falcons to regional championships in 2015-16 and 2016-17 and to state runner-up finishes during those seasons as well and a No. 2 overall Florida state ranking in Class 8A.

His duties dovetailed with his summer role as head coach of the Miami Suns in the Nike Girls Elite Youth Basketball League from 2010-17. His 2014 "Team Larkins" squad achieved a top-10 national ranking and was invited to Nike Nationals.

Lazo played collegiately at FIU (2004-06) and Barry University (2006-08), earning a bachelor's degree in education from Barry in 2008.He also played professionally for two years with Cariduros de Fajardo BSN in Puerto Rico.

During his high school days, Lazo was a four-year letterwinner and an honor roll student at Miami Senior High. He led MSHS to the state final four as a junior and the elite eight as a senior and was part of squads winning three district titles and two city championships during his prep career.

JENNA BURDETTE

ASSISTANT COACH

DAYTON '18

Jenna Burdette joined Tennessee Athletics on April 16, 2024, as Kim Caldwell named her an assistant on her first staff as head coach of the Lady Vols. This marks the third time they have worked together.

Burdette, who is in her sixth season in coaching and her seventh year overall in college basketball, has fashioned a 114-24 career record at two schools over five seasons. The teams she has helped coach have carded three NCAA Tournament appearances, three conference championships and a trio of conference tournament crowns as well.

She joined Caldwell and fellow assistant coach Angel Rizor in making the transition from Marshall to UT. The former Thundering Herd staff member served as associate head coach during the 2023-24 campaign in Caldwell's first year at the Huntington, W. Va., school. She had been an assistant on the MU staff for two previous seasons since being hired in May of 2021, helping the program to a 58-34 overall record during that span.

Included in that is last year's triumphant season at Marshall, where the Herd went 26-7 overall and 17-1 in Sun Belt Conference play en route to regular season and tournament championships and an automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 26 wins marked a program best, and MU made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1997 and only its second ever.

The Thundering Herd averaged 85.3 points per game to rank fourth among NCAA Division I schools and were first in three-pointers attempted per game (31.9), second in turnovers forced per game (24.2), third in three-pointers made per game (10.6), third in steals per game (13.2), third in turnover margin (7.94) and fifth in offensive rebounds per game (16.4).

The duo first worked together at NCAA Division II Glenville State, where Burdette served as an assistant to Caldwell from 2018-20. They helped lead the Pioneers to a 56-8 overall mark, which included a 40-4 mark in conference play and a pair of Mountain East Conference championships. GSU also won MEC Tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of those seasons.

Glenville State ranked No. 1 in NCAA Division II in scoring per game in 2018-19 (102.3) and 2019-20 (106.8). The Pioneers also finished first in three-pointers made, three-pointers attempted and three-pointers attempted per game both seasons and wound up third in steals per game in 2018-19 and fourth in 2019-20.

Between her stints at Glenville State and Marshall, Burdette served as the director of basketball operations at Northern Kentucky University in 2020-21 before joining Marshall's staff for the 2021-22 season.

A native of Coolville, Ohio, Burdette was a standout player at the University of Dayton from 2014-18, earning a degree in exercise science. During her career she played in 120 games and averaged 11.2 points per contest, becoming the 25th Flyer to reach the 1,000-point mark.

Burdette garnered All-A-10 honors twice, earning second-team acclaim as a junior in 2016-17 and first-team accolades as a senior in 2017-18, when she put up 16.2 points and 3.9 assists per game and hit 44.5 percent of her three-point attempts to rank second in the A-10 and eighth nationally. Additionally, she was named A-10 Tournamen-Most Outstanding Performer as a junior and was a member of the A-10 All-Rookie Team in 2014-15.

Dayton and Tennessee met during Burdette's junior campaign, squaring off in the NCAA First Round in Louisville, Ky., on March 18, 2017. The Lady Vols overcame a 29-all tie at the intermission to secure a 66-57 victory over a determined Flyers squad. Burdette contributed seven points, three rebounds and three assists to her team's cause over 28 minutes.

As a high school player at Reedsville Eastern, Burdette was a three-time First Team Ohio selection and was Eastern's all-time leading scorer. She was also the Associated Press Division IV Southeastern District Player of the Year for three years and was ranked No. 18 at her position by ESPN HoopGurlz.

ANGEL RIZOR

ASSISTANT COACH

FIRST YEAR AT TENNESSEE/3RD YEAR AS AN ASSISTANT
CINCINNATI '20

Angel Rizor joined Tennessee Athletics on April 16, 2024, as Kim Caldwell named her an assistant on her first staff as head coach of the Lady Vols. This marks the third time they have worked together.

Rizor, who is in her third season in coaching, has fashioned a 61-8 career record at two schools over as many seasons. The teams she has helped lead have recorded two NCAA Tournament appearances, one national championship, two conference championships and a conference tournament crown.

She joined Caldwell and fellow assistant Jenna Burdette in making the transition from Marshall to UT. The former Thundering Herd staff member served as an assistant coach during the 2023-24 campaign in Caldwell's first and only year as head coach at the Huntington, W. Va., school.

During her brief stint at MU, the Herd went 26-7 overall and 17-1 in Sun Belt Conference play en route to regular season and tournament championships and an automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 26 wins marked a program best, and MU made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1997 and only its second ever.

The Thundering Herd averaged 85.3 points per game to rank fourth among NCAA Division I schools and were first in three-pointers attempted per game (31.9), second in turnovers forced per game (24.2), third in three-pointers made per game (10.6), third in steals per game (13.2), third in turnover margin (7.94) and fifth in offensive rebounds per game (16.4).

Prior to making the move to Marshall, Rizor broadened her coaching education while playing professionally in Germany in 2022-23. She led several local high school and club teams there to gain an international perspective on the game of basketball.

The duo first worked together at NCAA Division II Glenville State, where Rizor served as an assistant to Caldwell during the 2021-22 campaign. During that season, the Pioneers went 35-1 overall and 22-0 in the Mountain East Conference, claiming the NCAA Division II National Championship and the MEC regular season crown.

As they did many times under Caldwell, Glenville State once again led NCAA Division II in points per game at 95.5 as well as threes made (342) and attempted (1,030) in 2021-22. GSU also was No. 1 in assists (620), turnovers forced per game (25.72), steals (520) and scoring margin (32.7).

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Rizor spent a year playing professional basketball in Cesme-Izmir, Turkey for the Cesme Basketbol Kulubu. Her team there made the TKBL Playoffs in 2021.

Among other experiences, Rizor served as tournament director at the Kingdom Sports Center in Franklin, Ohio, in 2018 and completed a 2019 internship with Redline Athletics in West Chester, Ohio.

A 2020 graduate of Cincinnati with a degree in health promotion and education: exercise and fitness, Rizor was a four-year starter for the Bearcats. She surpassed 1,000 points while averaging 8.4 points per game in her career there.

In 2019-20, she was named All-American Athletic Conference Third Team as well as being voted the AAC's Most Improved Player and to the AAC All-Tournament Team. Additionally, she was selected for the 2018-19 AAC All-Academic Honor Roll, and in 2019-20 she was named to the Legion of Excellence at Cincinnati.

LEXIE BARRIER

ASSISTANT COACH

JMU '20

Lexie Barrier joined Tennessee Athletics in May of 2024, as Kim Caldwell named her an assistant on her first staff as head coach of the Lady Vols. This marks the first time they have worked together, though both previously served coaching stints at Marshall at different times.

Barrier makes the move to Knoxville after spending the past two seasons as an assistant at James Madison University. While coaching at her alma mater, she helped the Dukes to a pair of 23+ win seasons, forging a 49-20 overall record and 26-10 mark in the Sun Belt Conference during that time. The program made two postseason appearances and picked up two pieces of SBC hardware along the way.

In 2023-24, she helped guide the Dukes to a 23-12 overall record and a 13-5 effort in league play, highlighted by the program's second consecutive trip to the Sun Belt Conference Women's Basketball Championship game. JMU, which lost in the SBC Tourney title match-up, 95-92 in overtime, to Caldwell's Marshall club, made its second-straight postseason tournament appearance. It earned an at-large bid to the newly-formed Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament, falling to Stony Brook in the opening round.

That Dukes squad finished first in Division I in defensive rebounds per game (32.3), second in rebounds per game (47.49), fifth in rebound margin (+11.3), ninth in bench points per game (27.8) and 12th in field goal percentage defense (.361) for the 2023-24 campaign.

In 2022-23, the Dukes went 26-8 overall and 13-5 in conference games, tying for first in the SBC during the regular season and capturing the SBC Tournament Championship title to earn an automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament. That JMU unit led the league in scoring margin (+8.8), opponent field goal percentage (.361), opponent three-point percentage (.286), and rebounding margin (+8.1).

Prior to her move back to Harrisonburg, Barrier spent a year at Marshall, working alongside current UT assistant Jenna Burdette during the 2021-22 campaign. During her time with the Thundering Herd, Barrier acted as the recruiting coordinator, assisted in player development and served as the academic liaison for players.

In Barrier's lone season in Huntington, the Herd finished the year with a 15-13 record (10-8 C-USA). Marshall capped the regular season with two big victories over WKU. The squad set a program record for the fewest turnovers per game at just 12.7, which led the league and ranked 22nd in the nation. Marshall also led C-USA in fewest total turnovers (355), which ranked ninth in the NCAA.

Marshall flourished in the classroom as well in 2021-22, as 14-of-15 players were honored on the C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll, three received the Academic Medal for a GPA of 3.75 or better, and the Herd's team GPA for the academic year was 3.49.

Before her stint at Marshall, Barrier served as a graduate manager at NC State during the 2020-21 season, earning an MBA in adult and continuing professional education from the school in 2021. The Wolfpack ranked seventh nationally in the final USA Today Coaches Poll to end the year in the top 10 for the third-straight season. That came as a result of a 22-3 record, second-consecutive ACC title and a third NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in a row. NC State spent every week of the season in the top 10 of the coaches poll, which included three-straight weeks at No. 2.

As a player at JMU, Barrier started 96 of 127 games played, racking up 1,216 points and tying for 21st in program history. She also added 497 rebounds, 236 assists, 126 steals and 129 three-pointers in her career. She finished with cumulative averages of 9.6 points, 3.9 rebounds and 1.9 assists and posted a career-high 24 points against Northwestern in her junior season.

She collected All-Colonial Athletic Association Second Team honors in 2017-18 and 2018-19 as well as a spot on the CAA All-Rookie squad following the 2016-17 season. The Ironton, Ohio, native graduated from JMU in May 2020 with a bachelor's degree in sport & recreation management.

Barrier, who was blessed by the arrival of daughter Alani in February 2024, launched her playing career at Ironton High School and left the program as its all-time leading scorer. She was voted Southeast Ohio AP District Player of the Year and the 2016 All-Ohio Division III Co-Player of the Year while earning all-state honors as a junior and senior.

DR. CATHERINE GREENE

SIXTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
NORTH CAROLINA '08

The 2024-25 campaign is the sixth year with the Lady Vol program for Dr. Catherine Greene but her third season as the executive director of basketball operations/chief of staff.

Greene began her tenure on Rocky Top as director of basketball operations on May 31, 2019, and assists the head coach with overall logistics for the program. Among her duties at Tennessee are planning and executing all team travel and activities, as well as oversight of managers and other support staff, and management of the program's annual budget.

Additionally, she serves as the program's point of contact for the UT Athletics Department in general as well as for compliance, community service, marketing/branding, nutrition, alumni outreach and communication technology. She has served as a member of the Strategic Plan: Student-Athlete Success Working Group and assisted in the department implementation of Teamworks, specifically serving on a TMP/CARA working group.

Greene is active in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA), organizing the director of operations sessions at the 2016 & 2017 conventions. She also presented at a roundtable on creative fundraising tips in 2016, served on the director of operations panel at the 2014 convention and participated in the 2016 NCAA Women's Basketball mock selection exercise.

She also is engaged with the Women's Leaders in College Sports (formerly NACWAA), attending the Women's Leadership Symposium in 2014 and the Institute for Administrative Advancement in 2016. Other activities worthy of note were being selected to the Teamworks Basketball Leadership Committee (Summer 2019) and possessing a certification in mental health first aid (2018).

Before joining the Lady Vol staff, Greene served from 2017-19 as the director of student-athlete enrichment for the University of North Carolina women's basketball program. She was responsible for a variety of tasks within the program, including community engagement, community outreach, social media oversight, academics, marketing liaison, team building and career development in preparing student-athletes for life beyond basketball.

Prior to that, Greene spent five seasons (2012-17) as a member of the Georgia Tech women's basketball program, joining as an associate director of basketball operations and serving the last four as the director of women's basketball ops. Additionally, she was a member of the department's culture committee and senior staff.

Her first full-time experience in athletics came in event management/operations for UNC (2010-12). She was a gameday manager for Olympic sports and tournament director or co-director for NCAA and ACC Championship events.

A native of Gastonia, N.C., Greene graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2008 with Bachelor of Arts degrees in sociology and from the school of journalism and mass communication with a public relations concentration. She earned a Master of Arts in exercise and sport science from UNC with a sport administration specialization in 2010 and added an Ed.D. in global sport leadership at East Tennessee State in May 2024.

Greene served as a manager for the Tar Heels' women's basketball team and was the head manager for three years. During that time, the Tar Heels won four ACC Championships and advanced to the 2006 and 2007 Final Fours. While in graduate school, she was a grad student assistant for the women's team for one season before serving as the graduate intern for the Dean E. Smith Center.

HEATHER ERVIN

DIRECTOR OF STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS & EXT. RELATIONS

NINTH YEAR ON STAFF/23RD YEAR AT TENNESSEE
TROY '99

The 2024-25 campaign is the ninth season as a member of the UT women's basketball staff for Heather Ervin and her third as the director of student-athlete success and external relations after serving the previous three as the director of player relations and administration and three prior as director of recruiting operations and player personnel.

Among Ervin's focused responsibilities for her latest role are implementation and oversight of a program based on building lifetime success, which focuses on character development, life skills and career connections, and provision of individualized education and guidance to current student-athletes in the areas of personal brand alignment, image consultation, career exploration and business leadership development.

Additionally, she has oversight for the program's mentorship program, serving both as an advisor to student-athletes as well as connecting student-athletes with other high-character role models, and partnering with the Thornton Athletics Student Life Center in the area of student-athlete development for each Lady Vol player.

Ervin made a return to college athletics after serving as the program administrator at the UT Center for Information and Communication Studies in the College of Communication from March 2015 to July 2016.

Prior to that, Ervin worked with the University of Tennessee football program for 13 years, from 2001-14. She was promoted in 2009 to assistant director of football operations, as the only female in the Southeastern Conference to hold that position. Ervin has a wealth of knowledge in the sports industry not only as a former student-athlete but as a coach and administrator as well.

A member of the WBCA and Women Leaders in College Sports, Ervin's additional responsibilities have included providing mentorship to current student-athletes, serving as the academic liaison and spearheading the DEI initiatives for the program. She also has been involved with Lady Vol facility projects, student-athlete housing and Letter Award distribution. She currently serves as a UT Promise mentor, is on the competitive excellence strategic planning committee and is a member of the Vols Leadership Academy.

Previous responsibilities have included assisting with all aspects of day-to-day recruiting operations, updating the recruiting boards and assisting with official and unofficial visits. She also was responsible for managing pre- and post-signing paperwork as well as organizing prospect evaluations and managing the coaches' recruiting travel.

Ervin's responsibilities in her previous role in athletics were to manage the head football coach's daily schedule while also providing administrative support to the director of football operations and the senior associate athletics director for football administration. Ervin also was responsible for arranging summer employment opportunities for student-athletes and working closely with the Thornton Center in monitoring student-athletes' class attendance.

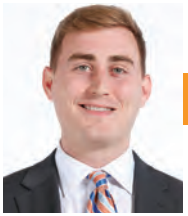
In addition, she served as chief liaison for all player family event functions as well as managing a website designed for players' families. Ervin also was substantially involved with official and unofficial on-campus recruiting visits.

The Sweetwater, Tenn., native holds both a bachelor's degree in health and human services (1999) and a master's degree in foundations of education with an emphasis in sports management (2001) from Troy University, where she played basketball and later served as a graduate assistant basketball coach for two years.

Prior to that, she played two seasons at Hiwassee College in nearby Madisonville, Tenn. While there, Ervin helped the Tigers to a combined 57-10 record and two trips to the NJCAA national tournament before graduating in 1997.

During her playing days at Sweetwater High School, the former Heather Lenoir was a multi-sport athlete in basketball, softball and track and field. She set 12 track records and still owns nine of those today.

Ervin and her husband, Harry, reside in Maryville and have two daughters: Jasmine and Jada.



JOSH THEIS

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO & CREATIVE CONTENT

SIXTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
XAVIER (OH) '19

The 2024-25 campaign is the sixth season for Josh Theis with the Lady Vol program but his fourth year in a full-time capacity, accepting a role in May of 2021 and serving as director of video and creative content.

Theis, who served as a graduate manager with the Lady Vols from 2019-21, worked alongside the recruiting coordinator and coaching staff to create graphics and videos for use in recruiting and social media. He now has a leadership role in that area as well as in assisting the coaching staff in opponent scouting reports and coordinating all aspects of film exchange and video editing.

In addition to creating and developing recruiting content, he assists in cultivating image and branding for Tennessee women's basketball, its student-athletes and coaches.

The Cincinnati, Ohio, native received his undergraduate degree in graphic design in 2019 from Xavier University. He spent four years with the Xavier men's basketball team as a student program assistant, working with a squad that made an NCAA Elite Eight appearance in 2017 and won the BIG EAST regular season championship in 2018. He earned a master's degree in sports management from the University of Tennessee in May 2021.

THIRD YEAR AT TENNESSEE
OKLAHOMA '19

The 2024-25 campaign is the third season at Tennessee for Haley Hall, who is in year one as assistant director of operations after serving as program coordinator the previous two campaigns for Lady Vol basketball. She came to Rocky Top in 2022-23 after spending the previous two years as an administration and compliance manager at the University of Oklahoma.

Hall's duties at UT include managing the head coach's schedule and fielding all appearance and speaking requests. She also coordinates autograph and donation requests for the program.

Additionally, Hall handles all team and recruiting reimbursements for the women's basketball staff, prepares and reconciles all team travel expense reports, and assists with travel arrangements for the head coach, assistants and staff.

Besides her employment experience at OU, Hall was the marketing coordinator for the USA Softball "Stand Beside Her" Tour from February to April 2020, team services and event operations intern for the Fiesta Bowl from September 2019 to January 2020, and a student assistant with the University of Oklahoma Sports Nutrition Department from August 2017 to July 2019.

Hall is a 2019 graduate of the University of Oklahoma with a degree in business administration with emphasis in sports management and accounting.

MASHAYLA CECIL

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

FIRST YEAR AT TENNESSEE
GLENVILLE STATE '22

Mashayla Cecil joined Tennessee Athletics in May of 2024, as Kim Caldwell named her a graduate assistant on her first staff as head coach of the Lady Vols.

Cecil, who is in her second season in coaching, made the move to Knoxville after serving as an assistant coach last year at Marshall under Caldwell and alongside current Lady Vol assistants Jenna Burdette and Angel Rizor.

In addition to her year with Caldwell at MU, Cecil played three seasons at Glenville State from 2019-22, helping Caldwell and the Pioneers win an NCAA Division II National Championship trophy during the 2021-22 campaign. The duo also collected two Mountain East Conference titles and an MEC Tournament crown while compiling a 73-10 record during that period, including a 51-5 mark in league games.

After winning the national title, Cecil transferred to Wayne State University in Detroit, where she finished her career on the hardwood in 2022-23 while pursuing a master's in counseling. She earned the D2 ADA Academic Achievement Award while at WSU.

Cecil, who attended Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in Lexington, Ky., was the 11th Region Player of the Year and a Miss Kentucky Basketball candidate as a senior, and she became the all-time leading scorer in Fayette County Public Schools history with 2,232 points. Cecil earned all-city and all-district acclaim three times prior to beginning her college career at EKU in 2018-19 before making the moving to Glenville State.

In 2022, Cecil earned a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in health promotions from GSU. She is pursuing a master's in sport management at Tennessee and is a recipient of the Steve & Kaye Maynard Women's Basketball Graduate Assistant Scholarship Fund.

MAGGIE STANLEY

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

FIRST YEAR AT TENNESSEE
MARSHALL '20

Stanley comes to Knoxville after spending six seasons working with the women's basketball program at Marshall, including a role as director of basketball operations from 2022-24. Stanley was instrumental in the program's 2023-24 Sun Belt Conference Championship season, navigating the logistics of qualifying for the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance in more than 25 years.

Beginning her journey with the Marshall women's basketball team in 2018 as a student manager, Stanley was soon named head manager and supervised three other student managers. She engaged in limited on-court activities and operated the clock during practices. Stanley assisted with gameday preparation for home and away games and helped handle logistics on the road. Stanley ensured that laundry was done for both the team and the coaching staff, and she also assisted the director of operations with camps, fundraising and other day-to-day functions.

Stanley had many duties during her two seasons as a graduate assistant from 2020-22. She oversaw ordering and distribution of equipment and gear for the entire program and assisted the director of operations with day-to-day tasks and helped with travel logistics and coordination of meals. She also oversaw the budgeting for equipment, recruiting and meals as well as the academic team for the student-athletes. Stanley engaged in on-court activities and created graphics for social media and recruiting. She also recorded statistics and provided analysis with the coaching staff.

Stanley graduated with a bachelor's degree in sport management from Marshall in 2020 and earned a master's degree in sports administration from the school in 2022.

CASI DAILEY

ASSOC. DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

FIFTH YEAR ON STAFF/EIGHTH OVERALL YEAR AT TENNESSEE
HOPE '08

Casi Dailey is in her fifth season at the University of Tennessee as an associate director of sports medicine and has overseen the medical care for the Lady Vol basketball team since June 2020.

Dailey, who had a previous stint at UT from 2008 to 2011 as a graduate assistant and intern, returned to Knoxville from North Carolina State University, where she was employed from 2012-20. During her eight years at NC State, Dailey worked primarily with a women's hoops program that claimed the 2020 ACC Tournament and posted back-to-back NCAA Sweet 16 appearances in 2018 and 2019. She also assisted the softball team and served as the treasurer for the ACC Sports Medicine Association from 2018-20.

Dailey received her bachelor's degree in athletic training in 2008 from Hope College in Holland, Mich., and became a certified athletic trainer. She then attended UT, where she earned a master's in sport management in 2010.

As a graduate assistant at Tennessee, Dailey worked with the 2009 NCAA champion Lady Vol track & field team as well as the women's golf and women's tennis programs. After earning her master's from Rocky Top, Dailey stayed an additional year as an intern athletic trainer.

Dailey has completed all three of the classes offered by the Kinesio Tape Association International. She is BFR certified through Owens Recovery Science. She is certified in dry needling through IDN. She also has completed the first module of Graston courses. She currently serves as the secretary on the board for the College Athletic Trainers Society.

NOLAN HARVATH

DIRECTOR OF WBB SPORTS PERFORMANCE

SOUTHERN INDIANA '13

Nolan Harvath joined the Tennessee Athletics staff on April 22, 2024, accepting the role of director of women's basketball sports performance for first-year head coach Kim Caldwell.

He made the move to Knoxville after serving with the West Virginia University strength and conditioning staff since December of 2020. An assistant strength and conditioning coach there, Harvath worked with Mountaineer football since spring 2022. He originally arrived in Morgantown in December 2020 after being hired to assist the Mountaineer baseball and golf programs.

Harvath came to WVU after a three-year stint as the director of strength and conditioning at Glenville State University from 2018-20. He also was assistant athletic director at GSU from 2019-20, working there while Caldwell was leading the Pioneer women's basketball program.

At Glenville State, Harvath was responsible for all strength and conditioning activities within the athletic department, including program design and implementation. Additionally, he oversaw all strength, speed, power and ability testing, as well as budgeting and fundraising activities related to strength and conditioning.

Prior to his time in Glenville, Harvath was a strength and conditioning intern at WVU, working primarily with the football team. He assisted during team lifts and runs and was responsible for setting up and breaking down all team strength and conditioning activities.

Harvath also served as a consultant for the University of Charleston baseball team from 2016-20, designing all strength and conditioning programs for the team. He also tracked, monitored and assessed all data obtained from each macrocycle.

In the West Virginia prep ranks, Harvath spent time as a strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, East Fairmont High (2016-17), and Morgantown High (2013-15). In 2013, Harvath was given the opportunity to be the graduate assistant head strength and conditioning coach at MHS while pursuing his master's. He was responsible for all strength and conditioning activities, including program design and implementation for football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, men's and women's soccer, track and cross country, wrestling and volleyball.

Harvath also was responsible for overseeing the strength and conditioning internship program at Morgantown High School in conjunction with West Virginia University. He oversaw all fundraising activities for the strength and conditioning program, and all strength, speed, power and agility testing.

A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Harvath graduated from the University of Southern Indiana in 2013 with a degree in exercise science before earning his master's in athletic coaching education with emphasis in human performance from WVU in 2016. While attending USI, he was a four-year member of the men's soccer program and was a two-year captain as well as three-time academic all-conference honoree.

He began his strength and conditioning career during his senior year at USI at the Sports Acceleration Center located in Evansville, Indiana. The primary training focus of the Center is on the development of an athlete's speed and power potential.

Harvath also worked in the private sector of strength and conditioning at Pro Performance in Morgantown. While at Pro Performance, Harvath was able to expand his training knowledge and philosophy by working with a wide variety of sports and skill levels. He is a National Strength and Conditioning Association certified strength and conditioning coach and is a certified physical preparation specialist.

ANGIE BOYD KECK

SR. ASSOCIATE A.D./SR. WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

30TH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
TENNESSEE '94

Senior Associate Athletics Director Angie Boyd Keck works closely with SEC and NCAA staff as UT's Senior Woman Administrator and also serves as the sport administrator for women's basketball, men's and women's golf and volleyball.

Among her duties, she monitors and directs sports programs in all aspects of operations, budget planning, resource allocation and scheduling. She approves and monitors practice, competitive schedules and NCAA time management legislation as well as advising the director of athletics on all matters concerning assigned sports programs.

Additionally, she manages and facilitates administrative situations associated with those sports, conducts evaluations of assigned coaches and oversees the general conduct of the program, including player/coach relationships, event management, travel conditions and criteria, competitiveness and student-athlete behavior and conduct.

Keck assists with facility renovation/construction designs, fundraising for new facilities/renovations, and she also provides input for marketing plans and promotions for assigned sports.

During the development of Tennessee Athletics' comprehensive five-year strategic plan, Rise Glorious—published in July of 2022—Keck chaired the Mission, Vision & Values Committee.

Immediately prior to assuming her current post, she served as an associate AD–most recently for Business & Internal Affairs–from 2008-19. She took on the role of SWA in the summer of 2019.

In the fall of 2019, Keck began a four-year term on the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Committee. She also has served on UT's exempt staff council, the Work Culture Improvement Team and is a member of Women's Leaders in College Sports.
She is also on the SEC Championships committee since 2020, which selects sites and oversees SEC Championships.

Keck began her career in intercollegiate administration in 1994-95, when she was the assistant women's golf coach with the Lady Vols. Prior to her coaching stint, she was a member of the inaugural Tennessee women's golf team in 1992. Keck (then Angie Boyd) captained the 1993-94 squad to a 13th-place NCAA finish in 1994. She was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in both her years as a player and earned a spot in the Lady Vols Hall of Fame (now the University of Tennessee Athletic Hall of Fame) in the Fall of 2005.

A 1994 graduate of Tennessee, Keck earned her bachelor's degree in Public Administration. In 1997, she received her master's in Sport Administration from UT.

Keck and her husband, Kelly, reside in Dandridge, Tennessee. They have a son, Josh, and a daughter, Sidney.

MARSHALL STEWARD

SR. ASSOCIATE A.D. & ASSOCIATE PROVOST

INDIANA STATE '06

A member of the Tennessee Athletics AD Cabinet and Executive Staff, Steward is the sport administrator for the rowing program while sharing sport admin duties for women's basketball.

In his Associate Provost role, Steward has a voice on the university's academic affairs team and works alongside key administrators in leading access and engagement initiatives within UTAD.

Steward also oversees all operations at the Thornton Athletics Student Life Center, a unit designed to maximize the student-athlete experience through championship-level academic investment, professional preparation, and community connection. Under Steward's leadership, Tennessee's student-athletes have raised all-sport GPAs, graduation rates, and post-graduate placement to unprecedented heights, establishing school records in all three areas during the 2022-23 academic year.

In 2023, Steward and his staff took its eighth cohort of the VOLeaders Academy, a year-long, best-in-class leadership development program designed to cultivate student-athlete leaders through sport to create positive change on their teams, campus, and local and global communities, to the Philippines on a 10-day cultural exchange trip providing applied leadership and service opportunities focused on community development and social change. Past locations have included: Brazil (2016), Vietnam (2017), Ecuador (2018), Rwanda (2019), Belize (2021), and Rwanda (2022). The VOLeaders Academy garnered national recognition as the sole recipient of the Model Practices Award at the 2023 NACDA Convention.

Steward has held leadership positions within the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) and is a proud graduate of the NCAA's Dr. Charles Whitcomb Leadership Institute, a nationally recognized professional development program designed to assist ethnic minorities in strategically mapping out their careers in athletics administration.

At the institutional level, Steward was named Tennessee Athletics' representative on the Chancellor's Council for Diversity and Inclusion in 2019 and served as a committee Chair for UT's Commission for Black Communities prior to that appointment.

In July 2020—after previously serving as Executive Director of Academic Services—Steward was promoted to the dual-title position of Associate Athletics Director of Academic Services & Assistant Provost. He was elevated to Senior Associate AD & Associate Provost in December 2022.

He was first hired at Tennessee as an academic counselor in 2012 and was steadily elevated to assistant and associate director while working closely with UT's football, track & field, soccer and men's golf programs.

Prior to his arrival at Tennessee, Steward served as the Director of Athletic Academic Services at Western Michigan University, where he began as an academic advisor in 2009.

A native of Mt. Vernon, Indiana, Steward holds bachelor's and master's degrees in Sport Management from Indiana State University, where he was a member of the ISU football team as undergraduate and graduate assistant for tutorial services in his alma mater's Student Academic Services Center. He is currently pursuing his PhD in UTs Higher Education Administration program.

Steward and his wife, Kramer, reside in Knoxville with their sons, Kyron and Kaylor, and daughters, Hazel and Mira.

DR. DONDE PLOWMAN

UT KNOXVILLE CHANCELLOR

SIXTH YEAR AS CHANCELLOR AT TENNESSEE
SMU, '74

Donde Plowman has served since 2019 as chancellor of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, the state's flagship land-grant research university. In that time the university has set new records in student retention, alumni giving, state support and research expenditures.

UT has a footprint that spans the entire state, including the main campus in Knoxville, the Space Institute in Tullahoma, and the Institute of Agriculture and its Extension offices in all 95 counties. Plowman oversees a campus budget of $1.9 billion as well as more than 38,000 students, nearly 7,000 staff, and more than 1,800 full-time faculty.

Under five years of Plowman's leadership, the university has doubled its annual research awards, hitting a record $428 million, and greatly expanded innovation and economic development partnerships with companies including AT&T, Eastman and Volkswagen.

Plowman's role as chancellor includes oversight of Tennessee Athletics, an operation generating more than $200 million in annual revenue, to which she has provided decisive and timely leadership. In 2020 she was selected by her peers in the Southeastern Conference to represent the SEC as a member of the NCAA Presidential Forum, and in 2023 she was elected vice president of the SEC Executive Committee. Plowman is known across the country as an advocate for student-athletes by supporting their pursuits on and off the field.

Shortly after her arrival at UT, Plowman created the Division of Student Success to ensure that students receive a wide range of support as they navigate college life. The university saw immediate results in its retention and graduation rates and captured the attention of peers across higher education.

Before becoming chancellor, Plowman served at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln as dean of the College of Business and then executive vice chancellor. She was previously a department head at UT. Plowman is a globally recognized organizational scientist whose scholarship includes the topics of leadership, change management and strategic decision-making.

DR. MATT HARRIS

NORTH CAROLINA '13

Matt Harris is the Boyd Distinguished Associate Professor of Health Economics at Tennessee and the university's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) to the Southeastern Conference. He came to UT in 2013 and has served as co-FAR since 2020. The role of the FAR is to build bridges between faculty and athletics, supporting a campus environment in which intercollegiate athletics is a vital component of the educational program, and serving as ombudsperson for student-athletes.

Dr. Harris holds a dual appointment in the Department of Economics and the Boyd Center for Business and Economic Research in the Haslam College of Business. The Boyd Center a nonpartisan research hub within the Haslam College of Business. The center conducts research on national and state economic trends for UT, state agencies and public and private organizations. It also analyzes and disseminates data on the demography and economy of Tennessee in conjunction with the Tennessee State Data Center.

Dr. Harris' academic research focuses primarily on health and labor economics, with a particular interest in the effects of the opioid epidemic on labor market and family outcomes. He is a co-editor of the Southern Economic Journal and on the editorial board at Health Economics.

In his work with the Boyd Center, Harris produces the population forecast for the State of Tennessee and conducts research on programs for workforce development, emerging trends in Tennessee's labor market, the economics of public health insurance, long term care options for older Tennesseans and economic impact of child maltreatment in Tennessee.

Harris is the Michael Stahl PEMBA Faculty Research Fellow. He teaches in both the Physicians Executive MBA program and the EMBA for Healthcare Leadership and has served on the UT Faculty Senate since 2018. Harris has also taught economics classes to executive education students internationally in Shanghai and Nur-Sultan, Kazakhstan.

DR. DANIEL J. WHITE

VICE CHANCELLOR/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

FIFTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
NOTRE DAME '02

Danny White's innovative and forward-thinking approach to the rapidly evolving landscape of intercollegiate athletics primed University of Tennessee Chancellor Donde Plowman to name him Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics on Jan. 21, 2021.

Boasting a literal lifetime of industry experience, White oversaw unprecedented competitive, academic and service excellence at the University of Central Florida from 2015-21. Prior to that, White served as the AD at Buffalo from 2012-15.

White's departmental successes have earned him numerous awards—he has been a Sports Business Journal 40 Under 40 honoree in multiple years, a spot on the Orlando Business Journal 40 Under 40 list, multiple selections as one of the 50 Most Powerful People in Orlando by Orlando Magazine, and a finalist for the 2018 and 2023 SBJ Athletics Director of the Year award.

A native of New Orleans, Louisiana, White was named a NACDA Athletics Director of the Year in the spring of 2019. In 2018, SBJ named him one of the six most influential people in sports business, while Orlando Magazine tabbed him as the area's most powerful person in sports.

Six days after he was named AD at Tennessee, White announced the hiring of Josh Heupel as the Volunteers' 27th head football coach. Heupel had spent the previous three years working alongside White as head coach at UCF, where he compiled an impressive 28-8 (20-5 AAC) record.

In just his second year at Tennessee, Heupel guided the Volunteers to an 8-0 start, 11 wins and an NY6 triumph over Clemson at the Capital One Orange Bowl. Heupel's record-setting offense propelled UT to No. 1 status in the first edition of the 2023 CFP rankings. In May 2023, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame recognized Plowman, White and Heupel collectively as "Tennesseans of the Year."

The football program's emphatic resurgence in 2022 ignited a wick of team success that wove through Tennessee's entire athletic department. A dozen other UT teams followed suit with national top-16 finishes during 2022-23. That comprehensive success led to the Big Orange earning their second consecutive SEC All-Sports Trophy while becoming only the second school to sweep the men's and women's all-sports standings.

Equally as impressive, Tennessee followed up a 13th-place finish in the 2021-22 LEARFIELD Directors' Cup standings with a sixth-place national finish in the 2022-23 Directors' Cup race. It was the best finish for UT in the Directors' Cup and just the third Top 10 finish, which began in 1993.

Tennessee's robust improvement in the Directors' Cup standings was noteworthy. Before finishing 13th, UT had not placed in the top 15 nationally since 2006-07.

After the baseball program swept the SEC regular-season and tournament titles in 2022, softball did the same in 2023. UT also became the only school to win a New Year's Six bowl game, advance both its men's and women's basketball teams to the Sweet Sixteen and send both its softball and baseball teams to the College World Series in the same academic year.

Full Name: Dr. Daniel J. White
Born: Oct. 28, 1979
Hometown: New Orleans, La.
Education: Notre Dame, 2002
Wife: Shawn
Children: Aidan, Molly, Caitlin, James

EXPERIENCE:
1998-2000: Towson, Men's Basketball Student-Athlete
2000-02: Notre Dame, Men's Basketball Student-Athlete
2004-05: Ohio, Men's Basketball Director of Operations
2005-06: Ohio, Men's Basketball Assistant Coach
2006-07: Northern Illinois, Assistant AD for Development
2007-09: Fresno State, Associate AD for Development
2009-12: Ole Miss, Senior Associate AD/UMAA Foundation Executive Director
2012-15: Buffalo, Director of Athletics
2015-21: UCF, Vice President & Director of Athletics
2021-pres.: Tennessee, Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

The wave of momentum on Rocky Top reached a historic level in 2023-24. Tennessee Athletics finished its best year ever as one of only two Power Five schools to send all its teams to the postseason, the first such occurrence in UT history.

The across-the-board success helped Tennessee earn a third-place finish in the LEARFIELD Directors' Cup standings, its best mark ever, and its third straight SEC All-Sports Trophy. Tennessee became the second school to win three consecutive SEC All-Sports titles.

Tennessee never won the SEC All-Sports Trophy before White's arrival.

Eleven sports finished in the top 10, with six in the top five. The banner year concluded with the baseball team winning its first national championship, the 24th team crown in Tennessee history and first since 2009.

In 2023-24, UT also became the first school to win the SEC championship in men's basketball, softball and baseball in the same year. In total, it collected four SEC titles, running its tally to 12 since 2021 after amassing just two in the four years prior to White's arrival.

Tennessee has reached the postseason in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, baseball and softball in all three of White's full years at the helm, the only school in the nation to do so.

Tennessee also had excellent success academically, posting it best department GPA (3.40) ever in the fall 2023 semester and following that with its second-best spring GPA (3.37) ever.

By marking the 23rd consecutive semester in which the Vols and Lady Vols combined to post a GPA of 3.0 or higher, Tennessee Athletics has now maintained that level of academic achievement for 12 straight years. It includes a remarkable three straight semesters where every sport at UT had over a 3.00 GPA.

For the first time in Tennessee history, UT's student-athletes have posted a GPA of over 3.20 in six of the last seven semesters.

In addition to football, White has led national searches and hired head coaches for Tennessee women's golf (Diana Cantú), soccer (Joe Kirt), track and field (Duane Ross), rowing (Kim Cupini) and women's basketball (Kim Caldwell).

Led by a leadership team handpicked by White, the Tennessee Fund reported its third consecutive record year across multiple fundraising metrics in FY24. For the fiscal year that ended on June 30 (FY24), the Tennessee Fund team set records for fundraising total ($139.8M) and annual fund ($57.2M). Since's White arrival, UT has seen a 73 percent growth in fundraising dollars raised, 73.3 percent growth in the annual fund and over 37 percent increase in total donors.

Since White launched the My All Campaign in the summer of 2021, the Tennessee Fund has secured commitments totaling over $559 million, far exceeding the campaign's goal of raising $500 million by the summer of 2026.

White also moved Tennessee's outbound ticket sales efforts in-house, generating more than $26 million in ticket revenue in 2022 and growing the football season ticket base by 17 percent in one year. The following two seasons saw UT sell out all 70,500 season tickets in Neyland Stadium before the summer. The Volunteers now have a season ticket waitlist of nearly 15,000.

Knoxville again proved why it is America's College Sports City in 2023-24. Tennessee posted the highest overall attendance of any school in the nation across football, men's and women's basketball at 1,161,218 across 38 home events.

The remarkable success at home included four sports selling out of season ticket inventory – football, men's basketball, softball, and baseball. It marked the first time in Tennessee history that four different sports were completely sold out of season ticket inventory in the same year.

The cumulative effect of the initiatives above led Tennessee Athletics to its highest-ever operating revenue of over $200 million in FY23. The FY24 operating revenue soared north of $220 million to set another new benchmark in UT athletics history.

White has grown the budget by nearly $100 million since his arrival on Rocky Top.

One of the top priorities in "Rise Glorious" was to intentionally grow the annual operating budget as part of a relentless commitment to resource all Tennessee Athletics programs and departments at an elite, championship level. UT is already outpacing the 2026-27 goal of a 200+ million-dollar budget.

White has also invested back into all of our athletics facilities in a significant way, highlighted by the modernization of two iconic Tennessee athletics venues – Neyland Stadium and Lindsey Nelson Stadium. Phase 1 of the historic Neyland Stadium renovation is budgeted for $337 million while the Lindsey Nelson Stadium project budget totals $95.8 million.

In August 2023, UT announced a multi-year naming-rights agreement with longtime Tennessee Athletics corporate champion Food City that rebrands UT's on-campus arena as Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center. The athletics department also took over operations of the venue in January 2024.

Food City's overall commitment to Tennessee Athletics will allow the University to invest in excess of $20 million over the next 10 years and will aid new and needed renovations of the arena and upgrades to the facility's interior and exterior. These improvements will significantly enhance the fan experience while attending any Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center event on the UT campus.

A former college basketball student-athlete at Towson and Notre Dame, White quickly ascended in the ranks of college athletics leadership. Before his first athletics director opportunity at Buffalo, he was senior associate athletics director at Ole Miss from 2009-12. He previously served two years as associate athletics director for development at Fresno State (2007-09) and one as assistant athletics director for development at Northern Illinois (2006-07).

Prior to pivoting to athletics administration, White spent one year as the director of basketball operations and another year as an assistant coach with the Ohio University men's basketball program.

White graduated from Notre Dame in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He earned master's degrees in business administration and sports administration from Ohio University and completed a Ph.D. in higher education leadership from Ole Miss in 2016.

White comes from a family deeply involved in intercollegiate athletics. His father, Kevin, was the longtime vice president and director of athletics at Duke (and previously held that same role at Notre Dame, Arizona State, Tulane, Maine and Loras College). His brother, Michael, is Georgia's head men's basketball coach. His brother, Brian, is the vice president and director of athletics at Florida Atlantic.

2023-24 REVIEW

2023-24 POSTSEASON NOTEBOOK

HOW WE FARED IN 2023-24

- Tennessee finished 20-13 overall and 10-6 in SEC play during the 2023-24 season, winding up in a tie for fourth place in the league standings in Kellie Harper's final season as UT's head coach.
- The Lady Vols were the No. 5 seed in the SEC Tournament and advanced to the semifinal round before falling to No. 1-ranked and eventual NCAA champion South Carolina on a buzzer-beating, banked-in three-pointer, 74-73.
- UT made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, defeating Green Bay before falling to eventual NCAA Final Four participant NC State on the Wolfpack's home court.
- The Big Orange women were in the "receiving votes" category in the final AP and USA TODAY/WBCA Coaches Polls of the season after opening the year No. 11/12.

WINNING 20 GAMES FOR THE 47TH TIME

- Tennessee (20-13) entered the 2024 NCAA Tournament one win shy of reaching the 20-win plateau for the 47th time, dating back to 1974, and it accomplished that feat by defeating Green Bay in the the opening round in Raleigh, N.C., 92-63.
- It marked Tennessee's fourth 20-win season in the past five years, with the 2020-21 total of 17 wins impacted by several COVID-related game cancelations that prevented the Lady Vols from getting to 20.

THE ONLY SCHOOL IN ALL 42

- The Lady Vols made their 42nd consecutive NCAA Tournament, continuing as the only school to appear in every Division I tourney.
- Tennessee was an at-large qualifier for the 2024 NCAA Tournament, finishing in a tie for fourth in the SEC regular season and falling to No. 1/1 South Carolina in the SEC Tournament semifinals, 74-73, on a buzzer-beater.
- UT earned a No. 6 NCAA seed for the first time and drew higher than a four seed for just the fourth time.
- The Lady Vols are 131-34 in NCAA Tournament play, and they rank first in games played (165) and second in victories (131) in NCAA tourney history.
- Tennessee is second behind UConn in winning percentage at .794 in tourney play.

LADY VOLS FACED THE TOUGHEST SCHEDULE

- Tennessee's regular-season schedule ranked No. 1 out of 360 Division I women's basketball teams in the NCAA Toughest Schedule Report as the NCAA Tournament began.
- Lady Vol foes had compiled a 621-303 overall record for a .672 winning percentage as of March 19, 2024.

FIVE 1K SCORERS TIES RECORD

- Tennessee tied a program record by finishing the 2023-24 season with five 1,000-point career scorers on its team, matching a mark set in 2022-23.
- That quintet included Rickea Jackson (2,261), Jewel Spear (1,817), Destinee Wells (1,716), Jasmine Powell (1,345) and Tamari Key (1,040).
- The year before, Tennessee also finished the 2022-23 season with its most-ever 1,000-point scorers (5). That group included Rickea Jackson (then 1,756), Jordan Horston (1,445), Jordan Walker (1,359), Jasmine Franklin (1,279) and Jasmine Powell (then 1,046).
- UT has had three or more 1,000-point scorers at season's end on 14 occasions and four or more three times after the 2023-24 result.
- Jackson (1,176) and Key (1,040) pushed the number of Lady Vols tallying 1,000 or more points in a Tennessee uniform to 50, finishing 35th and 48th, respectively.

- Rickea Jackson finished her collegiate career with 2,261 points (17.8 ppg.) and 773 rebounds (6.1 rpg.), starting 106 of 127 games between stints at Mississippi State and Tennessee.
- Her career point total left her sixth all-time in Lady Vol scoring, including transfers, standing behind Cindy Brogdon (3,204, 1975-79), Chamique Holdsclaw (3,025, 1995-99), Jill Rankin (2,851, 1976-80), Bridgette Gordon (2,462, 1985-89) and Patricia Roberts (2,447, 1973-77).
- Despite playing only two seasons at Tennessee, Jackson managed to ascend to No. 35 on the program's all-time career scoring list with 1,176 points in only 60 games.
- Her 19.6 ppg. career average ranks fourth all-time at UT behind Patricia Roberts (29.9, 1976-77), Cindy Brogdon (20.8, 1977-79) and Chamique Holdsclaw (20.4, 1995-99) and just ahead of Candace Parker (19.4).

Rickea Jackson's 29 games of 20 or more points rank her No. 5 in program history in that statistical category.

- Jackson averaged. 20.2 ppg. and 8.2 rpg. as a fifth-year, leading the SEC in scoring and carding the ninth-best single-season points average in Lady Vol history.
- She was one of only six Lady Vols to average better than 20 points per game in a season along with Patricia Roberts (29.9), Chamique Holdsclaw (23.5, 21.3, 20.6), Cindy Brogdon (21.7, 20.1), Candace Parker (21.3) and Bridgette Gordon (20.8, 20.4).

RICKEA'S IMPRESSIVE PRODUCTION

- Rickea Jackson hit double figures 105 times during her career, including 53 of 60 contests in a UT uniform.
- She had 48 games with 20 or more points, including 29 occasions as a Lady Vol to rank No. 5 all-time in program history.
- Jackson produced six 30+ efforts, including three during her stint at UT.
- She posted 31 points and a career-high 17 rebounds at Florida State in game two of the 2023-24 campaign, becoming one of only seven Lady Vols all-time with a 30/15+ double-double.
- Jackson tallied a season-best 33 points and 10 rebounds with no turnovers at NC State in the NCAA Second Round in the final game of her college career.
- She scored 29 points vs. No. 1/1 South Carolina on March 3 in Columbia and had 27 in a Senior Night win over Texas A&M on Feb. 29.

UT'S KEY COG IN THE MIDDLE

- At 6-foot-6, Tamari Key cast a long shadow on her foes, and she put up some numbers that stand tall as well.
- Key averaged 7.9 points, 5.5 rebounds and a school career-record 2.6 blocked shots in 131 contests with 107 starts.
- She finished with 1,040 career points to rank 48th on the program's career scoring list.
- Her total of 347 blocks stands as a Lady Vol career record and the No. 6 mark in SEC women's basketball history.
- Key's two career triple-doubles rate as a Lady Vol best, as do her performances in 2020-21 and 2021-22 that tie her with three other players for the UT single-season mark.
- Her 59.0 field goal percentage ranks No. 5 on UT's women's hoops career list.
- She led Tennessee in season field goal percentage and blocks in four different campaigns (2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22 and 2023-24).
- Key blocked a UT-record 119 shots in 2021-22 to surpass Kelley Cain's old mark of 113 and lead the NCAA with the No. 4 total in SEC history.
- Averaged a school-best 3.500 blocks per game to rank No. 3 in the nation and No. 1 in the SEC for the season in 2021-22 as well.
- That mark moved her past Kelley Cain's 3.424 effort from 2009-10 and gives Key the No. 1 (3.500), No. 3 (2.880, 2020-21) and No. 4 (2.774, 2019-20) efforts in program history.
- She owns five of the top six single-game Lady Vol blocks performances, including the No. 2 effort of 11 vs. Texas A&M on Jan. 6, 2022.

Tamari Key blocked 347 shots in her career, setting a Lady Vol record and finishing with the No. 6 total in SEC women's hoops history.

JP SAVES BEST FOR LAST

- Jasmine Powell started 30 of 32 games played in 2023-24, averaging 9.3 points, 4.7 rebounds and 4.3 assists per contest.
- She was named to the 2024 Elevance Health Women's Fort Myers Tip-Off All-Island Division Team after averaging 15.5 points and 4.5 rebounds and shooting 10 of 18 from the field over UT's two games against No. 21/19 Indiana and No. 22/20 Oklahoma.
- Her season assist average ranked No. 6 in the SEC, while her career-best season total of 136 stood fifth among league players in 2023-24.
- That 4.3 dime average also tied for fifth all-time among senior/fifth-year players in the UT program.
- Powell led the Lady Vols with 29 steals in her final season.
- During her two seasons at UT, she started 41 of 69 contests, averaging 6.9 points, 3.65 assists and 3.6 rebounds.
- Powell tallied 252 assists as a Lady Vol, with her 3.65 average ranking No. 9 on UT's career list.

SPEAR MAKES INSTANT IMPACT

- Jewel Spear, who joined UT from Wake Forest, was one of only two Tennessee players to start all 33 games in 2023-24, averaging 13.1 points as the team's second-leading scorer and adding 4.4 rebounds and 2.2 assists per contest.
- She shot 42.9 percent from the field, 37.3 percent from the arc and 84.3 percent from the free-throw line.

- Spear led UT by scoring 18.3 ppg. and shooting 51.5 percent from the field, 55.6 percent on threes and 100 percent (11-11) at the free-throw line in the SEC Tournament.
- She averaged 14.1 ppg. and 4.9 rpg. in SEC play.
- Spear drained a team best 69 three-pointers, a total that ranks No. 10 in a season all-time by a Lady Vol.
- Her number of made threes and shooting percentage from long range each ranked No. 3 in the SEC in 2023-24.
- She tossed in 24 points in the SEC quarterfinals vs. Alabama, setting an SEC Tournament record and tying a UT mark for best three-point field goal percentage (100.0) with the most attempts (6-6).

DARBY CLIMBS THREE-POINT LISTS

- Tess Darby finished second on the 2023-24 squad in three pointers with 44.
- She now has hit 170 career treys in her career to rank fifth all-time in program history.
- Her 37.3 shooting percentage (170-456) from long range is 10th best at Tennessee.
- She stands No. 6 in career three-pointers attempted with 456.
- As a junior in 2022-23, Darby led the team in three-pointers with 70, which was the ninth-best total in UT history and the most since Ariel Massengale made 74 in 2014-15.

2024 SEC POSTSEASON HONORS

- Rickea Jackson was a member of the Coaches All-SEC First Team for the second straight season.
- She also made the USA TODAY Sports Network All-SEC First Team for the second time in as many years.
- Jackson again was recognized as a member of the SEC All-Tournament Team after earning that honor in 2023.
- Tess Darby repeated as a member of the SEC Women's Basketball Community Service Team.

MORE JACKSON ACCOLADES

- Rickea Jackson was an All-America honorable mention choice by the AP, USBWA and WBCA for the second consecutive year.
- It marked the fourth such WBCA accolade for Jackson, while the AP and USBWA nods came for the second year in a row.
- The fifth-year forward once again was a top-five finalist for the Cheryl Miller Award, which goes to the small forward of the year (2022-23, 2023-24), marking the third time in her career she had made the top 10 after doing so in 2020-21 as a sophomore
- The Tennessee Sports Writers Association named Jackson as its 2023-24 TSWA Women's Basketball Player of the Year in the Volunteer State.

THE WNBA LOVES LADY VOLS

- Rickea Jackson became the fourth Lady Vol in each of the past four seasons to be selected in the first round of the WNBA Draft.
- It marked the first time in school history that UT had players selected in the first round in four straight seasons. The previous high was three first-round picks in 2001 (Tamika Catchings), 2002 (Michelle Snow) and 2003 (Gwen Jackson, Kara Lawson), which was tied with the start of the current run from 2021-23.
- Tennessee joined UConn (2008-11) and Notre Dame (2012-15) as the only college programs to produce first-round picks in four consecutive WNBA Drafts.
- The Detroit native became the 19th all-time Lady Vol first-round selection in the collegiate draft (21st including the elite draft), following in the footsteps of No. 9 picks Rennia Davis (Minnesota Lynx, 2021), Rae Burrell (Los Angeles Sparks, 2022) and Jordan Horston (Seattle Storm, 2023) over the previous three drafts.
- Jackson's selection was the highest by a Lady Vol since Diamond DeShields was taken at No. 3 by the Chicago Sky in 2018.
- Overall, Tennessee has had 44 all-time selections in WNBA college drafts and 46 total including elite drafts. Jackson is the Big Orange program's 18th top-10 choice (20th including elite) and ninth top-five pick (10th including elite).

UT STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM AGAIN

- For the second year in a row, nine Lady Vols were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- Over the past five seasons, 22 of 33 Lady Vols who played at Tennessee earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition a total of 47 times during that five-year period.
- Making the list in 2023-24 were returnees Edie Darby, Tess Darby, Sara Puckett, Karoline Striplin and Kaiya Wynn. Picking up acclaim for the first time as Lady Vols were Jasmine Powell, Jewel Spear, Avery Strickland and Destinee Wells.
- Puckett and Striplin were chosen for the first time as members of the College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-District Team.
- The Lady Vols once again earned "Special Mention" status for their collective 3.301 grade point average as part of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's Academic Team Honor Roll.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Jewel Spear's five three-pointers spearheaded No. 11/12 Tennessee's offensive attack in a 93-64 season-opening victory over Florida A&M at Food City Center.

The 5-foot-10 senior guard posted an impressive 20 points, tied for second-most in program history by a transfer in her Lady Vol debut. Spear, who joined UT after three seasons at Wake Forest, made seven of 12 field goal attempts, including five-of-10 shooting beyond the arc.

Junior forward Karoline Striplin had a stat-stuffing night, tallying a career-high 18 points on 7-of-8 shooting, six rebounds, two assists and two blocks. Fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson recorded 13 points, seven rebounds, two assists and two steals, while junior guard Kaiya Wynn collected a career-high-tying 12 points and a steal, and Sara Puckett added 11.

Tennessee (1-0) dominated on the glass, recording 42 points from the paint while out-rebounding the Rattlers 47-25. Junior forward Jillian Hollingshead led the way on the glass with 12 boards, tying her career high.

The Lady Vols dished out an impressive 22 assists, including Destinee Wells' game-high six dimes in her Tennessee debut.

Florida A&M (0-1), coached by LVFL Bridgette Gordon, was hot from beyond the arc, generating 27 points from three-pointers. Guard Ahriahna Grizzle led the Rattlers with 16 points, followed by Hailee Brennan with 13 and Ivet Subirats with 12.

The game began as a back-and-forth affair, with both teams trading buckets early. Florida A&M jumped out to a five-point lead at the 6:50 mark thanks to three consecutive scoring opportunities. The Lady Vols began to battle back, and Spear's third three of the period boosted UT to a 17-15 lead. After trading buckets, Tennessee went on a 6-0 scoring run to end the quarter, highlighted by a Striplin shot from deep and jumper from fifth-year guard Jasmine Powell to give the Big Orange a 26-19 lead.

Tennessee continued its scoring streak to open the second stanza, putting up nine unanswered points to extend its lead to 35-19. UT forced seven turnovers to generate seven points, while bringing down 10 rebounds in that frame to go into the half with a 16-point lead, 46-30.

At the break, Spear had racked up 15 points, and Striplin and Jackson followed with eight points apiece. The Lady Vols notched nine offensive rebounds, which turned into 12 second-chance points in the first half.

The Big Orange began the third quarter with a nine-point run, thanks to junior forward Sara Puckett's trey within the first minute of play. The Lady Vols excelled on both ends of the court, shooting 71 percent from the field while out-rebounding Florida A&M, 11-5. Striplin led the scoring in that stanza with six points to propel UT to a 75-47 lead.

Tennessee's defense stepped up to close out the game, holding the Rattlers to just 30-percent shooting in the final period. The Lady Vols produced a 9-0 scoring streak in the final minutes, paced by Striplin's three field goals, to secure the 93-64 victory.

Game Notes: 3Q 5:1 5 - UT #21 Technical Foul (Unsporting Behavior). ♦

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – #11/12 Tennessee overcame a 15-point first-half deficit to take a six-point lead in the second half, but No. 18/22 Florida State battled back and hit a last-second three-pointer to seize a 92-91 victory.

Rickea Jackson, who finished with 31 points and 17 rebounds, put the Lady Vols (1-1) up, 91-88, with 1:10 to go on a second-chance bucket. With 52 ticks left on the clock, though, Amaya Bonner found the net with a three to tie it up at 91. FSU's Alexis Tucker drew a foul with 24 seconds left, hitting one of two free throw attempts to put the Seminoles (2-0) back in front, 92-91. UT got a shot off with three seconds remaining, but it wouldn't fall.

Jackson was joined in double figures by Jewel Spear with 18, followed by Sara Puckett with 15 and Tess Darby with 10.

Florida State had five players scoring in double figures, led by O'Mariah Gordon with 22 and Ta'Niya Latson with 20.

Tennessee hit an impressive 56.3 percent of its shots in the opening period, but Florida State was sizzling at a 66.7 rate, including 75 percent (6-8) beyond the arc. UT finished the night at 50.7 percent from the field, while FSU shot 46.6 percent. From the arc, the Big Orange ended up 10 of 20 (50 percent) for the contest, while Florida State was 13 of 22 for 59.1 percent.

Spear got things started with a three to put the Lady Vols on top. The teams exchanged baskets over the first five minutes, with Puckett draining a three, Jillian Hollingshead hitting a long jumper and Jackson adding a pair of buckets as Florida State took a 16-12 lead into the first media timeout.

An 11-4 run by the Seminoles pushed their lead to 27-16 after the media break and forced UT to call a timeout at the 2:42 mark. After FSU boosted the advantage to 15, 31-16, at the 1:02 mark, Darby and Puckett tallied buckets to trim the gap to 31-20. A Florida State trey before the buzzer gave the home team a 34-20 cushion after one.

UT exploded on a 12-2 run to close the deficit to 36-32 with 6:54 remaining. Puckett started the Big Orange spree with a layup on a feed from Jackson and then Jackson added a pair of scores around two free throws by Jasmine Powell in forcing an FSU timeout. After the break, the Seminoles pushed back ahead, 43-32, before back-to-back layups from Destinee Wells forced another timeout by the home team with UT cutting the gap to 43-36.

It was back and forth the rest of the way, with Jackson's 18 first-half points helping keep Florida State within striking distance at the half, 54-46.

The Seminoles maintained an eight-point edge, 66-58, at the 4:57 media break, as Jackson pushed her point total to 25. Over the rest of the period, however, Tennessee surged and outscored FSU 16-6 to close it out, with Darby nailing threes on consecutive trips down the court and getting a steal and fast break layup to boost her team in front, 74-68. The Seminoles would net the last four points of the period, but UT held a 74-72 lead at the break.

Tennessee carried its lead through the 4:48 mark, thanks to a Spear two to make it 82-79. Spear added a three pointer and a free throw, and Jackson contributed a bucket to fuel UT offensively. Puckett sank a three ball to make it 85-81 with 4:33 to go, but FSU fought back, tying it at 86 with 3:22 left. A free throw by Powell and two more charity tosses by Spear down the stretch gave the Lady Vols a slim 89-88 lead with 1:22 remaining. Following a UT timeout, Jackson hit a layup to make it 91-88, but FSU countered with an Amaya Bonner three with :52 on the clock to tie it up at 91, followed by Tucker's decisive free throw to seal the Seminole win.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Four players scored in double figures, helping No. 15/12 Tennessee overcome the absence of its leading scorer in an 84-74 overtime win over Memphis at Food City Center.

Forward Sara Puckett paced the Big Orange with a career-high 24 points and added eight rebounds, two assists, a block and a steal in 39 minutes of duty. Guard Jewel Spear recorded her first double-double in a Lady Vol uniform, compiling 19 points and 12 rebounds, while guard Jasmine Powell followed with 17 points and forward Jillian Hollingshead added 14 points and nine boards.

UT (2-1), with standout forward Rickea Jackson missing the contest with a lower leg injury, came from nine down in the second quarter to claim victory. The Lady Vols finished 28 of 67 from the field for 41.8 percent and 24 of 32 from the free-throw line for 75 percent, including 9-of-10 marksmanship at the charity stripe in the overtime period. Tennessee held Memphis (1-2) to just 36 percent shooting and out-rebounded the Tigers, 56-40.

The Tigers landed three players in double figures. Kai Carter led with 18 points, while Madison Griggs chipped in 16 points and guard Alasia Smith recorded 10.

A layup from Puckett and back-to-back jumpers from Spear kicked things off for the Lady Vols, as they gained an 8-2 lead at the 6:35 mark in the opening stanza. Hollingshead and Powell each added two points to extend the score to 12-4. After trading buckets, the Tigers went on a 6-0 scoring run to close the gap, tying the game at 17-17 with 1:10 left in the quarter. Spear hit a trey to put UT up by three points, but Griggs responded with a three to tie it. UT shot 56 percent from the field, but Memphis' defense gained momentum quickly, tallying four steals to generate an even score at 20-all to end the first period.

Puckett began the second quarter with a trey, but Memphis' offense continued to pick up speed, going on a 12-point streak to produce its largest run of the night at the 5:45 mark. Powell snapped the run with a layup, followed by two free throws, accompanied by a layup from Striplin to cut the Lady Vols' deficit to 34-30 with 2:07 left in the stanza. Powell tossed in another basket in the final minute of the quarter, sending Memphis into the half with a 36-32 lead.

After trading baskets in the opening minutes of the third, Spear forced a steal to assist a Puckett layup, closing the Lady Vol deficit to two at the 6:22 mark. Puckett then went on to knock down two layups and a three to give UT the lead, 45-40, with 4:43 left in the stanza. Powell hit a shot from deep to stretch the score 48-40, but the Tigers responded with a jumper and two free throws to close the Lady Vol advantage to four with 3:33 left in the stanza. Both teams exchanged free throws to close out the quarter, with Tennessee maintaining a 54-51 lead.

Both squads continued to battle in the final frame. Hollingshead opened up the quarter with back-to-back layups, followed by two made free throws from Puckett to give the Lady Vols a nine-point lead at the 8:29 mark. Memphis responded with a layup and jumper to narrow the gap, but two more scoring opportunities from Hollingshead put Tennessee up 66-57 with 3:19 left in the game. The Tigers continued to claw back, scoring five straight points to trim the Lady Vols' lead to 66-62 at the 1:06 mark. Both teams exchanged baskets, giving UT a two-point advantage with :13 left in regulation, but a layup by Memphis' Ki'Ari Cain tied the score up at 69, sending the game into overtime.

The Lady Vols scored four straight points to go up 73-69 in the opening minute of overtime play, but a pair of Memphis layups tied the score at 73 all with 2:51 left. Spear hit back-to-back buckets to give the Big Orange a 77-74 lead at the :48 mark. Powell, Wells and Spear made successful trips to the charity stripe in the final seconds to seal the Lady Vols' 84-74 overtime victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Tennessee forward Karoline Striplin recorded her first career double-double and led five players in double figures, as the No. 15/20 Lady Volunteers rolled to a 100-73 victory over Troy at Food City Center.

The 6-foot-3 junior, who had already produced 15 points and 10 boards by halftime, finished with career highs of 19 points and 14 rebounds to pace the Big Orange. Jillian Hollingshead, a 6-5 junior forward, tied her career best with 18 points and added 10 rebounds for her first double-double of the season and second of her career.

Senior guard Destinee Wells also enjoyed the finest performance of her four-game Tennessee career, as the Belmont transfer fired in 18 points and tallied eight assists and four boards with only one turnover in 30 minutes. Junior forward Sara Puckett, who missed practice on Saturday due to illness, turned in 19 gutsy minutes and contributed 14 points and eight boards, while Kaiya Wynn rounded out the double-figure scorers with 10.

The Trojans (0-3) had four players score 10-plus, with former Alabama standout Nia Daniel leading the way with 19. Forward Tai'Sheka Porchia had 18 points and a team-high eight boards, while forward Ja'Mia Hollings contributed 16 points and Shaluana Wagner chipped in 10.

Tennessee (3-1), playing without starters Rickea Jackson and Jasmine Powell and reserve Avery Strickland due to injury, controlled the game from the second quarter on, winning the final three frames by a 79-52 margin. The Lady Vols' dominance on the glass this season carried over into Sunday's contest, as they out-rebounded Troy, 63-35, and added a season-best 30 second-chance points and another season high of 48 points in the paint. The bench unit made the most of its minutes, scoring 38 points compared to Troy's eight points from reserves.

Defense was a key theme early in the game for both teams, as Tennessee strung together four consecutive stops en route to a 7-2 advantage. Troy would soon find its footing, connecting on three three-pointers on eight attempts, including the last basket of the quarter to tie the game at 21. Striplin collected seven offensive rebounds in the frame to go along with seven points.

It was a Big Orange flurry in the second period, with the Lady Vols firing off two separate 10-0 runs before and after a Trojan three-pointer. Tennessee's second-quarter defensive dominance continued, allowing a season-low nine points in the frame. The halftime buzzer concluded a 25-9 run and gave the Lady Vols a 46-30 lead. Striplin (15 points), Wells (14 points) and Puckett (10 points) all hit double figures in the first 20 minutes.

Hollingshead scored two layups on the first two possessions of the second half to stretch UT's lead to 20, but the Trojans would log an 11-2 run to cut it to 13 before a corner three from Tess Darby made the score 63-47. Thanks to 10 field goals and eight points at the foul line, the Lady Vols scored 31 points to build a comfortable 77-52 advantage. It marked their most points in a regular-season quarter since they put up 34 in the third quarter against UCF on Dec. 14, 2022.

After the offensive onslaught in the third quarter, Tennessee used the final frame to lock in defensively, holding Troy to 35 percent (7-for-20) from the field. For the third consecutive quarter, Tennessee connected on three long balls, finishing the game shooting 40 percent (10-for-25) from deep.

FORT MYERS, Fla. – No. 19/21 Tennessee couldn't match a hot-handed No. 21/19 Indiana squad that knocked down 10 threes, falling 71-57 in the Elevance Health Women's Fort Myers Tip-Off at Suncoast Credit Union Arena.

Junior forwards Karoline Striplin and Sara Puckett led the Lady Vols (3-2) in scoring with 13 each on the night. Puckett added a team-high seven boards to the score sheet, and fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell was also in double figures with 12 points in her first game back from injury.

Yarden Garzon was the high scorer for the Hoosiers (4-1), pouring in a career-high 23 points. Mackenzie Holmes and Sara Scalia were also top producers for IU, finishing with 17 and 10, respectively.

Indiana was first on the board with a layup by Chloe Moore-McNeil 27 seconds into play. Destinee Wells got Tennessee's first points of the game with a jumper at the 8:22 mark, but a pair of IU threes propelled the Hoosiers to an 8-4 lead by the media timeout. Powell responded with a pull-up jumper following the break to bring the Lady Vols within two with 4:36 left in the first quarter. The teams traded buckets in the closing minutes with Powell hitting the last shot of the period to send the game into the second with Indiana leading 12-9.

Lilly Meister hit a layup to stretch IU's advantage to five before the Big Orange bounced back with a 7-2 run capped off with a trey by Jewel Spear to tie the game at 16-all with 6:14 to go in the half. The Hoosiers answered with an 11-0 run of their own to go up 27-19 before Powell ended the UT drought with a three at the 2:32 mark. Back-to-back three-pointers by Garzon had Indiana on top by 14 with 48 seconds to go, but Striplin knocked down the last bucket of the half to send the game into intermission with Tennessee trailing 33-21.

A jumper in the paint by Puckett 25 seconds into the half cut the deficit to 10, but three minutes later, IU rode a trio of threes to lead 44-25. Striplin responded with a trey at the 5:16 mark in what would be the first of her 11 straight third-quarter points, as the Lady Vols pulled within 16 by the end of the stanza at 52-36.

The teams swapped baskets through the first two minutes of the fourth period before five straight points by Puckett trimmed the deficit down to 14. An 11-4 run fueled by Garzon and Scalia gave the Hoosiers their largest lead of the game at 76-46, but a trey by Powell ended the streak with 3:07 to play. The Lady Vols outscored IU 8-2 over the final two and a half minutes, setting the final score at 71-57.

FORT MYERS, Fla. – Fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell turned in a season-high 19 points as No. 21/19 Tennessee took a 76-73 victory over No. 22/20 Oklahoma in the Elevance Health Women's Fort Myers Tip-Off at Suncoast Credit Union Arena.

Powell, who also had 12 points and six rebounds vs. Indiana on Thursday, was named to the Elevance Health Women's Fort Myers Tip-Off Island Division All-Tournament Team for her performance during the event. She averaged 15.5 points and 4.5 rebounds, shooting 10 of 18 from the field over UT's two games, including four-of-eight accuracy from long range. Powell also finished seven of nine from the free-throw line.

Senior Jewel Spear and junior Sara Puckett were also in double figures for UT (4-2) with 16 and 13, respectively. Puckett and junior Jillian Hollingshead each pulled down eight boards to lead Tennessee's rebounding effort.

Oklahoma (5-2) was led by Sahara Williams, who scored 16 points and grabbed eight rebounds. Lexy Keys and Aubrey Joens also posted double-digit efforts with 12 apiece.

The Lady Vols came out hot, scoring on their first three possessions to lead 8-0 just over a minute into play and force the Sooners into calling an early timeout. Williams knocked down a jumper coming out of the timeout to get OU on the board, and Reyna Scott added another to pull Oklahoma within four by the 6:22 mark. Karoline Striplin rattled off four buckets in a row for the Lady Vols as they led 16-9 with just under three minutes left in the first, but the Sooners responded with an 11-2 run to lead by two at the end of the first quarter, 20-18.

A basket by Spear tied things up 40 seconds into the second period, and just over two minutes later, a three by Tess Darby put the Big Orange back on top, 26-25. Tennessee went on to gain a four-point advantage before OU strung together eight unanswered points to go up 33-29 by the 3:03 mark. Powell ended the UT drought with a free throw, but a three by Neveah Tot on the other end stretched the Sooners' lead to six. Powell knocked down a pair of free throws with 18 seconds left, but OU hit the last bucket of the half to lead 38-32 at the break.

Puckett converted on a set of free throws to pull UT within four a minute into the third quarter. That margin held until back-to-back layups by Keys and a pair of free throws by Scott had the Hoosiers ahead 46-36 by the 7:00 mark. A Tamari Key jumper ended the run on the next possession, but OU went back up by 10 before Spear and Puckett combined for a 7-0 run to cut the deficit to three with 4:04 left in the third. The Lady Vols tied the game up from the free-throw line in the final two minutes of the stanza, but a buzzer-beater three by Joens sent the game into the fourth with Oklahoma leading 56-53.

A trey by Spear leveled the score on UT's first play of the final period, and the lead changed four times before Joens knotted it up once more with a layup with 5:47 to play. Destinee Wells responded with five straight points for Tennessee to put the Big Orange on top 66-61 by the media timeout. A 3-pointer by Keys pulled the Sooners back within two, but Powell hit a jumper and a deep three as the shot clock expired to rally the Lady Vols to a seven-point lead with two minutes to go. OU launched into a 5-0 run with 90 seconds left in the game, whittling UT's lead down to two, but a three by Powell with 21 seconds on the clock sealed the deal as the Lady Vols took a 76-73 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – No. 20/22 Tennessee dropped a thriller to No. 18/14 Notre Dame, suffering a 74-69 loss before a crowd of 8,211 in Food City Center.

Fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell led UT (4-3) with 14 points and seven rebounds. Three other Lady Vols were in double figures, with senior Destinee Wells close behind Powell with 13, and senior Jewel Spear and junior Karoline Striplin finishing with 11 and 10, respectively.

Notre Dame (6-1) was led by Maddy Westbeld and Natalija Marshall with 15 each. Westbeld pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds for a double-double. Hannah Hildalgo, who came into the game averaging 25.0 points, was limited to 13, along with seven rebounds, seven assists and four steals.

Tennessee won the jump and got on the board early, with Powell draining a three just eight seconds into the contest. Hidalgo scored Notre Dame's first points on the next play, and by the 7:07 mark, the game was tied at 7-all. The Irish took their first lead of the game a minute and a half later when Hidalgo drained a jumper to put her team up 9-8. Sara Puckett swished a three on the next possession, and the Lady Vols outscored ND 11-2 over the closing minutes to lead 19-11 at the end of the first quarter.

Notre Dame scored the first points of the second period, but a 7-2 Lady Vol run capped off by a trey from Spear gave UT an 11-point advantage with just over eight minutes remaining in the half. The Fighting Irish responded with five straight points to whittle the deficit down to six 90 seconds later. Striplin ended the drought with a reverse layup, and by the 3:05 mark Tennessee had grown its lead to 13 at 35-22. With 1:30 to go, Destinee Wells scored a layup on the fast break to put UT ahead by 14, but Marshall scored the last bucket of the half to send the game into the break with the Big Orange on top, 37-25.

Wells kicked off the second half with a long-range jumper and Spear followed it up with a pair of 3-pointers to give the Lady Vols a 45-29 lead three minutes into the half. The Lady Vols then went cold from the floor, going without a field goal for over four minutes while Notre Dame went on an 11-2 run to pull within seven by the 3:29 mark. Tess Darby sank a three to end the Lady Vol skid, but eight straight points had Notre Dame within two with 20 seconds left in the third. In the final play of the quarter, Powell converted on an old fashioned three-point play, sending the game into the final stanza with UT leading 53-48.

Tennessee extended its lead to six with a free throw from Jillian Hollingshead to open the fourth, but back-to-back baskets by Westbeld had the Irish within two with 8:23 to play. The game became a back-and-forth affair with Notre Dame pulling within one on four occasions over a three-minute span, and Tennessee leading 61-60 at the final media timeout. ND took the lead off a jumper by Anna DeWolfe coming out of the break, but Powell answered with a three on the other end. A Hidalgo layup tied the game at 64-all with 3:37 to play in what would be the first of three ties leading up to the final minute. KK Bransford nailed a jumper with 44 seconds on the clock to give the Irish a 70-68 advantage. Powell cut it to one from the free-throw line, and the Lady Vols had a chance to reclaim the lead with 15 seconds remaining when Puckett launched a three. The shot was just a hair long, and Notre Dame collected the rebound and converted on free throws to take a 74-69 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – In its fourth straight matchup against a ranked opponent, No. 20/22 Tennessee couldn't overcome No. 16/13 Ohio State, falling in Food City Center, 78-58.

Senior Destinee Wells was the high scorer for Tennessee (4-4) with 11 points, and junior Sara Puckett was close behind with 10. Junior Jillian Hollingshead pulled down a team-high seven rebounds on the evening.

Ohio State (6-1) was led by Cotie McMahon and Rebeka Mikulášková with 19 and 18, respectively. Celeste Taylor posted a double-double with 15 points and 12 rebounds, and Jacy Sheldon was also in double-digit scoring with 13.

Ohio State was first on the board, jumping out to a 4-0 lead in the opening minute. Puckett was first to score for UT, hitting a layup at the 8:38 mark. Mikulášková countered with a trey on the other end as the Buckeyes went up 9-2, but Tess Darby and Puckett combined for five quick points to have the Lady Vols within a basket two minutes later. OSU responded with an 11-0 run to lead 20-7 with four minutes to go in the first. Puckett then ended the Lady Vol drought with a layup, setting off an 8-0 Tennessee run to send the game into the second period with UT trailing, 20-15.

The Buckeyes stretched their lead to nine in the opening minute of the second before Karoline Striplin hit a pair of free throws and Darby drained a three to have the Lady Vols within four by the 7:05 mark, but six straight OSU points put the Buckeyes on top by 10 with 4:36 to go in the half. UT cut it to nine on two occasions, but Ohio State reeled off an 11-5 run over the final three minutes to set the halftime score at 43-28.

The Buckeyes started the second half with six straight points before a trey by Wells gave UT a spark. Tennessee outscored OSU 11-4 over the next two and a half minutes to pull within 14 at 53-39. Sheldon fired in a three coming out of the media timeout to start a 7-1 burst that had Ohio State ahead by 20 at the 3:06 mark. The teams traded buckets through the end of the period with the Buckeyes taking a 63-44 lead into the final stanza.

Taylor drained a three to push OSU on top by 22 to start the fourth quarter. Ohio State maintained that advantage until back-to-back buckets by Puckett and Hollingshead pulled UT within 18 with 6:19 to play. The Lady Vols drew within 18 twice more before the final buzzer but couldn't get any closer as Ohio State took a 78-58 victory.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. – Junior Karoline Striplin poured in a career-high 29 points in her home state, but it wasn't enough to overcome a sharp-shooting Middle Tennessee squad that went 12 of 24 from behind the arc in toppling the Lady Vols inside Propst Arena at Von Braun Center, 73-62.

Striplin was the high scorer for Tennessee (4-5), and fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell and senior Destinee Wells were also contributors with nine and eight points, respectively.

Middle Tennessee (7-3) was led by Jalynn Gregory with 22 points and by Savannah Wheeler, who posted a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Anastasiia Boldyreva was also in double figures with 17 points, while Ta'Mia Scott added 10.

Striplin put UT up early, scoring on back-to-back plays to give the Lady Vols a 5-3 edge 90 seconds into play. A three by Scott a minute later gave Middle Tennessee its first lead of the game, but two more buckets by Striplin had Tennessee ahead 9-6 with 5:49 to go in the first. Wheeler hit another three for MTSU to level the score and followed it up with a jumper to put the Lady Raiders back on top. Wells converted on an old-fashioned three-point play to create a 12-11 UT advantage at the 3:45 mark, and there would be four more lead changes and a tie before the quarter ended with the game knotted at 20-all.

The contest continued to be a back-and-forth affair, with MTSU reclaiming the lead with the first basket of the second quarter, and Striplin draining a three to score her 12th point of the game and put the Lady Vols up 23-22 just over two minutes into the period. Powell hit a trey on the next possession and Striplin added a short jumper to string together an 8-0 run that moved Tennessee ahead by six with 5:56 to go in the half. Middle Tennessee got three points from the free-throw line, but neither team hit another field goal until Wells drove for a layup at the 2:38 mark. Courtney Whitson responded with a 3-pointer on the next play, but Wells countered with a trey of her own on the other end to put the Lady Vols up 33-29 with 1:16 to play in the period. MTSU closed out the final minute of the half with a layup and a pair of threes, one at the buzzer, to take a 37-33 lead into the break.

Gregory connected for a three-pointer on the Lady Raiders' first possession of the half to extend their lead to seven, but Sara Puckett countered with an eight-foot jumper on the next play, and a three-point play by Striplin had the Lady Vols within two less than 90 seconds into the half. Tess Darby tied the game up at 42 just past the midway point of the quarter, and Tennessee would level the score twice more before the Lady Raiders closed out the period with five straight points to lead 50-45 at the end of three.

Striplin scored UT's first points of the final stanza from the free-throw line, whittling the deficit down to three 30 seconds into the quarter. MTSU answered with five quick points to lead by eight before Striplin swished back-to-back threes to kickstart an 11-2 UT run that boosted the Lady Vols back on top by one with 6:25 left in the game. A set of free throws by Gregory provided MTSU a 59-58 lead 30 seconds later, and a trey on the next possession extended it to four. Powell responded with a jumper on the other side of the court, but another three by Gregory sent the Lady Raiders ahead 65-60 by the final media timeout. Wheeler hit a long two coming out of the break to stretch Middle Tennessee's advantage to seven, and Tennessee couldn't recover, as the Lady Raiders closed out the game for a 73-62 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Tennessee recorded its first wire-to-wire win of the season, seizing a 72-63 victory over Eastern Kentucky University in Food City Center.

Junior Karoline Striplin was once again the high scorer for Tennessee (5-5), finishing with 17 points and eight rebounds. Senior Jewel Spear was also in double figures with 12, and junior Sara Puckett, senior Tess Darby and fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell all turned in nine on the day, with Powell adding season highs of eight rebounds and five assists to her stat line.

The Colonels (8-2) were led by Antwainette Walker, who managed a game-high 24 points. Alice Recanati and Jasmine McGinnis-Taylor were also in double digits with 12 and 10, respectively.

The Lady Vols wasted no time getting on the board, with Powell finding Puckett wide open under the basket off the jump for an easy bucket seven seconds into the contest. Recanati scored EKU's first points with a layup at the 8:19 mark, after which neither team managed a field goal until Striplin sank a 12-foot jumper with 4:28 left in the first to give UT a 6-2 margin. The Lady Vols maintained their four-point advantage into the final seconds of the quarter when Kaiya Wynn converted a pair of free throws with 12 seconds on the clock to send the game into the second period with UT ahead 15-9.

The Colonels trimmed the deficit down to one in the first minute and a half of the second quarter, but Darby answered with a trey on UT's next possession to put the Lady Vols up 18-14 with 8:28 to go in the half. An old-fashioned three-point play and a layup by Puckett stretched UT's lead to nine before Walker and Ivy Turner combined for five quick points to pull Eastern Kentucky back within four at 23-19 by the 6:26 mark. Powell countered with a layup a minute later, and the teams swapped buckets until Wynn and Puckett combined for six points on back-to-back plays to set off a 10-2 UT run that had Tennessee up 36-26 with just over a minute to go in the half. EKU closed out the period strong, scoring five straight points to make the halftime score 36-31.

The second half started much the same as the first, with Puckett hitting a layup off an assist from Powell to open the scoring. Spear drained a trey to extend UT's advantage to 10 before five quick points by Walker had EKU within five by the 8:31 mark. Striplin knocked down a layup on the other end, and UT maintained its seven-point advantage into the final minute of the third when a three by Turner and a fast-break layup by Walker on back-to-back plays pulled the Colonels within four, a margin that would hold through the buzzer, as Tennessee took a 55-51 lead into the final stanza.

Recanati drained three-pointer on EKU's first possession of the fourth, moving the Colonels within one. Spear got an offensive rebound and the put-back, and Darby followed it up with a three to propel UT ahead 60-54 with 7:47 to go in the game. A three by Spear at the 6:48 mark made it an 8-0 UT run, and another Darby trey with 4:29 to play sent the Lady Vols' lead into double digits. Powell added a layup at the 1:22 mark to give Tennessee its largest edge of the game at 70-57, and the Lady Vols managed the clock the rest of the way for a 72-63 win.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – The Lady Vols claimed a dominant win over Wofford in Food City Center, rolling to an 85-63 victory in front of a crowd of 7,900.

Four Lady Vols (6-5) were in double figures, with senior Jewel Spear leading the effort with 18 points on the night. Junior Karoline Striplin narrowly missed a double-double with 16 points and eight rebounds, and junior Sara Puckett and fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson finished with 12 and 11, respectively. Fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell also had a strong performance, stuffing the stat sheet with nine points, eight rebounds and a career-high-tying 10 assists.

Wofford (7-5), which was coming off an upset of Virginia in Charlottesville on Saturday, was led by Rachael Rose, who racked up a double-double with 23 points and 13 rebounds. Maddie Heiss also finished in double digits with 14, and Annabelle Schultz was close behind with 11.

Striplin scored the first points of the game 11 seconds into play, but Wofford quickly took a 4-2 lead before back-to-back buckets by Spear sparked a 7-0 run that gave the Lady Vols a five-point advantage by the 5:00 mark. The Terriers tied the game at 9-9 with 2:11 left in the first, but Tennessee closed out the quarter with a 7-2 run, capped off by a Kaiya Wynn fastbreak layup at the buzzer, to take a 16-11 lead into the second.

Jumpers by Puckett and Powell stretched UT's lead to nine 90 seconds into the second period before WC answered with four points of its own to set the score at 20-15 with 7:37 to go in the half. The Lady Vols responded with 10 unanswered points to press ahead by 15 at the 5:03 mark. Heiss responded with a long-range trey on the Terriers' next possession, and WC went on to outscore the Lady Vols 10-5 over the final four and a half minutes, sending the game into halftime with the Big Orange on top, 35-25.

Wofford cut the gap to eight at the outset of the third, but Striplin countered with a three, and Puckett followed it up with a layup on the next play to put the Lady Vols up 40-27 just 90 seconds into the half. A jumper by Rose pulled the Terriers within 11, but a Puckett three-pointer set off an 8-2 Tennessee run, and the Lady Vols led 48-31 with 4:14 left in the quarter. The teams traded baskets through the end of the period with UT taking a 61-43 lead into the final stanza.

Rose netted a jumper to start the scoring in the fourth, but four quick points by Striplin and Powell extended the Lady Vols' lead to 20 with 8:54 to go in the game. The teams swapped treys before Rose hit a layup to kickstart a 9-5 spree to inch Wofford within 16 points by the media break. Following the timeout, Tennessee rattled off 11 points while limiting WC to two to lead by as many as 25 in coasting to an 85-63 victory.

LYNCHBURG, Va. – The Lady Vols wrapped up their non-conference slate with a commanding win over Liberty, rolling to a 90-55 victory in Liberty Arena.

Fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson led UT (7-5) with 21 points and seven rebounds, while senior Tess Darby had a strong showing, turning in a career-best 18 points on 6-of-9 shooting from behind the arc. Junior Kaiya Wynn tied her career high of 12 points and added a career-best seven assists with no turnovers. Junior Karoline Striplin was also in double figures with 10.

Emma Hess was the top scorer for LU (5-10) with 12 points, and Asia Boone was close behind with 11.

Striplin put the Lady Vols on the board just over a minute into the game, sinking an eight-foot jumper off an inbounds pass after Jackson stole the ball and was fouled on the fast break. By the 7:30 mark, Tennessee had racked up four steals and extended its lead to 8-0. Boone was first to score for the Lady Flames, draining a three with just over seven minutes left in the quarter. UT responded with five unanswered points before Jordan Hodges scored her first points of the game to set the score at 13-5 by the media timeout. Liberty narrowed the gap to six before Jackson drained a long-range two and Tess Darby followed it up with a trey. The Lady Vols outscored Liberty 12-2 over the final four minutes to give UT a 25-9 lead after one.

Tennessee maintained its 16-point advantage through the first four minutes of the second frame, but a three-pointer by Ella Wigal and free throw by Brooke Moore pulled LU within 12 with 5:24 left in the half. Darby responded with a pair of threes less than a minute apart to send the Big Orange up 37-20 by the 4:12 mark. The teams traded buckets into the final minute when Wynn scored on back-to-back plays, sending the game into halftime with UT on top, 43-24.

Hess and Jewel Spear opened up the second half with five quick points for their respective teams before Jackson swished a three to put Tennessee up by 22 with 8:12 to go in the third. That margin would hold through the 3:44 mark when Darby drained her fifth three of the game, and Jillian Hollingshead followed it up with a layup to spark a 14-2 Lady Vol run that forced an LU timeout with 1:00 to go in the period. Moore fired in a three-pointer following the timeout, but Tennessee had the last bucket of the quarter in the form of a Hollingshead layup, making the score 76-43 as the game headed into the final stanza.

An old-fashioned three-point play by Sara Puckett opened the fourth for the Lady Vols, and five straight points by Edie Darby put Tennessee on top by 39 with 6:14 to play. That would prove to be UT's largest lead of the day, as the Lady Flames outscored UT 8-4 over the closing minutes for a final score of 90-55.

AUBURN, Ala. – Rickea Jackson turned in a double-double, helping Tennessee erase an 11-point, second-quarter deficit to seize a 75-67 victory over Auburn in the SEC opener for both teams at Neville Arena.

Jackson finished the game with 24 points and a career-high 19 rebounds to lead Tennessee (8-5, 1-0 SEC) in both categories. Fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell was also in double figures with 16, and junior Kaiya Wynn turned in 10 points and a game-high six assists.

Auburn (11-3, 0-1 SEC) was led by Mar'shaun Bostic with 17 points. Honesty Scott-Grayson and JaMya Mingo-Young were also productive with 16 and 11, respectively.

The Tigers got on the board first with a fast-break layup 25 seconds into the game. Five straight points by Karoline Striplin put the Lady Vols up by three 90 seconds later, but Auburn countered with a 9-1 run to lead 11-6 by the media timeout. A pair of Wynn free throws pulled Tennessee within three following the break, but AU took a 17-10 lead with 2:54 left in the first. The Lady Vols responded with an 8-0 run spanning a minute and half to reclaim the lead at 18-17. The lead changed three more times before the buzzer, with the Tigers taking a 22-21 advantage into the second.

Mingo-Young and Collins rattled off eight unanswered points over the first three and a half minutes of the second period, pushing AU ahead 29-20. Jewel Spear ended the drought for UT with a layup with 6:35 to go in the half, but back-to-back buckets by Mingo-Young and Collins extended Auburn's lead to 11 at 33-22. Jackson answered with six straight points for the Lady Vols to inch Tennessee within seven with just under two minutes left in the half. McKenna Eddings responded with a trey for the Tigers, and the teams traded baskets through the buzzer with Wynn knocking down a jumper just before time ran out to send the game into halftime with the Lady Vols trailing, 40-32.

Scott-Grayson drained a jumper to put the Tigers back up by double digits to start the second half, but the Lady Vols poured in nine straight points to pull within one and force an Auburn timeout at the 5:57 mark. Four more points by Powell after the timeout made it a 13-0 run and gave UT a 47-44 lead a minute later. Bostic ended the skid for the Tigers with a pair of free throws, but three buckets in a row by Powell gave Tennessee a 51-46 lead with 3:32 left in the third. Auburn countered with an Oyindamola Akinbolawa jumper and looked to cut it to one with a Bostic fast break on the next play, but Bostic missed the layup, and Tess Darby found the bottom of the net with a three on the other end to give UT a 54-58 advantage as the game entered the fourth quarter.

Darby and Jackson combined for five points in the first minute of the final stanza to extend the Lady Vols' advantage to 11. A free throw by Bostic cut the Tigers' deficit to 10 on the next possession, and the teams traded baskets with UT maintaining a 10-point edge until Scott-Grayson strung together six straight points for Auburn to pull the Tigers within six at 69-63 with 1:44 to play. Powell converted on a pair of free throws with 50 seconds left in the game to end the UT drought. Bostic scored a quick layup to pull Auburn within six, but the Tigers were forced to foul, and the Lady Vols converted from the free-throw line to take a 75-67 win.

Game Notes:DISQUALIFIED: KENTUCKY — 22 SCHERR (1:14 4th) ♦

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Tennessee outscored Kentucky 48-20 in the second half to overcome a 17-point second-quarter deficit and take an 87-69 victory against the Wildcats in front of a season-high crowd of 8,823 in Food City Center.

The Lady Vols, who won their fifth-straight contest and ended UK's four-game streak, hit 32 of 60 attempts for a season-best field goal percentage of 53.3 on the day. The Big Orange, meanwhile, held Kentucky to 38.2 percent, including an icy 23.5-percent rate (8-34) in the second half.

Fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson led UT (9-5, 2-0 SEC) with 27 points, and senior Jewel Spear poured in a season-high 21 points. Fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell also had a productive outing, racking up nine points, seven rebounds and nine assists.

Kentucky (8-8, 1-1 SEC) was led by Eniya Russell, who finished with 16 points and Ajae Petty who posted a double-double with 14 points and 14 rebounds. Maddie Scherr and Saniah Tyler were also in double figures with 13 and 10, respectively.

Tennessee won the jump and wasted no time getting on the board, with Powell finding Karoline Striplin wide open under the basket for an easy layup 10 seconds into play. Scherr responded with a long-range jumper for UK, and Brooklynn Miles followed it up with a steal and a layup on the inbound play, putting Kentucky on top by the 8:50 mark. Sara Puckett tied it up at four on the next possession, but the Wildcats scrapped back to lead 14-8 with 6:13 to go in the first. UK maintained that advantage until Striplin drained a jumper two minutes later to inch UT within four at 18-14. That score would hold through the buzzer as both teams remained scoreless for the final four minutes of the first.

Tess Darby came up with the steal and found Jackson on the fast break to start the second period, and Kaiya Wynn narrowed the gap to one with a free throw, but back-to-back treys had UK ahead by five with 8:06 to go in the half. Jackson responded with a three for UT on the other end, but a 16-2 UK run pushed the Wildcats on top by a 40-24 count by the 4:47 mark. Jillian Hollingshead hit a short jumper to end the skid for Tennessee, and with 4:02 to play, Spear hit a jumper to tally the first of her 11 second-quarter points as UT outscored UK 13-7 over the closing minutes to set the halftime score at 49-39.

Kentucky notched the first bucket of the third quarter in the form of a Petty layup, but UT whittled the deficit down to single digits by the 9:21 mark. Kentucky went up by 11 twice more before Tennessee rattled off eight straight points to pull within three by the 6:19 mark at 55-52. A Darby 3-pointer 90 seconds later extended it to an 11-0 UT run and tied the game at 55-all. Scherr ended the UK drought with a jumper with 4:22 to go in the third, but free throws by Jackson and Spear had UT leading 59-57 two minutes later. Kentucky took the lead once more off an old-fashioned three-point play by Russell, but the Lady Vols closed out the quarter with seven unanswered points to take a 66-60 lead into the final stanza.

Russell opened the scoring in the fourth to pull the Wildcats within four, but UT responded with an 8-0 run to lead 74-62 with 8:09 to play. A Scherr three pulled UK within single digits on the next play, and the teams swapped buckets until the 4:01 mark when consecutive layups by Spear kicked off a 9-0 Tennessee run to close out the game for the 87-69 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Tennessee fended off a scrappy Florida team to extend its win streak to six games, taking an 88-81 victory over the Gators in Food City Center.

For the third straight game in SEC play, the Lady Vols overcame a double-digit deficit to claim victory, this time overturning a 12-point UF advantage in the second quarter. The Lady Vols converted on 16 of 18 free-throw tries in the final frame to seal the victory.

Tennessee (10-5, 3-0 SEC) was led by senior Jewel Spear and junior Sara Puckett, who each fired in 20 points. Spear shot 50 percent from the field and 91 percent from the charity stripe on 10 made free throws, while Puckett went 4-of-6 from behind the arc for a career-best four treys. Fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson was also a top producer with 18 points and eight rebounds.

Aliyah Matharu was the high scorer for Florida (9-6, 0-3 SEC) with 23 points. Leilani Correa was also in double digits with 12, and Alberte Rimdal and Zippy Broughton each finished with 11.

The Lady Vols' first two points came from the free-throw line courtesy of Jasmine Powell at the 9:17 mark. The Gators tied it up on the next play, but a trio of Puckett threes had the Lady Vols ahead 13-6 by the 5:13 mark. The Gators responded with four quick points to ignite an 11-2 run that gave them a 19-15 lead with 1:48 to go in the first. Tamari Key ended the drought for UT with a layup and followed it up with a long-range two on the next play to tie the game at 19-all, but Florida got a bucket in before the buzzer to take a 21-19 lead into the second quarter.

A pair of Matharu jumpers set off a 9-0 run that built the Gators' lead to 30-19 with 7:38 to go in the half. Jackson scored UT's first points of the quarter 40 seconds later, and the teams traded baskets until a Karoline Striplin three pulled Tennessee within seven by the media timeout at 35-28. Jewel Spear converted on an old-fashioned three-point play following the timeout to trim it to four. Correa buried a jumper on the next play, but Spear scored again to set off an 8-2 run that tied the game at 39-all with 1:05 on the clock. Florida took the lead twice more, but UT answered both times, sending the game into the half with the score knotted up at 43.

The Gators reclaimed the lead on the first play of the second half, but a jumper by Spear at the 6:59 mark put the Lady Vols ahead 47-46. A free throw by Jackson stretched the lead to two, but a three-point play by Laila Reynolds on the next possession pushed UF on top by one. Jillian Hollingshead responded with three points, and Powell followed it up with a jumper to build UT's lead up to four with four minutes to go in the third. Florida inched within one with 90 seconds on the clock, but a three by Striplin lifted UT's advantage back to four, and the Lady Vols maintained that through the buzzer, taking a 63-59 lead into the fourth.

Matharu pocketed a jumper on the first play of the final stanza to pull UF within two, but four quick points by Puckett and Spear extended the Lady Vol lead to six. Florida scrapped within three with 8:11 left in the game, but a pair of Kaiya Wynn free throws and another trey by Puckett provided UT a 72-64 lead with 5:39 to go. Broughton cut it back to six on the next play, but Jackson and Spear scored on back-to-back possessions to give UT its largest lead of the game at 76-66 at the 3:42 mark. Correa responded with a trey for UF to cut the deficit to seven, and that's as close as Florida would get as Tennessee converted on free throws to close out the 88-81 victory.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas -- The Lady Vols suffered their first SEC loss of the season, falling to Texas A&M in Reed Arena, 71-56.

Junior Sara Puckett led Tennessee (10-6, 3-1 SEC) with 12 points and seven rebounds. Senior Jewel Spear was close behind with 11 points, and fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson ended the day with 10 as UT saw its six-game winning streak come to an end.

Aicha Coulibaly was the high scorer for the Aggies (14-3, 2-2 SEC), finishing with 19 points. Sahara Jones and Endyia Rogers were also in double figures with 15 each.

The Aggies got on the board first with a layup 12 seconds into play, but the Lady Vols answered with six straight points capped by a Spear three to lead 6-2 by the 8:23 mark. TAMU tied things up 30 seconds later, but Jasmine Powell reclaimed the lead for UT with 7:00 left in the first. Tennessee then went cold from the floor, as Texas A&M built a 15-8 advantage over the next four minutes. Jillian Hollingshead ended the drought with a layup at the 2:36 mark to get UT into double figures, and by the end of the quarter, Tennessee had trimmed the deficit down to four at 18-14.

Both teams struggled to score at the outset of the second, with Lauren Ware netting the first points of the quarter at the 7:39 mark to extend TAMU's lead to six. Jackson and Powell combined for back-to-back buckets to narrow the margin to two with 6:18 to go in the half, but two layups and a free throw by Coulibaly had the Aggies on top 25-20 midway through the period. Jackson answered with a layup to cut it to three, but Texas A&M closed out the half with an 11-0 run to take a 36-22 lead into halftime.

Spear swished a trey on UT's first possession of the second half to pull her team within 11, but Rogers countered with a three on the other end. Karoline Striplin and Puckett combined for back-to-back buckets to cut it to 10 by the 6:59 mark, but the Aggies extended their lead to 13 a minute later. Hollingshead responded with a layup before TAMU countered with six straight points to go up 48-31 with 3:04 left in the third. Spear hit her third 3-pointer of the game, but Texas A&M outscored the Lady Vols 6-2 to close out the quarter to lead 54-36 at the end of three.

Kaiya Wynn knocked down a jumper and Puckett followed with a three on the next play to pull UT within 15 with 7:37 left in the game, but Janiah Barker and Coulibaly answered with scores on consecutive plays to give TAMU its largest lead of the game at 60-41. Puckett drained another three-pointer, and Avery Strickland hit a free throw to trim the deficit to 15 with 5:48 to play. The Lady Vols pulled within 14 multiple times in the closing minutes, but that's as close as they would get.

STARKVILLE, Miss. – The Lady Vols got back in the win column in a big way on, overcoming a 13-point second-quarter deficit to take a 75-64 victory over Mississippi State in Humphrey Coliseum.

Tennessee (11-6, 4-1 SEC) was led by fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson, who turned in 19 points and seven rebounds. Junior Kaiya Wynn came off the bench to contribute a career-high 13 points, and fifth-year senior Jasmine Powell and junior Sara Puckett each tallied 11.

Defensively, the Big Orange forced State into 15 turnovers on the evening and allowed the hosts only 19 points combined in the middle two quarters. UT also held MSU star Jessika Carter to four points over the final three periods after allowing her eight in the first.

Erynn Barnum was the top scorer for MSU (15-5, 2-3 SEC) with 15 points, and Carter and Debreasha Powe each had 12. Lauren Park-Lane also landed in double digits with 10 on the night.

The Bulldogs jumped out to a 6-0 lead before Puckett swished a three at the 7:44 mark to get UT on the board. Powe knocked down a jumper on the other end to put MSU ahead by five, and the teams traded baskets until a Carter jumper set off a 5-1 run that gave Mississippi State a 16-8 advantage by the 3:29 mark. Jewel Spear ended the skid for UT with a 10-foot shot 20 seconds later, but MSU outscored UT 7-2 over the final minutes of the quarter to lead 23-12 at the end of one.

A pair of free throws by Barnum extended the Bulldogs' advantage to 13 at the outset of the second, but Powell knocked down a contested three, and Wynn scored a fast-break layup on the next play to set off a 7-0 run that pulled the Lady Vols within six at 25-19 by the 6:28 mark. Barnum and Jordan combined to push MSU back on top by double digits a little over a minute later, but Tamari Key scored on back-to-back plays to help Tennessee creep within six. The remainder of the period was a back-and-forth affair, with Mississippi State taking a 37-30 lead into intermission.

Spear scored the first points of the second half with a layup, and Puckett followed it up with a short jumper to trim the deficit to three by the 8:37 mark. Carter answered by knocking down a shot on the other end, but four quick points by Puckett and Jackson had UT within one with 6:35 to play in the third. Park-Lane responded with a trey for the Bulldogs, but Tennessee countered with a Jackson jumper and a three by Spear as Tennessee took its first lead of the game midway through the third quarter at 43-42. The Lady Vols went on to score eight more points following the media timeout while holding MSU scoreless to send the game into the final stanza with UT leading, 51-42.

A three by Powell to start the fourth made it a 16-0 UT run and gave Tennessee a double-digit lead at 54-42. A pair of MSU layups trimmed that lead back to eight by the 8:51 mark, but the Lady Vols were on top by 13 just over two minutes later. The Bulldogs cut it down to single digits once more when Powe drained a 3-pointer with 3:42 to play to make it 65-57, but that's as close as they would get as Tennessee converted on free throws to close out the game.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Tennessee won for the eighth time in its last nine games and improved to 5-1 in SEC play, defeating in-state rival Vanderbilt in front of a season-best crowd of 9,088 in Food City Center, 73-64.

The win marked Tennessee head coach Kellie Harper's 100th triumph while leading the program at her alma mater. Adding more meaning to the milestone was getting a victory in UT's "We Back Pat" game that honored Harper's (Jolly's) college coach, Pat Summitt.

The Lady Vols (12-6, 5-1 SEC), who remain in a tie for second place in the SEC standings, were led by fifth-year seniors Rickea Jackson and Jasmine Powell, who each put up 16 points. Jackson added 10 rebounds to record her third double-double of the season, and Powell dished out a game-high eight assists. Senior Jewel Spear also had a productive outing with 12 points, and redshirt-senior Tamari Key put up a season-high 10.

Iyana Moore was the top scorer for Vanderbilt (17-3, 4-2 SEC) with 19 points, and Jordyn Cambridge was also in double figures with 12.

Vanderbilt won the jump and netted a baseline three on its first possession, but Spear answered with a trey of her own to tie the game up just over a minute into play. Moore hit the first of a pair of free throws on the next possession, but UT launched into a 9-2 run to lead 12-6 by the 6:22 mark. The Commodores responded with six straight points to tie the game at 12-all before a jumper by Jackson gave the Lady Vols the lead, which they clung to through the end of the quarter to take a 20-17 advantage into the second.

Tess Darby led off the second quarter with a three-pointer, but Moore countered with a Vandy three on the other end. Powell and Darby combined for six points to push the Big Orange on top by seven with 7:01 remaining. VU outscored UT 9-2 following the timeout to knot the game up at 31 with 1:20 left in the half. Jackson got a steal and turned it into two points on the other end, but Oliver got loose and hit a reverse layup at the buzzer to send the game into halftime with the score tied at 33.

Vanderbilt reclaimed the lead off a Justine Pissott three-pointer 32 seconds into the second half, but the Lady Vols rattled off six straight points to lead 39-36 by the 7:34 mark. Pissott hit another trey to tie things up on the next possession, but Key and Spear combined for four quick points to provide UT a 43-39 advantage with 5:51 left in the third. Back-to-back buckets by Moore put the Commodores on top by one at the 3:53 mark, but UT outscored VU 8-3 over the closing minutes to take a 51-47 lead into the final stanza.

Cambridge opened the fourth with a three to pull Vandy within one, but Darby swished a trey on the other end to restore UT's four-point margin. Moore scored a layup for Vandy, but Powell tallied four unanswered points for Tennessee to extend its lead to six with 7:03 to play. With 4:48 on the clock, Cambridge knocked down a layup to set off a 6-0 Commodore run that tied the game at 62-all and forced UT to call a timeout. Spear swished a three following the break to reclaim the lead for UT. Cambridge hit a jumper 30 seconds later to make it a one-point game, but UT strung together eight straight points while forcing Vanderbilt turnovers on three possessions to close out the win.

OXFORD, Miss. – The Lady Vols dropped a heartbreaker in a game that featured nine lead changes and five ties, with the Rebels taking an 80-75 victory in The Sandy and John Black Pavilion at Ole Miss.

Senior Jewel Spear was the game's top scorer, pouring in a season-high 30 points for Tennessee (12-7, 5-2 SEC) on 64.7 percent shooting from the floor. Fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson also was in double digits with 15 points and six rebounds on the day.

Ole Miss (15-5, 5-2 SEC) was led by Marquesha Davis with 25 points. Madison Scott managed a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Kharyssa Richardson and Kennedy Todd-Williams were also in double figures with 21 and 11, respectively.

Jackson netted the first points of the game on a layup, but Ole Miss scored on back-to-back possessions to lead by a 4-2 count two minutes into the game. Spear tied it up on the next play before a Davis layup reclaimed the lead for the Rebels. That would be the first of six lead changes spanning a minute and a half until a jumper by Jackson sparked a 10-2 UT run that pushed the Lady Vols ahead 19-12 by the 4:04 mark. Ole Miss rallied back within two with 2:33 to go in the first, but UT outscored the Rebels 8-4 to end the quarter with a 27-21 advantage.

Davis hit the first points of the second quarter, as UM strung together an 8-2 run to tie the game at 29-all with 6:21 left in the half. Karoline Striplin and Kaiya Wynn responded with four straight points for UT, and the Lady Vols maintained that four-point advantage through the 2:15 mark when Madison Scott and Kennedy Todd-Williams combined for six unanswered points to put Ole Miss on top by two with under a minute to go. Jackson hit the last bucket of the half to send the game into intermission with the game knotted up at 39.

The Rebels started the third quarter with a 9-3 run to lead 48-42 two minutes into the half. UM maintained a six-point lead through the 6:00 mark, when Jackson and Spear combined for five points to pull UT within one. Four quick points by Davis put Ole Miss ahead by five at the 4:32 mark, and the teams traded buckets through the end of the period with the Rebels leading 63-57 after three.

Tennessee kicked off the final stanza with a Powell layup and Tess Darby three-pointer to cut the deficit to one, but the Rebels responded with six unanswered points to lead 69-62 with 5:41 left in the game. Spear knocked down her fourth trey of the afternoon 11 seconds later, and Powell and Spear combined to pull the Big Orange within two at 74-72 with 4:01 to play. An old-fashioned three-point play by Spear with 1:35 to go made it a one-point game, but the Lady Vols never reclaimed the lead as the Rebels closed out the game with a pair of buckets to take the 80-75 victory.

ATHENS, Ga. – The Lady Vols took a decisive road win, defeating Georgia in Stegeman Coliseum, 95-73, and maintaining second place in the SEC standings.

The 95 points marked the highest point total scored by a Tennessee team in SEC play during the Kellie Harper era.

Senior Jewel Spear had the hot hand for UT (13-7, 6-2 SEC), racking up 25 points on 57.1 percent shooting and five made threes. Fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson stuffed the stat sheet with 21 points, five assists and six rebounds, and fellow fifth-year Tamari Key tied her season high of 10 points and pulled down a game-high and season-best eight rebounds.

Georgia (10-11, 1-7 SEC) was led by De'Mauri Flournoy with 18 points. Asia Avinger was also in double figures with 15, and Javyn Nicholson and Jordan Cole posted 13 and 11, respectively.

Tennessee won the tip and got the ball to Key for the first points of the game. Jackson and Jasmine Powell followed it up with threes, and the Lady Vols jumped out to an 8-0 lead just a minute into play. Georgia responded with seven straight points over the next 60 seconds to pull within one, but UT rattled off an 11-2 run capped by a pair of free throws by Karoline Striplin to lead 19-9 with 2:25 to go in the first. Flournoy ended the UGA drought with a three, and Nicholson scored the final points of the quarter on a layup for a score of 19-14 after one.

Jackson opened the second period with an old-fashioned three-point play, and a bucket by Powell on the next possession gave UT a 10-point lead and forced a Georgia timeout with 8:38 to go in the half. Tennessee got the defensive stop following the timeout, and Spear swished a three on the other end, as UT racked up 13 unanswered points to lead 32-14 by the media break. Taniyah Thompson netted UGA's first points of the quarter from the free-throw line at the midway point. Destiny Thomas hit Georgia's first field goal of the quarter with 3:14 to play, and Flournoy added a layup on the next play to make it a 6-0 run and trim the deficit to 12. Tennessee outscored the Lady Bulldogs 10-4 over the final 2:39 to build its largest halftime lead of the season at 41-24.

Spear sank a layup through contact and added the free throw at the outset of the second half, extending UT's margin to 20. UGA rallied with a 9-2 run to pull within 13 two and a half minutes later. The Lady Bulldogs hung within 13 through the 3:47 mark when a Savannah Henderson trey jump-started a 7-2 run that whittled the margin to 10 at 58-48. With 1:50 left in the third, Spear was fouled behind the arc and hit all three free throws to stretch Tennessee's lead back to 13. The teams then traded buckets through the buzzer, sending the game into the final stanza with the Lady Vols on top, 66-54.

Spear opened the scoring in the fourth with a baseline three, and Jackson added five points as UT outpaced UGA 8-2 over the first three minutes. Cole countered with a pair of free throws, but Spear drained her fifth three of the game on the next play to put UT ahead by 19. It became a back-and-forth affair until a three by Tess Darby set off a 10-5 Big Orange run to close out the game with UT taking the 95-73 victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – The Lady Vols won their sixth straight game at home, taking an 80-69 wire-to-wire victory over Missouri in front of a season-high crowd of 9,190 in Food City Center.

Senior Jewel Spear surpassed the 20-point mark for the third consecutive game to lead Tennessee (14-7, 7-2 SEC) with 22 points and a career-high-tying six assists and three steals on the day. Fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson turned in 19 points, scoring all of them in the first half, to eclipse 2,000 career points.

Junior Sara Puckett also had a strong showing with 15 points and five rebounds, as the Lady Vols took sole possession of second place in the SEC standings after a loss by Ole Miss vs. South Carolina on Sunday.

Missouri (11-11, 2-7 SEC) was led by Mama Dembele, who tallied 18 points and eight rebounds. Grace Slaughter, Ashton Judd and Hilke Feldrappe were also in double figures with 14, 12 and 11, respectively.

The Lady Vols jumped out to a 5-0 lead off buckets from Jackson and Puckett before Dembele put Mizzou on the board with a layup just over a minute into the game. The Tigers rallied within one a minute later, but a trey by Spear on the next possession gave UT a 10-6 advantage at the 7:38 mark. UM pulled within one twice more before Spear and Puckett combined for three straight threes to fuel a 9-2 run that boosted UT on top 21-13 with 3:30 left in the first. Dembele ended the skid for Mizzou, but Jackson hit UT's sixth 3-pointer of the game 10 seconds later as UT outscored Missouri 7-2 over the final two and a half minutes to lead 28-17 after one.

A pair of free throws by Dembele to start the second quarter trimmed the deficit down to single digits, but Jackson answered with jumpers in the paint on consecutive plays to put UT ahead by 13 with 8:13 to go in the half. Slaughter and Judd rallied the Tigers with three straight treys, fueling a 9-2 run that pulled Mizzou within six at 34-28 two minutes later. Four quick points by Jackson stretched UT's advantage back to double digits, a margin that would hold until Powell converted on a driving layup just before the buzzer to set the halftime score at 46-34.

Both teams struggled to hit shots at the outset of the second half, with neither team putting one through the net until Tamari Key hit a layup at the 7:49 mark. Key added another layup just over a minute later to extend UT's lead to 16 before Abby Feit ended the drought for UM with a three with 6:12 left in the third. That bucket set off a 15-2 Mizzou run punctuated by a Slaughter 3-pointer that whittled UT's lead down to four with three minutes to go. Puckett responded with a trey on the other end, and the Lady Vols closed out the quarter by outscoring the Tigers 11-0 to lead 63-49 at the end of three.

Karoline Striplin nailed a jumper to start the final stanza, and the teams swapped buckets until the 6:21 mark when Spear followed up a pair of Striplin free throws with a layup to fuel an 8-3 run that put the Lady Vols ahead by 19 with 4:39 to play. Missouri closed out the game by outscoring UT 13-6, as the Lady Vol reserves got some action, setting the final score at 80-69.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The Lady Vols suffered a tough shooting night on the road, falling in SEC play to Alabama in Coleman Coliseum, 72-56.

Fifth-year seniors Rickea Jackson and Jasmine Powell were the leading scorers for Tennessee (14-8, 7-3 SEC) with 13 and nine, respectively. Fellow fifth-year Tamari Key also had a productive night, turning in nine points and a team-leading seven rebounds.

Aaliyah Nye was the top producer for Alabama (19-6, 6-4 SEC) with 23 points. Jessica Timmons was also in double figures with 14, and Loyal McQueen finished with 10.

Key won the tip, and a jumper by Jackson put Tennessee on the board first. Back-to-back buckets gave Alabama a 4-2 lead by the 7:43 mark, but Sara Puckett responded with a trey to set off an 8-2 Lady Vol run that had Tennessee on top by four at the media break. The Crimson Tide rallied back to tie the game at 13-all before Nye sank a three with 32 seconds left in the quarter, and UA closed out the first frame with a 16-14 advantage.

Nye led off the second period with another three to stretch Alabama's lead to five. Key hit a layup on the next possession, but an 8-3 run capped by a Del'Janae Williams 3-pointer gave Alabama an eight-point cushion with 5:50 left in the half. Puckett countered with a three of her own a minute later, and Jackson and Kaiya Wynn followed it up with layups to pull UT within one. Timmons ended a three-minute Crimson Tide scoring drought with a jumper at the 1:55 mark, but Jackson once again cut it to one on the other end. Timmons scored the last points of the half from the free-throw line, hitting the first of a pair to set the halftime score at 30-28.

A fast-break layup by Nye on UA's first possession of the second half extended the lead to four. Jackson countered with a layup, but UT then went cold from the field as the Crimson Tide quickly outscored Lady Vols 12-2 over a three-minute span to lead 44-32 by the midway point. Karoline Striplin ended the skid with a jumper to move UT within 10, but Nye drained her third three of the game to stretch UA's lead to 13 with 4:14 left in the third. The Lady Vols hung within 13 into the final minute, but a three-pointer by McQueen just before the buzzer sent the game into the final stanza with Alabama up 58-42.

Puckett scored the first points of the fourth quarter with a jumper, and Powell and Key each added a pair of layups as UT rattled off 10 unanswered points to whittle Alabama's advantage down to six and force a UA timeout with 6:47 to play. Essence Cody hit UA's first point of the quarter from the line at the 5:38 mark, and Nye followed it with a 10-footer to extend the Crimson Tide's lead to nine with 5:00 left in the game. Two points from Powell pulled UT back within seven with just over four minutes remaining, but Alabama closed out the contest with an 11-2 run to seal the victory.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – A 53-percent shooting percentage from behind the arc and a 21-point effort by Rickea Jackson lifted the Lady Vols to their seventh straight home triumph in a dominant 81-55 victory over Arkansas in Food City Center.

The 55 points represented the fewest scored this season by Arkansas, which entered averaging 73.1 per contest. It also tied as the fewest allowed by Tennessee in 2023-24, matching the total Liberty scored in a 90-55 loss to UT on Dec. 31.

Junior Jillian Hollingshead recorded her second double-double of the season with 14 points and 10 rebounds, and senior Jewel Spear was close behind for Tennessee (15-8, 8-3 SEC) with 13 points, eight rebounds, and a career-high seven assists on the night. Their efforts helped move Kellie Harper's squad back into a tie for second place in the SEC standings.

Taliah Scott was the high scorer for Arkansas (17-9, 5-6 SEC) with 23 points, and Maryam Dauda turned in 10.

Jackson sank a 10-footer 30 seconds into play, and Spear followed it up with a trey as the duo went on to combine for 12 points in putting the Lady Vols up 12-0 by the 7:10 mark. Scott drained a three for UA's first points of the game 15 seconds later, but Tamari Key countered with a layup on the other end to maintain Tennessee's double-digit advantage. A pair of layups by Jackson put UT ahead 18-5 with 4:35 left in the first and proved to be the first points of a 13-5 run that gave Tennessee its largest first-quarter lead of the season at 27-10. Jenna Lawrence knocked down a three for the final points of the quarter, sending the game into the second period with UT on top, 27-13.

Dauda cut the Arkansas deficit to 11 with a trey to open the second quarter, setting off an 8-2 Arkansas run that had the Razorbacks within eight with 4:42 to go in the half. Jasmine Powell hit a layup to end the drought, and an old-fashioned three-point play by Jackson stretched UT's lead back to 13. Hollingshead added a jumper to make it 36-21, and Scott hit a three for Arkansas on the next play before the Lady Vols ended with four straight points to lead 40-24 at halftime.

Powell kicked off the second half with a baseline three, as UT outscored the Razorbacks 7-2 over the first two minutes to lead by 21. Makayla Daniels responded with a three for UA at the 7:10 mark, but an 8-2 Lady Vol run stretched the score to 55-31 by the midway point. Scott and Daniels combined for buckets on back-to-back plays to pull Arkansas within 20, but UT expanded its lead to 26 off treys from Spear and Karoline Striplin to take a 63-37 advantage into the fourth quarter.

Scott hit the first points of the fourth with a mid-range jumper, and the teams traded buckets through the media timeout, with Tennessee leading 70-44 with 4:38 left in the game. Daniels drained a three eight seconds later, and Scott followed it up with a jumper to cut the score to 70-47, but the Lady Vols outscored the Razorbacks 11-6 to close out the contest.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – The Lady Vols pushed No. 1 South Carolina to the limit, taking a tie game into the fourth quarter before falling to the undefeated Gamecocks, 66-55, in front of a season-high crowd of 11,073 at Food City Center.

Fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson fired in 19 points to pace Tennessee (15-9, 8-4 SEC) offensively, while junior forward Sara Puckett contributed 15 points and fifth-year guard Jasmine Powell added 12 along with her team-high eight rebounds.

South Carolina (24-0, 11-0 SEC) was led by 6-foot-7 center Kamilla Cardoso, who notched a double-double effort of 18 points and 10 boards. Ashlyn Watkins added a double-double as well, tallying 14 points and 10 caroms, while Raven Johnson hauled down a game-high 15 rebounds.

South Carolina jumped out to a 4-0 lead early, but the Lady Vols stormed back with a pair of layups by Powell and another from Jackson to go up 6-4 at the 6:21 mark. After Cardoso tied it up at six, UT reeled off an 8-2 run, with a bucket by Tamari Key, consecutive layups from Puckett and a jumper by Jackson making it 14-8 with 2:43 to go in the first quarter. The Gamecocks clawed back, however, scoring the last seven points of the period, capped by a MiLaysia Fulwiley three-pointer just before the buzzer, to take a 15-14 lead after one.

Powell started Tennessee off right in the second, pushing the ball in transition, generating a lay-up and converting an old-fashioned three-point play to boost her team back in front, 17-15, with 9:23 to go. Jackson counter-punched as well, connecting on a trey to retake the lead, 20-19, at the 8:29 mark. A layup by Cardoso sent the Gamecocks into the media timeout with a 22-20 advantage. Coming out of the break, Jackson tallied three buckets and Puckett added another to stake the Lady Vols to a 28-23 lead with 29 seconds to go. South Carolina's Watkins ended the first-half scoring on a layup, however, sending UT into the locker room with a 28-25 edge.

USC tallied twice to open the second half and take a 29-28 lead, but Powell scored on a layup to push her team back on top 30-29 with 8:28 to go in the quarter. The teams continued to exchange leads before a Jackson fall-away jumper and a Puckett layup sent Tennessee into the media timeout at the 4:11 mark with a 41-39 cushion. The Gamecocks surged ahead, 46-43, on a layup by Sania Feagin with 2:53 to go in the period, but the Big Orange outscored USC 5-2 the rest of the way on a trio of Karoline Striplin free throws and another pair by Jackson just before the end of the period to even the score at 48.

The Gamecocks struck first again in the final frame, stepping ahead 52-48 by the 7:51 mark. After a UT timeout, the Lady Vols got a free throw from Powell to cut the gap to three before a 5-0 USC burst gave the visitors a 57-49 lead with 5:21 to go. A Puckett put-back trimmed the deficit to 57-51 heading into the media timeout with 4:30 remaining, but South Carolina built its lead to 62-51 before Jillian Hollingshead tossed home a pair of free throws with 2:07 remaining to stem the run. A Puckett step-back with 58 ticks left was UT's final tally of the evening in the 11-point loss.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Tennessee scored a season-high 30 points in the first quarter and never looked back, racing past Vanderbilt at Memorial Gymnasium, 86-61.

The Lady Vols (16-9, 9-4 SEC) shot a sizzling 76.9 percent in the first frame, including an eye-popping 83.3 percent from the three-point arc, to seize a 15-point lead in the first 10 minutes en route to their eighth straight victory in the series with the Commodores (19-8, 6-7 SEC). The Lady Vols finished the game at 52.5 percent from the floor, marking their second-best percentage of the season behind a 53.3 rate vs. Kentucky on Jan. 7.

Fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson enjoyed an 11-for-15 day from the field to lead the Big Orange in scoring, with 24 points, as well as in rebounds (7), assists (4) and steals (1). Senior guard Jewel Spear connected on three of six three-point attempts and contributed 16 points, while fifth-year point guard Jasmine Powell tossed in 12.

Vanderbilt was led by Iyana Moore's 25 points, while Jordyn Cambridge and Sacha Washington added 14 and 13, respectively.

The Lady Vols were sizzling from the field in the opening quarter, shooting 71 percent from the field early to build a 17-7 lead by the media timeout at the 4:17 mark. Jackson, Spear and Powell all drained three-pointers during that stretch, helping UT ride a 12-2 run into the first break. UT extended a 9-0 scoring spree to 12 straight with a Tess Darby trey to push the lead to 20-7 before Vanderbilt answered with a Jordyn Oliver layup with 3:52 to go. UT closed out the quarter by outscoring VU, 10-6, with Spear contributing a three-pointer and an old fashioned three-point play. Her efforts helped the Big Orange finish the period with 10 made field goals in 13 attempts (76.9), including five of six from long range (83.3), to propel UT to a 30-15 lead.

Tennessee expanded its advantage to 18 by the 6:48 mark in the second quarter, forcing the Commodores to call a timeout. Darby's second three, sandwiched by inside buckets from Tamari Key, provided the juice for UT's 7-4 opening surge in the stanza. Vandy scored the next seven points to cut its deficit to 11, 37-26, with 4:38 to go before Jackson answered to push the lead back to 13. Jackson would counter VU surges twice more, hitting a three and a layup to close out the first half scoring and send her squad into the locker room with a 44-29 lead.

The Lady Vols and Commodores exchanged buckets through the first five and a half minutes of the third frame, heading into the media break with UT up, 56-41. Spear drew first in the period, hitting a layup 29 seconds in, before Jackson connected for eight straight points and Kaiya Wynn added a driving layup to put her team back up by 15. Following the break, the Lady Vols increased the lead to 19, 62-43, on the strength of Jackson and Kaiya Wynn putbacks, and then headed to the fourth with a 66-48 advantage as Wynn drained a short jumper to end the stanza just before the buzzer sounded.

Vanderbilt burst out on a 6-2 run to open the final frame, but Jewel Spear drained her third three of the game to force the Commodores to call a timeout with UT leading 71-57 with 6:24 to go. A Jackson layup and Powell jumper put the game out of reach at 75-58 with 3:34 to go, and UT outscored VU, 11-3, the rest of the way on the strength of a Darby three and pairs of free throws by Powell, Karoline Striplin and Avery Strickland.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – A determined Tennessee squad challenged No. 13/10 LSU and closed the gap to within one in the fourth quarter before the Tigers prevailed, 75-60, in front of a season-high crowd of 15,281 at Food City Center.

UT (16-10, 9-5 SEC) trimmed LSU's lead to 52-51 with 7:30 remaining in the game but could get no closer to the Tigers (24-4, 11-3 SEC) the rest of the way.

Fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson paced Tennessee with 16 points and nine rebounds, eclipsing the 1,000-point scoring mark with the program in only 53 contests. Redshirt senior Tamari Key also was in double figures, contributing 10 to the Big Orange offensive ledger.

LSU was led in scoring by Hailey Van Lith, who finished with 26 points. Mikaylah Williams chipped in 15, while Angel Reese produced a double-double with 11 points and 15 boards.

Tennessee got off to a quick start, taking a 5-2 lead on Jackson's turnaround jumper and a three-pointer by Sara Puckett. LSU clawed back, taking a 9-5 advantage with 5:58 to go on a Van Lith jumper before Key pocketed a reverse layup to cut the gap to two, 9-7. The Tigers bounced back and outscored the Lady Vols 5-2 to take a 14-9 edge into the media timeout with 3:59 to go in the opening period. UT responded out of the break, netting a Tess Darby trey and Jillian Hollingshead jumper to knot it up at 14 with 3:21 left. Jackson then knocked down a jumper with 1:27 on the clock to tie it at 16 before Van Lith drained a three just seconds before the buzzer to provide LSU a 19-16 lead after one.

The Tigers tallied first in the second frame, but Key's layup moved her team within four, 22-18. After LSU's lead swelled to eight, 26-18, at the 7:36 mark, a Jasmine Powell layup and Jewel Spear jumper reeled the visitors back to within four, 26-22. LSU responded with an 8-0 run, ballooning its advantage to 11, 33-22, and forcing Tennessee to call a timeout with 2:33 to go. The teams would play nearly even the rest of the way, with the Tigers taking a 38-26 lead into the locker room at the intermission.

The squads traded baskets early in the third period, with the Lady Vols cutting the deficit to nine, 45-36, by the media timeout at the 4:58 mark with a Jackson jumper and a pair of Sara Puckett free throws going into the break. Over the rest of the quarter, Tennessee outscored LSU, 9-3, on the strength a Hollingshead put-back and two Powell free throws, followed by a Darby driving layup and three-pointer. That Darby three pulled UT within two, 47-45, with 1:35 to go, and a Reese free throw sent the Tigers into the final period with a 48-45 edge.

LSU upped its lead to 50-45 in the early going of the final stanza on a Williams layup, but Tennessee responded with a Jackson free throw and Key baby hook to cut the gap to 50-48 and force the Tigers to call a timeout with 9:02 to go. After LSU scored quickly out of the break, Key grabbed a rebound and scored off her own miss, and Jackson hit the second of two free throws to whittle the gap to one, 52-51, with 7:30 remaining. LSU, however, responded with a 10-4 burst to take a 62-55 lead by the media timeout with 4:54 to go. The Tigers then closed out the game by outscoring the Lady Vols 13-5 the rest of the way to secure the win.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Five seniors were recognized in Senior Night festivities prior to the contest, and all five contributed significantly as Tennessee won its final regular season home game, 75-66, over Texas A&M at Food City Center.

The Lady Vols (17-10, 10-5 SEC), who had fallen to the Aggies, 71-56, in College Station on Jan. 14, earned some closure over that loss and secured another solid NET win in the process over A&M (18-10, 6-9 SEC), which came in ranked No. 39.

Forward Rickea Jackson led the Lady Vols with her eighth 20+ scoring effort of the campaign, connecting on nine of 14 shots from the field and eight of nine from the free throw line to finish with a game-high 27 points. Jewel Spear enjoyed a 6-of-10 evening from the field, including 2-of-5 from long range, to net 16 points. Tamari Key chipped in nine points and seven rebounds, eclipsing 1,000 career points in the process, Tess Darby tallied seven points and six rebounds and Jasmine Powell dished out a game-high six assists.

Texas A&M was paced by Solé Williams, who tossed in 20 points. Janiah Barker and Sahara Jones also were in double figures with 12 and 10, respectively.

After the Aggies struck first in the game on a Barker three-pointer, the Lady Vols responded with a pair of Jackson free throws and a trey from Spear to take a 5-3 lead by the 8:12 mark. A Darby three and consecutive buckets by Spear pushed the UT advantage to five, 12-7, with 5:15 to go in the first period. After a Barker jumper, the Big Orange put together an 8-0 run, ignited by a Jillian Hollingshead jumper and aided by layups from Darby, Karoline Striplin and Jackson to surge ahead 20-11 with 1:56 remaining in the opening stanza. Texas A&M ended the spree and scored twice before Striplin countered with a three to end the scoring, giving her team a 23-15 cushion after one.

The Aggies put points on the board first again in the second frame on an Aicha Coulibaly steal and layup, but Sarah Puckett quickly responded with a three to make it 26-17 Lady Vols with 8:00 left in the quarter. After Tineya Hylton drained a three for A&M, Jackson knocked down a pair of charity tosses and Key worked inside for a layup to provide UT its largest lead, 30-20, with 7:13 to go. Texas A&M chipped away at the lead and closed within three, 32-29, with 2:29 left on a Williams jumper, but a Jillian Hollingshead free throw and Spear three pushed the lead back to 36-29 with 42 seconds left. She and her teammates would take that score into the locker room at the half.

Jackson christened the second half with a long ball to boost the lead back to 10, 39-29. A Key layup and Jackson free throw followed to extend the advantage to 11, 42-31, at the 8:12 mark. Puckett then pocketed a corner three and Darby deposited a pair of free throws out of the third quarter media timeout to build UT's largest lead at 47-34 at the 6:16 mark. The Aggies wouldn't go away, whittling the gap to four, 49-45, with 3:32 left. Jackson and Spear, though, went to work to stem the tide. Jackson, who registered 13 points in the period, scored five straight on a pair of layups and a free throw to rebuild the lead to nine, 54-45, with 2:21 remaining. Jackson and Spear then combined for five more charity tosses to send Tennessee into the fourth with a 60-49 lead.

The Lady Vols took control at the outset of the final period, moving ahead 66-49 with 6:41 to go courtesy of a six-point barrage via a jumper by Jackson, a driving layup by Spear and a turnaround jumper by Key. A layup by Kaiya Wynn and yet another Jackson layup helped Tennessee build its biggest lead, 70-52, with 5:41 left. Texas A&M kept scrapping, however, reeling off nine straight points and trimming UT's lead to 70-61 on a Jones layup with 2:42 left on the clock. A Key free throw and layups by Jackson and Key, though, ballooned the Lady Vols' lead back to 14 by the 1:36 mark. The Aggies continued to apply pressure down the stretch but could get no closer than nine the rest of the way.

The Lady Vols (17-11, 10-6 SEC), who fell behind by 15 in the third period and entered the fourth down 11, trimmed the deficit to three with 4:58 to go. The Gamecocks, though, staved off the Big Orange and improved to 29-0 (16-0 SEC).

UT held USC to its smallest win margin at home in 2023-24 and the only one by single digits. It also was the third-closest win margin behind a six-point triumph at No. 9 LSU on Jan. 25 and a seven-point victory at No. 24 UNC on Nov. 30.

Tennessee was led in scoring by fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson, who tallied 29 points, eight rebounds and three blocked shots. Jewel Spear and Jasmine Powell also were in double figures, each recording 12 points on the afternoon.

South Carolina featured five players scoring in double figures, led by the 18-point, 14-rebound effort of 6-foot-7 center Kamilla Cardoso. Te-Hina Paopao tossed in 14, while MiLaysia Fulwiley, Bree Hall and Ashlyn Watkins had 13 each.

After an opening bucket by USC's Fulwiley, the Lady Vols took an early 4-2 lead on scores from Sara Puckett on a put-back and Jackson on a layup. The Gamecocks responded with a 5-0 run, surging to a 9-4 edge by the 6:56 mark.

UT answered, though, with Spear and Jackson connecting on jumpers to trim the deficit to 11-8 by the 4:34 mark. South Carolina scored four straight out of the break before Spear answered with a driving layup to pull UT within 15-10 with 2:19 to go. USC outscored Tennessee the rest of the period, 5-4, with pairs of free throws by Powell and Jillian Hollingshead keeping UT close at 20-14 after one.

The Lady Vols scored five straight to begin the second frame, cutting the USC lead to one, 20-19, on a pair of Jackson free throws and a Powell three-pointer at the 8:25 mark. After back-to-back buckets by Cardoso, Tennessee counter-punched with a Powell three, a Jackson fast-break layup and another long ball from Powell to take its first lead of the game, 24-23, with 6:23 remaining in the quarter. After the Gamecocks tied it back up on a Chloe Kitts free throw, Jackson responded with a jumper to lift her team on top by two, 26-24, with 4:49 to go in the half. A 5-0 burst by the hosts put them back ahead, 29-26, at the 3:58 mark, but UT responded with a free throw from Tess Darby and two more from Tamari Key to pull even at 29 with 2:58 left. The Gamecocks, however, compiled an 11-3 run the rest of the way to take a 40-32 lead into the locker room.

The teams exchanged buckets after the half before South Carolina pushed its advantage to 12 by the 7:07 mark in third stanza, 46-34. A turnaround fade-away off the glass by Jackson whittled the gap to 10, 46-36, with 5:30 to go, but a Gamecock free throw by Sania Feagin sent her team into the media timeout with a 47-36 lead with 4:50 on the clock. A Jackson fast-break layup out of the break and a Darby jumper with 3:04 twice cut the deficit to nine, 49-40. A 6-2 burst, though, pushed the Gamecocks ahead by 13, 55-42, with 1:46 remaining. A pair of Fulwiley scores swelled the USC lead to 15 with 56 ticks left, but a jumper by Spear and layups by Karoline Striplin and Powell narrowed the deficit to 11, 59-48, heading into the final period.

At the start of the fourth, UT reeled off a 6-0 blitz on two charity tosses by Jackson, free throws by Powell and Jackson and a put-back jumper by Jackson to make it 59-54 USC with 7:27 to go. UT then cut the gap to three at the 4:58 mark, 63-60, on another Jackson jumper. The Gamecocks answered and pushed their lead to seven, 67-60, with 4:14 left before a Darby layup pulled her squad to within five, 67-62, with 3:47 to go. A Gamecock response resulted in the lead growing back to 11, 73-62, with 1:14 remaining after a pair of Watkins rebound baskets. A Spear, jumper and an old-fashioned three-point play by Jackson got Tennessee back within seven with 20 seconds left, but the Lady Vols could get no closer.

GREENVILLE, S.C. – Junior forward Sara Puckett fired in 22 points, and senior guard/forward Tess Darby recorded her first career double-double, pacing No. 5 seed Tennessee to a 76-62 victory over No. 12 seed Kentucky in the SEC Tournament Second Round at Bon Secours Wellness Arena.

Puckett connected on eight of 12 shots from the field for UT, including 4-of-6 accuracy from beyond the arc to pace the Big Orange's offensive attack. Darby tossed in 10 points, including eight in the third period when UT began to separate from UK, and finished with a career-best 10 rebounds.

Senior guard Jewel Spear joined Puckett and Darby in double figures with 10, while fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson was just shy of a double-double of her own with eight points and nine boards.

The Wildcats were led in scoring by Saniah Tyler, who tallied 17 points. Ajae Petty contributed a double-double of 12 points and 11 rebounds, while Eniya Russell added 11 points in the loss.

After falling behind by five three times in the opening five minutes of the contest, including 12-7 at the 4:51 media timeout, the Lady Vols finally shook off their jitters. Kaiya Wynn hit a pair of free throws right after the break and then Puckett reeled off Tennessee's next 10 points to provide her squad some momentum. First, the junior knocked down a pair of free throws at the 4:07 mark to cut the deficit to 14-11. She then drained a three-pointer with 3:29 remaining to even the score at 14. After knotting the game again at 16 via a jumper with 1:45 left, Puckett provided UT its first lead of the contest, 19-18, by sinking another trey and tallying the quarter's final points with 1:01 left on the clock.

Puckett continued her torrid streak at the outset of the second stanza, netting a jumper for her 12th straight point and lifting Tennessee to a three-point cushion, 21-18, with 8:54 to go. After an Ajae Petty bucket in the paint cut the UT lead to one, 21-20, Jasmine Powell hit a layup and Wynn added a free throw to push the Big Orange ahead by four, 24-20, by the 5:19 mark. A pair of Karoline Striplin charity tosses boosted the lead to four once more at 26-22 with 3:22 left before Kentucky tied it up at 26 with 1:30 to go. Spear carded the final points of the period, getting a layup with 1:14 left on the clock to send the Big Orange into the locker room with a 28-26 advantage.

UK tied the game twice during the early going of the second half, including 30-30 with 8:35 remaining. Tennessee answered, though, getting a 5-0 Puckett run via a three-pointer and a turn-around jumper to make it 35-30 with 7:07 left. The Wildcats stormed right back, however, with Amiya Jenkins converting an old-fashioned three-point play to tie it at 35-all at the 6:25 mark. UT bounced right back with a run of its own, reeling off 10-straight, with a three-pointer by Tess Darby making it 45-35 Lady Vols with 3:50 remaining in the period and forcing a Kentucky timeout. Darby struck twice more in the third frame, with her put-back off a nifty Tamari Key rebound tap building a 48-41 lead at the 1:52 mark and her three with 1:19 to go pushing the gap to eight, 51-43. A Jasmine Powell layup with two seconds remaining in the third sent her team into the final quarter with its biggest lead at 53-44.

Tennessee opened the final period with a 7-2 run, building a 60-46 lead by the 5:54 mark on a Jackson layup. UK's Tyler would trim the 14-point lead to nine, 63-54, by the 4:30 mark on a three-pointer, but consecutive scores by Jackson and Hollingshead on layups nudged the lead back to 13, 67-54, with 3:49 remaining. The teams exchanged baskets over the next two and a half minutes until a Jackson layup extended Tennessee's gap to its highest of the game at 15, 74-59, with 55 ticks left before the Lady Vols closed out a 14-point win.

GREENVILLE, S.C. – No. 5 seed Tennessee rolled past No. 4 seed Alabama, 83-61, and advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament at Bon Secours Wellness Arena.

The Lady Vols, who led 19-14 after the first quarter, improved their overall record to 19-11 and upped their mark in SEC quarterfinal round action to 37-7 all-time by outscoring the Crimson Tide (23-10) by a 23-15 count in the second stanza and a 26-15 margin in the third frame to turn the game into a blowout. The victory avenged a 72-56 loss to UA in Tuscaloosa on Feb. 8.

UT senior guard Jewel Spear turned in a stellar performance, connecting on eight of 11 field goal attempts, including a 6-of-6, season-best day beyond the arc, to lead all scorers with 24 points. Fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson came up a rebound shy of a double-double, turning in a 22-point, nine-rebound effort, while junior forward Sara Puckett was in double figures for the second day in a row with 10 points to go along with seven boards.

Alabama had two scoring in double figures, with Sarah Ashlee Barker leading the way with 17 and Loyal McQueen adding 15.

Tennessee jumped out to a 6-0 lead by the 6:35 mark, on the strength of layups by Spear, Puckett and Jasmine Powell. Alabama answered with a Barker three with 6:09 left before the Lady Vols moved ahead 10-5 with 5:08 remaining on buckets from Tamari Key and Jackson After each Big Orange starter had contributed two points to open the game, a McQueen jumper sent Bama into the media break at the 4:42 mark trailing UT, 10-8. Tennessee came out of the timeout firing, building its lead back to five, 17-12, at the 2:34 mark on a pair of Jackson jumpers that sandwiched a Spear three. Puckett added a layup with 1:04 left to end the opening quarter with her team on top, 19-14.

After Essence Cody hit a free throw to open the second stanza for Alabama, Jackson made a pair of charity tosses as a result of a technical assessed to the Tide bench to extend the UT lead to six, 21-15, at the 9:01 mark. After UA responded with a bucket, Jillian Hollingshead scored on a layup to make the edge six again at 23-17 with 7:54 to go. Karly Weathers hit a trey from the top of the key to cut the gap to three for Bama, 23-20, but a pair of Spear threes extended UT's lead to seven, 29-22, with 5:01 to go in the half.

Following a media timeout, a Spear pull-up jumper and a Kaiya Wynn layup built Tennessee's cushion to 11, 33-22, with 3:06 remaining in the quarter. Following a McQueen layup with 2:34 left, a Jackson score in the paint and another Spear three pushed Tennessee up by 14, 38-24, with 1:33 remaining. Back-to-back layups by Jackson and Puckett boosted the advantage to 15 with 32 ticks left, 42-27, before a Bama layup by McQueen sent the Lady Vols into the locker room with a 42-29 cushion at the half.

Tennessee scored first in the second half and pushed its lead back to 15, 44-29, just 10 seconds into the third on a Jackson jumper, forcing a Tide timeout. Following the break, Key went to work inside, hitting three consecutive layups to keep her team up 17, 50-33, at the 7:25 mark. Alabama began to find its rhythm in the middle of the period, but UT continued to stave off the Tide with a Jackson jumper and a Hollingshead put-back to send their team into the 4:13 media timeout with a 54-39 advantage. Following an exchange of scoring out of the break, a Jackson jumper and Spear's fifth three of the day forced UA to call another timeout with 2:26 go and UT holding its largest lead at 61-42. The break did little to slow Spear, who drained trey number six at the 1:48 mark to extend the margin to 22, 64-42. A Wynn layup and a pair of Spear free throws sent the Lady Vols into the final frame with a 68-44 readout on the scoreboard, and they closed it out from there.

GREENVILLE, S.C. – No. 5 seed Tennessee overcame a 23-point first-half deficit and took a two-point lead with 24 seconds remaining before South Carolina's Kamilla Cardoso banked in a three-pointer as time expired to give the top-seeded and No. 1-ranked Gamecocks a 74-73 win in the SEC Tournament semifinals.

Fifth-year senior Rickea Jackson finished with 22 points, nine rebounds and a career-high eight assists. Senior guard Jewel Spear was right behind her with 21, as the duo put up 20+ points in back-to-back games in the league tourney.

The Gamecocks (31-0) were led by 13 points from Cardoso and reserve guard MiLaysia Fulwiley, while Raven Johnson tossed in 11.

South Carolina opened up a 10-0 lead over the first five-plus minutes with all five starters scoring as Tennessee suffered through a 0-for-8 shooting drought into the 4:18 media timeout. Jackson finally broke the ice for the Lady Vols with a three-pointer with 2:51 remaining in the quarter to make it 13-3 Gamecocks. Spear then connected from long range 17 seconds later to cut the gap to 15-6 with 2:24 to go. USC hit the final four points of the period to grab a 19-6 edge after one.

A 4-0 burst by South Carolina at the outset of the second stanza forced UT to take a timeout, trailing 23-6 with 8:32 remaining. Jillian Hollingshead took a lob inside and scored off the glass to make it 23-8 with 8:13 to go. USC scored six more before Spear answered with a layup to make it 29-10 with 5:29 left in the half. After the Gamecocks padded the lead to 23, 35-12, at the 3:11 mark, Tennessee went to work chipping away at the deficit. A pair of inside buckets by Tamari Key and Karoline Striplin cut the gap to 19, 35-16, with 2:07 left. UT continued an 11-1 half-closing run, getting a pair of free throws from Striplin at the 1:16 mark, a Spear three with 57 seconds on the clock and two charity tosses from Jasmine Powell with five ticks left to make it a 13-point deficit at the half at 36-23.

Tennessee continued its push at the start of the second half, getting a pair of Jackson jumpers and two Spear free throws to trim it to 39-30 with 6:56 to go. Another surge came via a Jackson jumper, followed by a Sara Puckett corner three to whittle the deficit to 42-35 with 5:57 remaining. Buckets by Cardoso and Chloe Kitts, however, restored the Gamecock lead to 46-35 before the teams headed to the 4:54 media timeout. After getting fouled on a three-point attempt just before that break, Spear promptly stepped to the line after the media stoppage and nailed all three tries to pull UT back within eight, 46-38. After a four-point Gamecock response set the deficit back to 12, 50-38, a Spear jumper in the lane and a three from Tess Darby on the wing reeled the Gamecocks back within nine, 54-45, at the 1:43 mark. A Jackson jumper on the break cut it to eight, 56-48, with 50 ticks left, but South Carolina got a Kitts bucket and a pair of free throws by Fulwiley just before the buzzer to take a 60-48 lead into the fourth.

The Lady Vols twice cut the margin to six early in the final frame, getting a trio of free throws from Puckett after being fouled on a three-point attempt to make it 60-54 with 8:32 to go. Then a Key bucket in the paint with 7:54 remaining cut it to 62-56. UT then trimmed it to three on a Powell trey with 6:33 on the clock and whittled it to two on a Jackson layup by the 5:04 mark, 65-63, to force a South Carolina timeout. Key then brought her team all the way back, knotting the score at 65 with a bucket in the paint at the 4:12 mark. Over the next two and a half minutes, the teams exchanged points, with Spear twice tying the game with pairs of free throws with 3:04 and 2:26 remaining. Jackson then gave the Big Orange their fourth tie, 71-71, with 1:33 on the board and lifted Tennessee into the lead, 73-71, with 24 seconds left. After UT fouled Fulwiley with a second left, USC inbounded the ball on the sideline on its end of the court. The pass triggered by Johnson ended up finding Cardoso at the top of the key, and her desperation shot left her hands before the buzzer sounded and found its target.

RALEIGH, N.C. – No. 6 seed Tennessee blew the game open in the second quarter vs. No. 11 seed Green Bay and cruised to a 92-63 victory in NCAA First Round play at Reynolds Coliseum.

The Lady Vols (20-12) scorched the nets with 70-percent field-goal marksmanship in the second frame and limited the Phoenix to 18.8 percent shooting, outscoring their foes, 21-7, during the period en route to a season-best 58.3-percent day of accuracy from the floor.

Fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson paced the UT attack with game highs of 26 points and nine rebounds, connecting on 10 of 14 field goal attempts and all six free-throw tries. Senior guard Jewel Spear, who exploded for 11 points in the second quarter, finished with 13, while junior forward Sara Puckett and senior guard/forward Tess Darby chipped in 14 and 11, respectively.

Green Bay (27-7), which hit 60 percent of its field goal tries in the opening 10 minutes before finishing at 37.9 percent, was led by Maddy Schreiber with 13 points.

Tennessee scored first on a hook in the paint by Puckett and pushed its lead to 6-4 at the 8:02 mark on a corner jumper by Jackson and a layup from Tamari Key. Green Bay fought back, grabbing a 12-6 edge on a Bailey Butler three with 6:38 to go in the opening period. Jackson, though, contributed a three-point play and scored off an alley-oop pass from Jasmine Powell to cut the deficit to 12-11 by the 5:53 mark. Following a Phoenix bucket, Puckett knotted the score at 14 with a three from the top of the key before GB moved back in front by the media timeout, 17-14, on a trey by Callie Genkie with 4:34 left. Darby knotted the score at 17 with 4:18 on the clock with a three ball, and the teams exchanged buckets over the rest of the quarter before a Darby put-back sent UT into the second quarter with a 23-21 lead.

After going scoreless in the first quarter, Spear made her presence known in the second, knocking down a three-pointer to lift her team to its biggest lead at 26-23 with 9:23 to go. She then followed with a jumper to make it 28-23 at the 8:24 mark. After a three by Green Bay's Cassie Schiltz trimmed the margin to 28-26 with 7:41 left in the half, Tennessee went on a 16-2 run over the remainder of the period. Spear added threes at the 6:24 and 5:06 marks to run her personal total to 11 points in the stanza and force a Phoenix timeout with UT leading, 38-28. Buckets by Puckett and Jackson and a pair of free throws by Jackson sent the Lady Vols into the locker room with a 44-28 lead on an 11-0 run, while its defense was stifling in holding GB scoreless over the final 5:50 of the half.

The Lady Vols extended their run to 12-0 and lead to 45-28 on a Key free throw at the 9:49 mark, but the Phoenix began to generate some offense and whittle the gap to 49-35 with 7:51 to go in the third. UT roared right back, however, getting a pair of baskets by Jackson and a three from Puckett to make it 55-35 with 7:06 remaining. After GB responded with a two from Jenna Guyer, Key scored inside, Puckett hit a fast-break layup and Jackson tallied off a rebound of her own missed shot and was fouled on the play to force a Green Bay timeout with 5:22 left. Right after the break, Jackson hit her free throw and pushed UT's lead to 25, 62-37. A Darby three gave her squad a 65-39 lead heading into the 4:42 media timeout. The squads exchanged buckets the rest of the period before Powell buried a mid-range jumper to close out the frame with UT clutching a 70-44 lead.

Tennessee scored the first six points of the final stanza on a Jackson three-point play, a Powell charity toss and a paint jumper by Jillian Hollingshead to run its lead to 76-44 by the 8:17 mark. Hollingshead later contributed an old-fashioned three-point play of her own, and Kaiya Wynn drained a transition jumper to build the Lady Vols' lead to a game-high 35 with 2:44 remaining, 91-56. Green Bay then closed its final contest of 2023-24 by outscoring the Big Orange 7-1 the rest of the way to account for UT's 29-point margin of victory.

RALEIGH, N.C. – No. 6 seed Tennessee erased all but two of a 20-point second-half deficit, but it came up just short in falling to No. 3 seed and 11th-ranked NC State, 79-72, in the NCAA Second Round at Reynolds Coliseum.

UT fell behind, 51-31, just moments into the second half, but it demonstrated resilience in trimming the gap to eight by the end of the third quarter. The Lady Vols eventually whittled the Wolfpack's lead to two, 65-63, with 4:16 to play before the hosts staved off what would have been a monumental comeback.

Fifth-year forward Rickea Jackson fired in a season-high 33 points and added 10 boards, while fifth-year guard Jasmine Powell tossed in 13 and redshirt senior center Tamari Key had 10 in their final game for the Big Orange (20-13).

NC State (29-6) was led by Aziaha James and Saniya Rivers with 22 and 20, respectively. while Zoe Brooks tallied 16 and River Baldwin added 11.

The Wolfpack jumped on top early, 4-0, before Jackson answered with a jumper at the 9:01 mark in the opening stanza to get her team on the scoreboard. NC State then pushed the lead to 8-4 before the Lady Vols reeled off three consecutive long balls from Jackson, Sara Puckett and Jackson again to surge ahead 13-10 with 6:46 remaining. Jackson tallied twice more before the media timeout, sending UT into the 4:51 break with a 17-14 advantage on her 11th and 12 points of the opening five minutes. The Big Orange built a six-point lead, 23-17, on a jumper by Jewel Spear, a fast-break layup by Kaiya Wynn and another Jackson jumper, but NCSU stormed back with seven straight points to seize a 24-23 lead after one.

NC State came out of the quarter break on a roll, building a seven-point lead by the 8:33 mark, on a Mimi Collins jumper, and an eight-point advantage, 33-25, with 7:22 left on a Rivers bucket. UT responded with a layup from Jillian Hollingshead and a jumper by Jackson to trim the gap to four, 33-29, with 6:30 on the clock. The Wolfpack reciprocated with scores by Rivers and James to ratchet the lead back up to eight, 37-29, and force a Lady Vol timeout with 5:20 to go in the second stanza. Tennessee managed just one additional bucket before the intermission, as Puckett's jumper brought the score to 39-31 with 3:16 to go. The home team, though, scored the next 10 points to close out the half with a 49-31 lead.

NCSU's cushion ballooned to 20 at the outset of the third quarter on a Collins layup with 9:22 to go, but UT fought back and trimmed the lead twice to 15. The second occasion came on a Spear jumper that sent the teams into a media timeout at the 4:55 mark with the Lady Vols trailing, 53-38. UT scored again with 3:55 on the clock via a Key layup to make the score 53-40. After a Rivers three-pointer pushed the deficit back to 16 at the 3:30 mark, the Big Orange kept the pressure on. A Jackson layup, followed by a pair of free throws from Jackson and six straight charity tosses from Powell, pulled their team within eight, 58-50, to end the period.

A Key layup drew the Lady Vols within six, 58-52, 43 seconds into the final frame. NC State twice clawed back ahead by nine with the second time coming on a Brooks fast-break layup with 6:43 remaining. Tennessee, though, remained resilient and hacked away at the lead, getting a free throw from Jackson at the 6:34 mark, back-to-back buckets from Jackson at 5:25 and 4:54 and a layup underneath with 4:16 to go from Key to close the deficit to two, 65-63, carrying into the 3:44 media timeout. The Wolfpack got consecutive scores from James to push its lead back to seven, 70-63, with 2:48 to go before Key cut it back to five with a bucket inside to make it 70-65 with 2:28 remaining. A Jackson layup on the break made it a four-point game, 76-72, with 42 ticks left, but UT could never get over the hump.

THE EARLY YEARS

The following is a list of all women known to have been a member of a University of Tennessee women's basketball team between 1903 and 1974. Years of participation refer to the end of that academic year, the conclusion of the season. This list, compiled from all available sources, is not assumed to be complete or even necessarily correct.

LADY VOL LEGENDS

Tennessee has recognized the careers of six supremely-gifted Lady Vols and a history-shattering coach with the hanging of jersey-banners from the rafters of Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center. The most recent individual added to the collection of Lady Vol legends came on Jan. 2, 2014, when a No. 3 banner honoring player Candace Parker was hoisted skyward.

Parker joined players Holly Warlick, Bridgette Gordon, Daedra Charles, Chamique Holdsclaw and Tamika Catchings, and coach Pat Summitt among those honored with a banner hanging in UT's basketball venue.

NO. 22 HOLLY WARLICK

Guard » 1976-80 » Knoxville, Tenn.

The first Tennessee athlete, either male or female, to have her jersey retired was Holly Warlick. Her uniform was retired on Feb. 18, 1980, in a ceremony after Tennessee's 89-72 win over Clemson in Stokely Athletics Center. A play-making wizard for the Lady Vols from 1976-80, Holly earned All-America honors three times. At the time of the ceremony, she held UT records for most assists in a game (14), most steals in a game (9), and most assists in a season (225).

Holly could not hang up her uniform right away. She played six more games after the retirement party. The final time she donned No. 22 was in the AIAW National Championship game when the Lady Vols fell to Old Dominion, 68-53.

During her years at Tennessee, the Lady Vols produced a 118-23 overall record, three trips to the Final Four and a first-ever SEC Tournament title. She later went on to become a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team.

NO. 30 BRIDGETTE GORDON

Forward » 1985-89 » DeLand, Fla.

Ten years later, the second Lady Vol basketball jersey was retired. Bridgette Gordon returned to Rocky Top after a stellar career at Tennessee to see her No. 30 honored during halftime of Tennessee's 76-70 win over Texas on Jan. 17, 1990.

Bridgette led the Lady Vols to a 115-21 record during her four years at UT. She was the driving force behind an NCAA-record four consecutive trips to the Final Four as well as two NCAA and two SEC Championships.

Bridgette was the first freshman ever to lead UT in scoring, and she earned co-SEC Rookie of the Year and All-SEC honors. The next year she led Tennessee to its first NCAA title, earned All-SEC honors again and was named to the All-Final Four team. She copped All-SEC honors and was named MVP of the SEC Tournament as a junior. She also earned her first of two Kodak All-America honors that year.

After earning a gold medal as a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic basketball team, Bridgette returned to Tennessee for her senior season. She led the Lady Vols to the 1989 NCAA title and was named MVP of the Final Four. She finished her career as the all-time leading scorer in NCAA Tournament history.

Bridgette graduated in 1989 with a B.S. in political science. She was basketball's nominee for the 1989 Honda-Broderick Award, which is symbolic for women's academic and athletic achievement. She later returned to Rocky Top to spend two seasons (2017-19) as an assistant coach for the Lady Vols.

NO. 32 DAEDRA CHARLES

Center » 1988-91 » Detroit, Mich.

When Tennessee hosted the SEC-Big 10 Challenge on Dec. 28, 1991, Daedra Charles became the next Lady Vol to have her jersey retired. Charles returned to Knoxville from Como, Italy, where she was playing professional basketball with former Lady Vol teammate Bridgette Gordon. Charles came to surprise Lady Vol head coach Pat Summitt by announcing the endowment of the Pat Head Summitt Scholarship, presented by Charles, Gordon and another former Lady Vol, Lisa McGill Reagan. Summitt, who was unaware of the endowment, had planned the retirement ceremony as a surprise for Charles.

A two-time Kodak All-American at Tennessee, Daedra was the 1991 SEC Female Athlete of the Year. She became the first player from the SEC to win the Wade Trophy, the highest honor in women's basketball. All this came after leading Tennessee to its third NCAA title in five years.

She finished her career seventh on the UT scoring list (1,495), sixth in rebounding (858) and second in shots blocked (95), despite missing her freshman season as a Prop 48 student. Still, Daedra graduated in four years, earning a bachelor's degree in child and family studies.

NO. 23 CHAMIQUE HOLDSCLAW

Forward » 1995-99 » Astoria, N.Y.

During halftime of the Lady Vols' 92-88 home triumph over archrival Connecticut on Feb. 1, 2001, the collegiate career of arguably the greatest women's player to ever play the game was officially closed when Chamique Holdsclaw became just the fourth Lady Vol to have her jersey retired.

The Naismith Player of the Century and one of only six four-time Kodak All-Americans in the history of women's basketball when her career concluded, Holdsclaw led the Orange and White to a 131-17 overall record and an unprecedented three consecutive national championships from 1996-98, while establishing herself as the program's all-time leader in scoring (3,025 points) and rebounding (1,295).

The NCAA Tournament's most outstanding player in 1997 and 1998, Holdsclaw still holds the record for most points (479 points), and held the mark for most rebounds (198 rebounds), tallied in tournament games until 2008.

The first two-time winner of the Associated Press Player of the Year Award, Holdsclaw garnered 34 individual awards during her career, including 21 player of the year honors from a variety of organizations. In 2006, Holdsclaw was named to the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team. She was previously named to the Kodak 25th Anniversary Team in 1999. She also played on the gold-medal winning 2000 U.S. Olympic Team and was named to the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2018.

Forward » 1997-01 » Duncanville, Texas

The fifth Lady Vol jersey to be retired belonged to Tamika Catchings in a halftime ceremony on Dec. 7, 2003, against Louisiana Tech. From the moment she stepped on the court in the number 24 orange and white jersey, we knew from her contagious smile that she was a special person, and from her deadly baseline-to-baseline hustling for all 40 minutes, a truly phenomenal player.

This special six-foot, one-inch forward had the heart of a champion and could play anywhere on the court. Her UT career was shortened during her senior year when she went crashing to the floor with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in game 17 versus Mississippi State.

Her list of awards was staggering, as she captured a slew of them while being tabbed as UT's second four-time Kodak All-American. What she accomplished in the span of her collegiate career is the stuff of legend. She played in 127 games as a Lady Vol. Her assault on the record books is legendary for both scoring (2,113 points) and rebounding (1,004 boards), with both marks ranking her third at UT at the conclusion of her career. She also finished her career second all-time in steals with 311 and blocked shots with 140. And remember, she missed half of her senior season.

Her teammates will tell you how special it was to earn a blue adidas headband after Catchings went out with the injury. Earning one meant they hustled like "Catch" would have. The Eleanor Roosevelt League for the Hard of Hearing honored her in 1998 – as a special role model for youngsters and adults with hearing impairments. Her UT academic counselors will relate stories about Catchings graduating ahead of her class in December 2000. People in the Knoxville community will tell you of the countless hours she put in with youths from all walks of life – from playgrounds to hospitals.

A WNBA All-Star for the Indiana Fever, Catchings added to her collection of accolades in the Summer of 2004 with a gold medal as a member of the USA Women's Basketball Team at the Athens Olympic Games. She also added gold medals at the 2008, 2012 and 2016 Olympiads as well and was enshrined into both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2021 after the COVID-19 health pandemic postponed Class of 2020 ceremonies for a year.

PAT SUMMITT

Head Coach » 1974-2012 » Henrietta, Tenn.

The sixth woman and first non-player to be honored with a banner was Pat Summitt, who coached Tennessee for 38 years and compiled a 1,098-208 career record with the most wins in NAACP women's or men's basketball history at the conclusion of her career. Summitt's banner was hoisted prior to a nationally-televised game vs. Notre Dame on Jan. 28, 2013.

The legendary Summitt directed Tennessee to eight NCAA National Championships, 31-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and 18 NCAA Final Fours. At the conference level, she led her squads to 16 SEC regular-season titles and 16 SEC tournament championships, including a tourney title in her final season at the helm in 2012.

During her career, Summitt produced 21 WBCA/Kodak/State Farm All-Americans, 39 All-SEC players, 12 Olympians and 34 WNBA draft picks, including 15 first-round selections. The number she was most proud of, however, was the 100-percent graduation rate for the 122 players who completed their careers and earned degrees at Tennessee under her watch.

Collecting an incredible array of honors during her career, Summitt was named SEC Coach of the Year eight times – 1993, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2007 and 2011. She was named the 1987, 1989, 1994, 1998 and 2004 Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year and WBCA/Converse Coach of the Year in 1983 and 1995 and the IKON/WBCA Coach of the Year in 1998.

Summitt belongs to the FIBA International, Naismith Memorial, Women's Basketball, Women's Sports Foundation, UT Athletics Tennessee Sports, Greater Knoxville Sports and National Association for Sports and Physical Education Hall of Fame. Her most esteemed honor, however, came on May 29, 2012, when she received the Presidential Medal of Freedom (presented by President Barack Obama) at the White House.

NO. 3 CANDACE PARKER

Guard/Forward/Center » 2004-08 » Naperville, Ill.

The seventh woman and sixth player to be honored with a jersey retirement ceremony at Food City Center was Candace Parker. The 6-foot-4 Parker's banner was unveiled on Jan. 2, 2014, prior to the Lady Vols' SEC opener vs. LSU.

During her three-year playing career, Parker led the Lady Vols to a pair of NCAA Championships in 2007 and 2008, to an SEC regular-season crown in 2007 and to SEC Tournament titles in 2006 and 2008. Tennessee posted a 101-10 overall record during her time at Rocky Top and a 38-4 mark in SEC play.

Parker started 109 of her 110 career games, scoring the third-most points in school history (2,137) and pulling down the sixth-best rebounding tally at 972 as of her career's end. She still ranks No. 3 in career double-doubles with 45 and stands tied for No. 2 in career rebounding average (8.8) and No. 4 in career scoring average (19.4).

Not the first player to dunk in the college game or even at Tennessee, Parker did make the dunk a more common occurrence in women's basketball. She was the first to dunk in an NCAA game, doing so twice vs. Army on March 19, 2006. She also set UT records for most dunks in a game (2), season (4) and career (7).

Because of her play, she has earned a plethora of awards. Among them, John R. Wooden and USBWA Player of the Year (2007, 2008), NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player (2007, 2008), WBCA All-American (2006, 2007, 2008), SEC Female Athlete of the Year (2008), SEC Player of the Year (2007), Coaches First-Team All-SEC (2006, 2007, 2008), CoSIDA Academic All-American (2007, 2008) and CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year (2008).

After helping Tennessee win the 2008 NCAA title in Tampa, Fla., Parker was chosen as the first pick of that spring's WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks, earning league MVP and rookie of the year honors. She also played a key role in the U.S. women winning a gold medal at the 2008 and 2012 Summer Olympics and has continued to escalate her stature in both the professional ranks and internationally.

LADY VOLS IN THE PROFESSIONAL RANKS

There have been a limited number of opportunities for women to play basketball in the professional ranks through the years. However, 66 Lady Vols have taken advantage of the opportunity to play past their collegiate days in overseas leagues and in the United States. In 2024, six #LVFL standouts were regular-season members of teams in the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA).

LADY VOLS IN THE WNBA DRAFT

The Lady Vol basketball program has produced 66 professional players over the years, including 53 alumnae who went on to play in the WNBA. Of those 53 who continued their careers at the professional level in the WNBA, 46 were selected on draft day and 21 were picked in the first round.

Rennia Davis (2021), Rae Burrell (2022), Jordan Horston (2023) and Rickea Jackson (2024) have given Tennessee first-round picks in the last four drafts. It marked the first time in school history that UT had players selected in the first round in four straight seasons. The previous high was three first-round picks in 2001 (Tamika Catchings), 2002 (Michelle Snow) and 2003 (Gwen Jackson, Kara Lawson), which was tied with the run from 2021-23. Tennessee is only the third school all-time to accomplish a four-year streak, joining UConn (2008-11, 2013-16) and Notre Dame (2012-15).

Tennessee has placed two or more players in the first round of the draft five times. The 2012 draft was the Lady Vols' best ever, as Shekinna Stricklen (2nd, Seattle), Glory Johnson (4th, Tulsa) and Kelley Cain (7th, New York) all went in the first round. Vicki Baugh was taken in the third round (25th overall pick) by Tulsa.

Candace Parker and Alexis Hornbuckle were taken in 2008. The Sparks chose Parker with the first overall pick. Hornbuckle followed closely behind as the Shock picked her up with the fourth selection.

Dena Head and Daedra Charles were selected first and eighth respectively in the 1997 Elite Draft. Lady Vols doubled up again in 1999, with Chamique Holdsclaw going first to the Mystics and Tonya Edwards going seventh to the Lynx. Kara Lawson and Gwen Jackson were taken with back-to-back picks in 2003, with Lawson going fifth to the Shock and Jackson going sixth to the Fever.

HISTORIC TIMELINE FOR LADY VOL BASKETBALL

April 30 (1974) – As a senior at the University of Tennessee-Martin, Pat Summitt is sent a letter asking her to become a physical education teacher and head women's basketball coach at UT. Summitt, then known as Pat Head, received it in the mail and accepted the job at age 22.

Dec. 7 (1974) – Pat Summitt coached the first of her 1,306 games at Tennessee, with her squad dropping a nail-biter to Mercer, 84-83, at Alumni Gym

Jan. 10 (1975) – Pat Summitt picked up her first win as Tennessee's head coach, 69-32, over Middle Tennessee State in front of 53 fans at Alumni Gym.

Nov. 13 (1976) – In her debut game as a Lady Vol, senior Patricia "Trish" Roberts fired in 51 points (and made it a double-double with 20 rebounds) to lead Tennessee to a season-opening 107-53 victory over Kentucky. That single-game scoring total still stands as the school record through the 2019-20 season and matches the UT men's record of 51 held by Tony White.

Feb. 19 (1977) – Senior Patricia "Trish" Roberts pulled down 24 rebounds vs. Anderson to set the Lady Vol record for a single game. That marks still stands through the 2019-20 season.

March 26 (1977) – The Lady Vols defeated Immaculata, 91-71, in Minneapolis to finish 28-5 overall and take third in their initial appearance in the AIAW Championships Tournament.

Feb. 10 (1980) – Fifth-ranked Tennessee won the first-ever SEC Tournament for women's basketball, defeating Ole Miss, 85-71, at Stokely Athletics Center.

Feb. 18 (1980) – The first Tennessee athlete, male or female, to have her jersey retired by the University of Tennessee was Knoxville native Holly Warlick (1976-80), who was honored after the final home regular season game of her career vs. Clemson. Warlick, whose No. 22 now hangs from the rafters of Thompson-Boling Arena, would later serve as an assistant coach and associate head coach for Pat Summitt (1985-2012) and follow her coach, friend and mentor as the Lady Vol skipper from 2012-19.

March 23 (1980) – UT, which finished third in two previous trips to the AIAW Final Four, played in its first AIAW National Championship game, falling to Old Dominion, 68-53, in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.

March 29 (1981) – The Lady Vols made a return to the title game of the AIAW Final Four, finishing as runner-up for the second year in a row with a 79-59 loss to Louisiana Tech. It marked UT's last appearance in an AIAW postseason event with the first edition of the NCAA Tournament coming in 1982.

March 26 (1982) – Tennessee played in the inaugural NCAA Final Four for women, falling, 69-46, to Louisiana Tech in the semifinal round.

Aug. 7 (1984) – Serving as the head coach of the U.S. Olympic Team and assisted by UT aide Nancy Darsch, Pat Summitt guided the American women to their first-ever gold medal with an 85-55 victory over South Korea in Los Angeles. Summitt was carried off the Inglewood Forum floor by her players, including Lady Vols Lea Henry and Cindy Noble.

April 1 (1984) – In their second trip to the NCAA Final Four, the Lady Vols advanced to their first championship game before falling to Southern California at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles, 72-61.

Feb. 17 (1985) – The Lady Vols began a streak of 565 consecutive weeks in the Associated Press Top 25, stretching until Feb. 22, 2016. During that 31-year run, the Lady Vols had been ranked No. 1 103 times. They were in the top five for 407 weeks and in the top 10 506 times.

March 3 (1985) – Tennessee beat Auburn, 63-60, in Oxford, Mississippi, to capture the SEC Tournament Championship (UT's second) and provide the Lady Vols with their first-ever season sweep of league hardware after previously claiming their initial regular season title in 1985 as well.

Jan. 4, (1987) – Career victory number 300 came Pat Summitt's way, thanks to an 87-68 home triumph over North Carolina.

March 29 (1987) – Tennessee got 13 points each from sophomores Bridgette Gordon and Sheila Frost as well as freshman Final Four Most Outstanding Player Tonya Edwards to roll past Louisiana Tech, 67-44, in Austin, Texas, and claim the school's first NCAA title in women's basketball in its fourth trip to the NCAA Final Four and eighth overall Final Four trip including AIAW tournaments.

HISTORIC TIMELINE FOR LADY VOL BASKETBALL

Dec. 3 (1987) – The Lady Vols played their first-ever game in brand-new Thompson-Boling Arena, racing to a 102-59 victory over Stetson. A men's game followed, with the Vols beating Marquette, 82-56.

Dec. 9 (1987) – The Lady Vols set a world record for women's basketball attendance, as a crowd of 24,563 attended a contest between No. 1 Tennessee and No. 2 Texas that the Longhorns won, 97-78.

March 6 (1988) – Senior Dawn Marsh dished out 18 assists to set the Lady Vol single-game record in an 82-76 SEC Tournament semifinal round victory over Georgia in Albany, Ga.

April 2 (1989) – Most Outstanding Player Bridgette Gordon fired in a title game record-tying 27 points and pulled down 10 rebounds, as the Lady Vols beat SEC foe Auburn, 76-60, in Tacoma, Washington, to claim their second NCAA title in three seasons.

Jan. 17 (1990) – Two-time WBCA All-American and 1988 U.S. Olympic gold medalist Bridgette Gordon (1985-89) became the second Lady Vol to be honored with a banner in Thompson-Boling Arena when her No. 30 was raised to the rafters. She would later serve as assistant coach at UT from 2017-19.

Jan. 25 (1990) – A 70-69 road victory at South Carolina gave Pat Summitt her 400th career win.

Feb. 2 (1991) – The Lady Vol beat Tennessee Tech, 94-67, at Thompson-Boling Arena to record the first victory in what would become a program-best 69-game home-court winning streak. That spree was the longest in NCAA women's history at the time.

March 31 (1991) – After Virginia eliminated UT from the 1990 NCAA Tournament and prevented the Lady Vols from playing in a Final Four hosted at Thompson-Boling Arena in Knoxville, Tennessee exacted revenge in the 1991 Final Four in New Orleans. Junior Dena Head scored a championship game-record 28 points to help the Big Orange take down guard Dawn Staley and the Cavaliers, 70-67, in the first-ever NCAA Women's Final Four overtime game for the Big Orange's third crown in five seasons.

Dec. 28 (1991) – While Tennessee hosted the SEC-Big 10 Challenge, Daedra Charles (1988-91) returned to Knoxville thinking she'd be joining other teammates in surprising Pat Summitt with a scholarship in the coach's name. Summitt had a surprise, too, retiring the two-time All-American and 1991 Wade Trophy winner's No. 32 jersey and making her the third Lady Vol to be so honored.

Nov. 21 (1993) – Pat Summitt celebrated victory number 500 after the Lady Vols ran past Ohio State, 80-45, at the inaugural State Farm Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Classic in Jackson, Tennessee. OSU was coached by former Summitt assistant Nancy Darsch, who was at UT from 1978-85 and was on Summitt's 1984 Olympic staff.

Jan. 16 (1995) – Pat Summitt agreed to add up-and-coming program UConn to the schedule and played the first game in the series at the Huskies' Gampel Pavilion in Storrs. The second-ranked hosts claimed the first-ever meeting with No. 1 UT, 77-66.

March 29 (1996) – Tennessee picked up its first victory over UConn in four tries, defeating the Huskies at the 1996 Final Four in Charlotte, 88-83 in overtime, to advance to the title game.

March 31 (1996) – After going without an NCAA title for four seasons, Tennessee reclaimed its throne in Charlotte, N.C., beating UConn in the semifinals and cruising past Georgia in the championship game, 83-65, with senior guard Michelle Marciniak earning Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors.

Nov. 23 (1996) – Career triumph No. 600 for Pat Summitt came vs. Marquette via an 83-68 blowout at the Howard Bank Classic in Burlington, Vermont. Howard Dean (then Vermont governor) was on hand to present a congratulatory cake to Summitt after the game.

March 15 (1997) – With a 91-54 victory over Grambling during the NCAA First Round in Knoxville, the Lady Vols both launched their improbable six-game run to the 1997 NCAA Championship and won the first of what would become a 46-contest string of victories that lasted until No. 5 Purdue upset No. 1 Tennessee, 78-68, in West Lafayette, Ind., on Nov. 15, 1998.

March 30 (1997) – The Lady Vols overcame a 10-loss season and won their first back-to-back NCAA titles, capturing the 1997 trophy with a 68-59 victory over Old Dominion in Cincinnati, thanks to a 24-point title-game effort from Final Four Most Outstanding Player Chamique Holdsclaw and a Final Four-record 20 assists in two games (title-game best 11 vs. ODU) from Kellie Jolly.

Nov. 23 (1997) – UT Martin names its basketball playing surface Pat Summitt Court after its former star.

HISTORIC TIMELINE FOR LADY VOL BASKETBALL

Jan. 3 (1998) – The Lady Vols set a (then) NCAA record for on-campus attendance at a women's basketball game, drawing 24,597 to watch an 84-69 victory by No. 1 UT over No. 3 UConn.

Feb. 7 (1998) – The first advance sellout in Lady Vol basketball history is announced, and 24,373 are on hand to witness No. 1 UT blow out No. 3 Old Dominion, 85-61.

March 29 (1998) – Tennessee pulled off the first-ever 39-0 season and championship three-peat in NCAA women's basketball history, cruising past Louisiana Tech, 93-75, in Kansas City, Missouri, to claim the program's sixth all-time national title. Tamika Catching (27), Chamique Holdsclaw (25) and Kellie Jolly (20) led the way for the Big Orange, as UT put up a Final Four-record 55 points in the first half to build a 23-point lead at the intermission.

Dec. 5 (1999) – Win number 700 of Pat Summitt's career occurs, as the Lady Vols win at Wisconsin, 85-62, enabling Summitt to join Jody Conradt of Texas as the only women's coaches at the time with 700 career victories.

May 4 (1999) – Four-time All-American Chamique Holdsclaw was taken as the No. 1 pick in the WNBA Draft, going to the Washington Mystics.

June 5 (1999) – Pat Summitt was inducted with the inaugural class into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Knoxville.

Oct. 13 (2000) – Pat Summitt was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts, gaining entrance the first time she was on the ballot.

Nov. 25 (2000) – Tennessee junior Michelle Snow executed the first dunk by a woman captured on live TV, when she threw one down with both hands and hung on the rim briefly in UT's 111-62 victory over Illinois at the Women's Maui Invitational.

Feb. 1 (2001) – Chamique Holdsclaw (1995-99) became the fourth Lady Vol to have her jersey retired, with her No. 23 jersey being hoisted skyward in Thompson-Boling Arena at halftime of a marquee showdown vs. UConn. Through the 2019-20 season, Holdsclaw remains the all-time scoring (3,025) and rebounding (1,295) leader in UT women's history.

Jan. 5 (2002) – Tennessee and UConn reset the (then) NCAA on-campus attendance bar once again, as 24,611 packed Thompson-Boling Arena to watch the No. 1 Huskies hold off the No. 2 Lady Vols, 86-72.

Jan 17 (2002) – Senior Michelle Snow dunked during an 80-61 win at South Carolina, becoming the first woman to dunk three times in a college career.

March 29 (2002) – Tennessee and UConn played in front of the largest crowd to ever see an NCAA women's basketball game, with the Huskies taking a 79-56 Final Four semifinal game victory in front of 29,619 at the Alamodome in San Antonio.

Jan. 14 (2003) – Pat Summitt racked up career win No. 800 with a 76-57 home victory over DePaul and was celebrated postgame with fireworks, balloons and flowers.

Feb. 29 (2004) – Tennessee closed out the 2003-04 season by beating LSU, 85-62, to go 14-0 in SEC play. In doing so, the Lady Vols claimed their league-record seventh straight SEC regular season trophy. UT had an incredible 95-3 record in conference games during that run, beginning that dominance during the 1997-98 season.

March 4 (2005) – Pat Summitt tied Adolph Rupp of Kentucky for second place in all-time wins by an NCAA women's or men's coach (876), as Tennessee defeated Auburn, 64-54, in the SEC Tournament quarterfinals at Greenville, South Carolina.

March 20 (2005) – Tennessee's 94-43 win over Western Carolina in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Knoxville allowed Pat Summitt to tie Dean Smith for first on the all-time win list among NCAA men's or women's coaches at 879.

March 22 (2005) – UT defeated Purdue, 75-54, in the NCAA Second Round in Knoxville, pushing Pat Summitt past North Carolina men's coach Dean Smith to become the NCAA's all-time winningest coach with 880 career victories. The UT administration surprised her during a postgame ceremony by announcing the Thompson-Boling Arena court would be named "The Summitt."

Jan. 7 (2006) – The Lady Vols hosted UConn in a No. 1 vs. No. 7 match-up, and Tennessee walked away with an 89-80 victory with a new NCAA record on-campus crowd of 24,653 looking on. That record still stands today.

HISTORIC TIMELINE FOR LADY VOL BASKETBALL

March 19 (2006) – Redshirt freshman Candace Parker became the first woman to dunk in an NCAA Tournament game and the first to record two dunks in the same game, throwing one down in each half of UT's 102-54 victory over Army in the NCAA First Round at Norfolk, Virginia.

May 22 (2006) – Pat Summitt became the first college women's basketball coach to earn a one-million-dollar salary. The six-year deal was scheduled to increase to 1.125 million in 2006-07 and to 1.5 million in 2011-12.

Nov. 12 (2006) – Redshirt sophomore Candace Parker became the first woman to dunk at Thompson-Boling Arena, firing up the home crowd during a 102-72 runaway over Chattanooga. She went on to become the first woman to tally three slams in a single season.

April 3 (2007) – Picking up its first NCAA title since 1998, the Lady Vols toppled Rutgers, 59-46, in Cleveland, Ohio, for UT's seventh national championship. Redshirt sophomore Candace Parker was named Most Outstanding Player after leading Tennessee with 17 points in the finale.

Feb. 3 (2008) – Candace Parker executed the seventh and final dunk of her career, sending one home in the second half of a 79-51 home romp over Kentucky. Through the 2019-20 season, Parker still possesses the school records for single game (2), season (3) and career (7) dunks.

April 8 (2008) – Tennessee claimed its eighth, and Pat Summitt's final, NCAA National Championship, with redshirt junior Candace Parker repeating as Final Four Most Outstanding Player as the Lady Vols claimed back-to-back titles with a 64-48 victory over Stanford in Tampa, Florida

April 9 (2008) – Three-time All-American Candace Parker was taken as the No. 1 pick in the WNBA Draft, going to the Los Angeles Sparks. The rest of UT's 2008 NCAA Championship team starting five [Alexis Hornbuckle (1st Rd./4th), Shannon Bobbitt (2nd Rd./15th), Nicky Anosike (2nd Rd./16th), Alberta Auguste (3rd Rd./35th)] also was selected in the draft, marking the first occasion and one of only two times that has occurred (Notre Dame, 2019).

Oct. 3 (2008) – Candace Parker became the first-ever winner of WNBA MVP and Rookie of the Year honors in the same season. Her 2008 year also included capturing an NCAA Championship at Tennessee, being taken as the WNBA's No. 1 draft pick and winning a gold medal with the U.S. Olympic Team.

Feb. 5 (2009) – Pat Summitt became the first woman or man to win 1,000 games in NCAA basketball, as Tennessee rolled past Georgia with a 73-43 home victory.

Feb. 22 (2009) – Tennessee's second-longest home-court winning streak began on this day, as the Lady Vols started a 38-game spree with an 82-68 victory over Mississippi State at Thompson-Boling Arena. UT did not lose again on The Summitt until Nov. 27, 2011, in a 76-67 defeat at the hands of No. 1 Baylor.

Dec. 28 (2009) – In the first-ever women's outdoor NCAA Division I basketball game, No. 2 Tennessee held off host Arizona State, 67-63, in front of 16,782 fans on a cool desert night at the home of Major League Baseball's Arizona Diamondbacks, Bank One Ballpark, in Phoenix.

Feb. 22 (2010) – Redshirt sophomore Kelley Cain blocked a UT record 12 shots in a 70-61 home win over LSU. She would go on to card 113 rejections for the season, also a school record.

Dec. 19 (2010) – The Lady Vols beat Stanford in overtime, 82-72, in Knoxville, beginning a program-best 25-game winning streak that would not end until March 28, 2011, with a 73-59 loss to Notre Dame in the Dayton Regional Final.

Aug. 23 (2011) – At the age of 59, Pat Summitt announced that she had been diagnosed with early-onset dementia, Alzheimer's type. Bravely, she continued on as head coach for the 2011-12 season, which would be her last as leader of UT women's hoops.

Sept. 22 (2011) – Tamika Catchings became the second Lady Vol alum to win WNBA MVP honors, earning the award after finishing second in balloting in 2003, 2009 and 2010.

Nov. 27 (2011) – At halftime of a home game vs. Baylor, Pat Summitt and her son, Tyler, announced the formation of the Pat Summitt Foundation.

Feb. 26 (2012) – Tennessee is victorious in what many felt would be Pat Summitt's final game on the court that bears her name. Her Lady Vols took care of Florida on senior day, 75-59, with a season-best crowd of 18,563 on hand to run the year's per-game average to 14,414.

March 4 (2012) – In her final conference tourney as head coach, Pat Summitt's Lady Vols captured an emotionally-charged SEC Tournament crown in Nashville, defeating LSU by a 70-58 count for Summitt's 16th SEC postseason trophy. The legendary coach cut down a championship net for the final time.

March 24 (2012) – Sophomore Meighan Simmons scored 22 points, and UT came from 14 points down, as Pat Summitt secured what would be the final victory of her career in an 84-73 triumph over Kansas in the Des Moines Regional Semifinal.

April 16 (2012) – Tennessee had three players selected within the top 10 picks of the WNBA Draft, as Shekinna Stricklen went at No. 2 to the Seattle Storm (from Chicago), Glory Johnson went at No. 4 to the Tulsa Shock and Kelley Cain went at No. 7 to the New York Liberty.

April 18 (2012) – Pat Summitt, who had announced a diagnosis of early-onset dementia, Alzheimer's type on Aug. 23, 2011, stepped down as head coach of the Lady Vols, finishing with a career record of 1,098-208 (.840), with eight NCAA championships, a combined 32 SEC crowns (16 regular season/16 tournament) and a 100 percent graduation rate for players who completed their eligibility at UT.

April 19 (2012) – After playing at Tennessee (1976-80) and serving as an assistant and later associate head coach at UT from 1985 to 2012, Holly Warlick was introduced at a gathering at Thompson-Boling Arena as the successor to Pat Summitt, who moved to a role as head coach emeritus.

May 29 (2012) – In a ceremony at the White House, Pat Summitt was presented the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Barack Obama.

Jan. 28 (2013) – Prior to a game vs. Notre Dame, head coach emeritus Pat Summitt became the sixth person and first non-player associated with the Lady Vol program to be honored with a banner at Thompson-Boling Arena. With great honor and distinction, she led the Lady Vols for 38 seasons from 1974-2012.

Feb. 28 (2013) – Tennessee, under first-year head coach Holly Warlick, defeated Texas A&M, 82-72, on The Summitt to clinch its first SEC regular season title with someone other than Pat Summitt at the helm.

June 19 (2013) – Pat Summitt was inducted into the FIBA Basketball Hall of Fame.

Sept. 19 (2013) – Lady Vol alum Candace Parker won her second WNBA MVP award, becoming just the fifth player to earn that distinction on more than one occasion.

Nov. 2 (2013) – Pat Summitt was inducted into the University of Tennessee Athletics (then Lady Vol) Hall of Fame.

Nov. 22 (2013) – The Pat Summitt Plaza and Statue (created by renowned sculptor David Adickes of Houston, Texas) were dedicated at the corner of Lake Loudoun Blvd. and Phillip Fulmer Way.

Jan. 2 (2014) – The sixth Lady Vol and seventh woman affiliated with the UT program to have her jersey retired, three-time All-American and two-time Olympic gold medalist Candace Parker (2004-08) saw her No. 3 banner raised to the rafters prior to Tennessee's SEC opener vs. LSU.

March 9 (2014) – The Lady Vols claimed their 17th all-time SEC Tournament title, edging Kentucky, 71-70, in Duluth, Georgia.

March 1 (2015) – Tennessee beat Vanderbilt, 79-49, in the regular-season finale to finish 15-1 in league play and capture its 18th SEC championship.

June 28 (2016) – Pat Summitt, legendary Lady Vol basketball coach, mentor and mother-figure to her players; a revered ambassador for her university and state; a trailblazer for women; and a role model for people all over the world, passed away in Knoxville at the age of 64. She had announced a diagnosis of early-onset dementia, Alzheimer's type, on Aug. 23, 2011.

Aug. 20 (2016) – Tamika Catchings became the first Lady Vol alum and one of only five American women to win four Olympic gold medals in basketball, helping the U.S. beat Spain, 101-72, in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

March 27 (2019) – After seven seasons at the helm of the Lady Vol program, during which she produced a 172-67 record (.720) with seven NCAA Tournament appearances, two SEC regular titles and an SEC tourney crown, the Holly Warlick era came to an end after UT finished 19-13 and lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

April 9 (2019) – LVFL (1995-99) and Pat Summitt protégé Kellie Harper (previously at Missouri State) was announced as the third Lady Vol head coach in the history of women's intercollegiate athletics at Tennessee.

Jan. 20 (2020) – Tennessee picked up its 400th all-time SEC regular season win and Kellie Harper won the 300th game of her career, as Rennia Davis hit a long-range, buzzer-beating three-pointer to lift UT past Alabama, 65-63, at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Jan. 23 (2020) – After not meeting since Jan. 6, 2007, Tennessee and UConn renewed their rivalry for a worthwhile cause, playing at the XL Center in Hartford, Connecticut, with proceeds from the game going to the Pat Summitt Foundation and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. With a home crowd of 13,659 behind them, the Huskies won the contest, 60-45, to halt a three-game UT winning streak in the series.

March 12 (2020) – Due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) global health crisis, the NCAA announced the 2020 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and all other collegiate athletic events remaining that spring were canceled.

May 15 (2021) – Tamika Catchings became the first Lady Vol player inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, going in with childhood friend the late Kobe Bryant in the Class of 2020 (ceremony delayed a year due to COVID-19).

April 29 (2023) – Carolyn Peck, who served as an assistant coach at UT from 1993-95, was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame.

August 12 (2023) – Cindy Brogdon, Patricia Roberts and Pat (Head) Summitt were inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame as members of the 1976 U.S. Olympic Women's Team. That squad claimed a silver medal in the women's game's first competition held at the Olympic Games. Summitt, who played collegiately at UT Martin, was the Lady Vols' head coach at the time she played in that contest.

August 23 (2023) – Tennessee Athletics announced a 10-year naming-rights agreement in excess of 20 million dollars with longtime corporate partner Food City that rebrands UT's on-campus arena as Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center.

April 1 (2024) – After five years of leading the UT women's program, during which she produced a 108-52 record (.675) with four NCAA Tournament appearances and a school-best four consective first-round WNBA Draft picks from 2021-24, the Kellie Harper era came to an end after UT finished 20-13 and lost in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

April 7 (2024) – Kim Caldwell was announced by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White (pictured below) as the fourth leader of the Lady Volunteers during the NCAA era, becoming the first person outside the Pat Summitt coaching tree to take the reins of the program following a 50-year run that started with the legendary coach in 1974-75.

FACILITIES

THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA AT FOOD CITY CENTER

Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center is the third largest on-campus basketball arena in the country and a very tough place for visitors to win. The Lady Vols own a 519-60 (.896) record at the facility through 37 years entering the 2024-25 season.

The venue, located along the Tennessee River and named for B. Ray Thompson and retired UT President Edward J. Boling, debuted during the 1987-88 season. On Aug. 23, 2023, corporate partner Food City added its name via a 10-year rights agreement. The building is 448 feet long and 310 feet wide. It contains more than 411,000 square feet of floor space and more than 17 million cubic feet overall.

Following renovations in 2007, the facility has an official seating capacity of 21,678. As part of a $19 million renovation of the arena prior to the 2007-08 season, 32 luxury suites were added to the existing north balcony along with a loge area just below the suites that includes 166 side court seats. A $3 million center-hung scoreboard, new black seats and several concourse refurbishments also were part of the renovation. The distance from the playing floor to the roof is 120 feet, the equivalent of a 12-story building. The structure contains 142,000 square feet of roof area, which is approximately three and one-quarter acres.

The enormous facility houses the Tennessee women's and men's basketball offices. The UT Ticket Office is located on the Phillip Fulmer Way level on the west end of the building. A continuous-ring concourse encircles the building, permitting entrance to eight restrooms, six concession areas and 32 portals that lead to the arena. The playing floor level provides access to the media room and storage areas as well as the very impressive Larry Pratt Basketball Locker Room Complex and the visitor dressing rooms, constructed from 2017 to 2018.

Since the building opened on Dec. 3, 1987 (the Lady Vols beat Stetson, 102-59), UT women's basketball has enjoyed a number of lengthy home winning streaks. On Dec. 28, 2003, Texas snapped a 24-game run that dated back to the 2001-02 season. A previous streak of 26 consecutive wins in the home confines ended on Jan. 5, 2002, with an 86-72 loss to Connecticut. The Lady Vols broke the NCAA homecourt winning streak record with 69 consecutive victories before Connecticut spoiled the streak with a 59-53 win in game number 70 on Jan. 6, 1996. Tennessee claimed 64 straight home SEC victories before third-ranked LSU snapped the streak with a 72-69 victory – its first ever in Knoxville – on Feb. 9, 2006. The Lady Vols took a 36-game home winning streak into the 2011-12 season before Baylor snapped it at 38 on Nov. 27. 2011.

UT won all 18 contests in Knoxville in 2014-15, setting a school and arena record for most home wins in a season and best record in a season. Coupled with winning its last four home games of the 2013-14 season and the first five in 2015-16, UT strung together 27-consecutive victories before falling to Texas on Nov. 29, 2015.

basketball, as 16,565 spectators per game clicked through the turnstiles. In all, 231,915 fans viewed home games in Knoxville. During the 1997-98 season, Tennessee set several collegiate attendance records. On Jan. 3, 1998, the Lady Vols entertained a new women's collegiate record 24,597 fans for the game with Connecticut. A month later, the first advance sell-out in UT women's basketball history occurred when the Lady Vols were set to meet Old Dominion in Knoxville. For the record, 24,373 fans attended the UT-ODU game.

The all-time attendance mark was reset during the 2001-02 season when 24,611 fans visited the arena for a #1/#2 clash between UT and Connecticut. It was again reset on Jan. 7, 2006, when the Huskies came to Knoxville in front of 24,653 spectators. The women's basketball attendance mark was established at the 2002 NCAA Final Four when 29,619 people filled the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas, for the championship game.

The Lady Vols started the record-breaking trend in women's collegiate basketball attendance in 1987. That season, the Lady Vols broke the (then) world record for single game attendance at a women's basketball game with 24,563 at the Tennessee versus Texas game on Dec. 9, 1987. Three years later, UT established new NCAA Women's Final Four attendance marks on March 30 and April 1, 1990, with a total paid attendance of 39,490 for the three-game event. The turnstile count of 34,196 (17,601 semis/16,595 finals) also broke all other attendance marks.

In 2013-14, UT led the NCAA in attendance for the 11th-straight season and the 17th time in the last 18 years. The Lady Vols have finished a season No. 1 in average attendance 19 times overall.

STOKELY ATHLETICS CENTER

Stokely Athletics Center was home to the Lady Volunteer basketball team from 1976-87. The facility, which still housed UT Athletics offices long after its days of hosting games, was closed for good in December 2012 and demolished during the summer of 2014.

The Stokely Arena, which was encircled by a four-lane Tartan indoor track, seated 12,700, while the building housed the former men's and women's athletics department offices. The building was originally called the UT Armory Field House in 1958 and seated just more than 7,000 spectators. Through the generosity of the late William B. Stokely, Jr., further construction was completed and on Dec. 1, 1966, the facility was renamed to honor the Stokely family.

In 1986, Stokely took on a new look as a wood playing surface replaced the old tartan court. The Horner "Pro King" hardwood was painted with the traditional outline of the state of Tennessee in the center of the floor and the familiar end line markings. The court was special-made for the University by the same manufacturer who supplied the basketball court to the Forum for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games.

Stokely Athletics Center was the site of some historic games for the Lady Vols. The first women's contest played in SAC pitted Tennessee versus Kentucky on Nov. 13, 1976. The Lady Vols not only trounced the Lady Kats, 107-53, but UT's Patricia Roberts tossed in a Field House record 51 points. That mark stands as the Lady Vol record to this day.

Along the way, Tennessee hosted the great gold medalist USSR Olympic Team in 1979, the USA All-Star team in 1979 and the first Southeastern Conference Championships in 1980.

The last Lady Vol game in Stokely, before moving to Thompson-Boling Arena, was a 77-61 win over Auburn in the finals of the NCAA Mideast Regionals on March 21, 1987. A week later, the Lady Vols returned to Stokely to celebrate UT's first NCAA basketball title with thousands of fans in attendance.

Although no formal attendance figures were kept prior to 1982, Tennessee most-assuredly was among the nation's elite in fan support.

ALUMNI GYM

Constructed in the 1930's, Alumni Gym was the first real home to the inaugural Lady Vol team in 1974, which was coached by Pat Summitt. The court in the tiny arena (seating 3,000) was the centerpiece of an encircling tri-balcony seating arrangement.

PRATT PAVILION

In October 2006, Tennessee Athletics had a groundbreaking ceremony to officially recognize construction on the Pratt Pavilion, the state-of-the-art basketball practice facility named in UT alumnus Larry F. Pratt's honor for his $5 million lead gift to the basketball programs. The Pratt Pavilion, which opened in the fall of 2007, houses two full-size gymnasiums, one each for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as space for an athletic training room, weight room, film study room and a recruiting lounge.

Directly connected to Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center, Pratt Pavilion has convenient ground level parking. The 70,000-square-foot structure has four short courts within each of the two full-size courts. The facility is equipped with secured practice facilities, spacious locker rooms and recruiting rooms as well. Balconies at the south side of the building overlook the practice courts.

Pratt Pavilion had a total project cost of $16 million, funded entirely through private gifts. Lead donor Pratt's commitment in April 2006, coupled with leadership gifts from other campaign donors, including Jim Haslam, Brenda Lawson and Robbie Nutt, enabled UT to move forward with the project.

This was not Pratt's first donation. In the 1990s he honored his father Floyd by creating an endowed scholarship in his name as a member of the Nathan Dougherty Society. He also was recognized at the Tennessee vs. Georgia football game in 2003 for a $1 million donation to the STEP-UP Campaign. Pratt, an Athens, Tenn., native, currently resides in McLean, Va. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1972 from the UT College of Business and serves as president and CEO of First Savings Mortgage Corporation, the largest private mortgage banker in Washington D.C.

THE FEW. THE PROUD. THE NCAA CHAMPIONS.

The few. The proud. The NCAA Champions. During Pat Head Summitt's tenure as head coach (1974-2012), only 161 women were selected to wear the Orange and White of the University of Tennessee Lady Volunteers.

Fifty-eight players of 161 (through the 2011-12 season) earned the distinction of being an "NCAA Champion" during their playing days at the University of Tennessee. That's practically 40 percent! And that is truly remarkable. Additionally, forty percent of the 58 players brought home two or more titles.

A total of 12 coaches helped to bring the eight titles to the Knoxville campus. The common denominator of the eight championships with coach Summitt was (then) associate head coach Holly Warlick. In her first tenure with the Lady Vols, Mickie DeMoss claimed six rings (1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997 and 1998). Former assistants Al Brown (1996, 1997 and 1998) and Nikki Caldwell (2007, 2008) are the only former aides with numerous titles. Current assistant Dean Lockwood picked up his first national titles as a Lady Vol coach in 2007 and 2008. Seven graduate assistant coaches had the opportunity to experience one title each.

NCAA STATS /// MISCELLANEOUS NCAA ACCOMPLISHMENTS

■ Tennessee has played in the most NCAA tourney games (165).

■ UT has the second-most NCAA Tournament wins (131) and is second in tourney winning percentage (.794).

■ The Lady Vols are the only team to appear in all 42 NCAA Tournaments.

■ Six Lady Vols have been the tournament's leading scorer on eight occasions -- Mary Ostrowski (1984), Bridgette Gordon (1987, 1989), Dana Johnson (1995), Chamique Holdsclaw (1997, 1998), Tamika Catchings (2000) and Candace Parker (2007).

■ UT's Chamique Holdsclaw (1996-99) is the NCAA's second-leading all-time tournament scorer with 479 points in 22 NCAA contests, surpassed only by Iowa's Caitlin Clark (492, 17 games, 2021-24).

■ Seven Lady Vols have been the tournament's leading rebounder -- Mary Ostrowski (1984), Sheila Frost (1987), Daedra Charles (1991), Chamique Holdsclaw (1998), Tamika Catchings (2000), Gwen Jackson (2003) and Candace Parker (2007).

■ Tennessee has twice come from 17 points down to win NCAA Tournament games, doing so most recently on March 28, 2015, vs. Gonzaga in Spokane, Wash. The Lady Vols trailed the Bulldogs, 57-40, with 6:34 to play before rallying to force overtime and prevail, 73-69, after an extra five minutes of play.

■ Prior to that epic comeback vs. Gonzaga, Tennessee trailed Virginia by 17 in Charlottesville, 31-14, with 17:06 remaining before rallying to take a 52-46 victory over the Cavaliers in the Elite Eight on March 25, 1996.

1987 National Champions

Tennessee may have failed in its first bid at the NCAA national championship in 1984, but the second time was the charm for the Lady Vols. Tennessee thumped Louisiana Tech, which was vying for its second title, 67-44.

"Well, the monkey's off my back," head coach Pat Summitt said. "I do not think I could go without recognizing that it was a tremendous team effort...has been for the last three weeks. This team has played as hard and as smart as I could ask any team to play."

The Lady Vols built a 33-24 halftime edge and never looked back. Seven minutes into the second half, Tennessee had increased its lead to 14, 47-33, and the rest was history as Tennessee took its first NCAA title.

Tennessee attempted 19 more field goals and grabbed 11 more rebounds than the Lady Techsters. A championship-game record crowd of 9,823 watched Tonya Edwards net 13 points and grab seven rebounds en route to most outstanding player honors. Two additional Lady Vols contributed 13 points – Bridgette Gordon and Sheila Frost. Gordon joined Edwards on the All-Championship team, as she also led the Tennessee carom parade, pulling down a game-high 12 rebounds.

It was a battle of Southeastern Conference powerhouses – Tennessee versus Auburn for all the marbles.

The Lady Vols looked to regain the national title they earned in 1987. Although they were up against a Lady Tiger team that had made its second straight national championship final, Tennessee took home its second NCAA championship in three years with a 76-60 win.

Playing in her triumphant final game, All-America forward Bridgette Gordon treated the 9,758 spectators to a spectacular 27-point performance, tying a championship-game record. She also collected 11 boards on the way to most outstanding player honors.

Gordon's seven first-half baskets helped the Lady Vols to a 35-27 halftime lead. Auburn was able to stay close, cutting the score to 50-47. But after a timeout, the Lady Vols went on a 13-4 run to put the game out of reach. The keys to the victory were the battle of the boards, where Tennessee outrebounded Auburn 45-30, and the free throw line, where Tennessee shot 20-26, while Auburn was 8-12.

Sheila Frost joined Gordon on the All-Championship team. Playing in her final game at Tennessee, Frost had six points and 12 boards. Also coming up big for the Lady Vols in the final was Dena Head, with 19 points.

Vindication was finally Tennessee's in the 1991 NCAA women's final, as the Lady Vols downed a talented Virginia Cavalier club, 70-67, in the first NCAA Final Four overtime title game. Virginia had eliminated Tennessee before it could reach the 1990 Women's Final Four – which just happened to be held in Knoxville. But the Lady Vols took New Orleans and their third NCAA title in five years.

The first half was tight, with Tennessee holding a paper-thin 27-26 advantage at the intermission. But the Lady Vols opened up a small lead in the second half. Small lead; small comfort.

Virginia's Dawn Staley, who was named the most outstanding player, led the Virginia comeback to tie the game at 60 at the end of regulation. But the overtime belonged to Tennessee and Dena Head, who scored a championship record 28 points in the final.

Wade Trophy winner Daedra Charles added 19 points and 12 boards for Tennessee and joined Head on the All-Championship Team. Tennessee's effort was also aided by the play of Lisa Harrison, who poured in eight points and 13 boards.

With the victory, the Lady Volunteers kept their streak of odd-year championships going. Tennessee also won national titles in 1987 and 1989.

1996 National Champions

It seemed only fitting that the Lady Vols would win another NCAA crown in the "Queen City" of Charlotte, N.C. And it was equally fitting that the Lady Vols' fourth NCAA title would come over a fierce SEC rival in the Georgia Lady Bulldogs, 83-65.

After the emotionally draining overtime win versus Connecticut, the skeptics wondered if UT would have enough emotional energy left for the title game. They did...and then some. Although Georgia held a modest three point lead early in the game and led by two with 14:11 to go in the first half, it would be their only lead in the title contest. UT senior Latina Davis put the handcuffs on Player of the Year Saudia Roundtree in the first half as the Lady Vols grabbed an early nine point lead, 28-19 with 7:36 to go in the first half. Georgia recovered to trail by just five at the half, 42-37.

In the first three minutes of the second half, UT took off and never looked back. Abby Conklin's trey (her first of four) with 14:55 left gave UT a 16-point lead, 57-41. Davis upped the ante to a 21 point lead with 2:25 showing, 81-60. The celebrating started early as the Final Four MVP, Michelle Marciniak, and All-Tournament Team members Chamique Holdsclaw and Tiffani Johnson left the game to wildly cheering fans. Davis, who held Roundtree to 17 points below her average, was UT's quiet heroine.

On the night, Holdsclaw and Johnson tallied 16 points to lead UT, while Conklin added 14 points, Pashen Thompson a dozen, and Marciniak 10 in the final game of her career.

No team had ever won the NCAA championship coming in with more than six losses. But proving that it's wise to save your best for last, Tennessee took its fifth NCAA championship and second straight title with a 68-59 win over Old Dominion despite entering the tournament with a 23-10 record.

"Of all our runs to a championship, this one is really the most unexpected," said coach Pat Summitt. "It came from a team with tremendous heart and desire."

Tennessee took control quickly at the start of the title game, jumping out to a 20-8 lead. By halftime, the Lady Vols still had a comfortable lead, 34-22.

In the second half, Old Dominion clawed its way back, taking its first lead at 44-43 with 9:06 left in the game. The Lady Monarchs extended the lead to two, 49-47, before Chamique Holdsclaw led the Lady Vols on a 12-2 run to put the game away for Tennessee.

Holdsclaw was a unanimous choice as the most outstanding player, as she poured in 24 points and seven rebounds. Six of her points came during the decisive run at the end of the game. Joining Holdsclaw on the All-Championship team was Kellie Jolly, who only scored five points, but set a championship record with 11 assists in the final game and a Final Four record with 20.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their fifth national title, played in their seventh championship game and became only the second team to win consecutive championships. (Southern Cal., 1983 and 1984).

The 1998 Tennessee Lady Vols will be remembered as history-makers. A perfect 39-0 record and the most wins ever in women's collegiate basketball... an NCAA unprecedented three consecutive titles... and the systematic blowout night-after-night of the opposition.

When the team finally reached the NCAA title game against a dear old rival in Louisiana Tech, the contest started out tight with UT taking an 8-6 lead. Then "the greatest team ever to play the game," according to Louisiana Tech head coach Leon Barmore, exploded out to a 34-11 run over the next seven minutes. The points were coming in bunches to the tune of 63% field goal accuracy as these Lady Vols were on a mission.

By the halftime break, Tennessee led 55-32 and had registered an NCAA record for the most points scored in a half at the Final Four. Leading the way for UT in game 39 were the Three Meeks – MVP Chamique Holdsclaw, Tamika Catchings and Semeka Randall—who collectively tallied 62 points and 25 rebounds in the Lady Vols' 93-75 victory.

Holdsclaw, who scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, won the top player honors in the final game. She was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Catchings, who recorded 27 points in her first title game, and an honorary "Meek", Kellie Jolly, who added a career-high 20 points.

With the win, the Lady Vols earned their sixth national title, played in their eighth championship game and became the first team to win three consecutive NCAA titles.

On April 3, 2007, the Tennessee Lady Vols captured an elusive seventh national title, beating Rutgers to the ball for second and third shots in a 59-46 win to reclaim their customary place above all other programs.

Parker scored 17 points to lead her squad to a 34-3 final record, but the tournament's most outstanding player got plenty of help from Shannon Bobbitt who scored 13 points — nine of them on three treys in a lightning-quick span in the second half — and Nicky Anosike had 16 rebounds for the Lady Vols, who had 24 offensive boards.

After building a 16-point lead and then holding off a late push by Rutgers, the Lady Vols could finally celebrate, dribbling out the final 30 seconds under the Rutgers basket until Tennessee's players, some in tears, danced at midcourt as orange, blue and gold confetti fell from above.

"To win anything you have to be a tight team," Summitt said. "They believed in each other and they all had one goal, to be here in Cleveland and cut down the nets. I'm real, real proud of this team."

A three-pointer by Rutgers ended a 7-0 UT run that brought the Scarlet Knights to 50-42, but Parker made six straight free throws in 37 seconds to make it 56-44 with 1:08 left. As she went down the floor, Parker looked at the bench where senior Sidney Spencer was crying, knowing all the hard work during the offseason would end the best way possible.

The 2007 NCAA tournament ended the same way it has nearly one-third of the time since it started — with Tennessee setting up ladders to cut down the nets.

2008 National Champions

On April 8, 2008, the "under-rated" Tennessee Lady Vols captured their eighth national title, defeating Stanford 64-48. Incredible defensive pressure by UT forced 25 Cardinal turnovers which the Big Orange converted into 26 points.

"They came out with a great mentality to play hard, especially on the defensive end," Pat Summitt said. "On offense, we got more people involved, but it was our defense that got it done."

Tennessee standout Candace Parker, despite playing with a dislocated shoulder, scored 17 points and grabbed nine rebounds to help the Lady Vols capture their second straight championship, but unlike earlier games in the tournament when she had to carry the Lady Vols, her supporting cast came through. Shannon Bobbitt scored 13 points and Nicky Anosike added 12 points, eight rebounds and six steals for the Lady Vols. Freshman Vicki Baugh had eight points before tearing her ACL in the second half.

Bobbitt scored all of her points in the first half as the Lady Vols jumped out to a 37-29 advantage. Trailing by one early, Tennessee used a 13-4 run to take a 17-9 lead midway through the half. Bobbitt hit two three-pointers and made a nifty layup to cap the spurt. The teams traded baskets before two free throws by Bobbitt gave the Lady Vols a 35-25 lead - their biggest of the half.

Parker didn't shoot nearly as many jumpers as usual, instead taking the ball to the basket on an array of moves. She converted one steal in the second half into a pretty layup that gave the Lady Vols a 10-point advantage. She then followed it up with a three-point play on a driving layup. The Cardinal, who had a season low for points, would get no closer than eight the rest of the way. With the game in hand and a minute left, Parker went to the Tennessee bench for the final time, holding up four fingers on each hand to signify the eight titles the Lady Vols have won.

"One is disputable, but two, you can't stumble onto two national championships, so we're pretty good," Parker said.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

Senior transfer All-Americans and Olympians Patricia Roberts and Jill Rankin played for the Lady Vols during their senior year only. Though they didn't become 1,000-point scorers at UT, their career marks are some of the nation's all-time bests.

In July, the Lady Vols spent time in the community installing vinyl siding on a Habitat for Humanity house being built for a military veteran.

LVFLs returned to campus on multiple occasions over the summer to watch the team prepare for the 2024-25 campaign.

In August, the team again participated in the Hoops for Hope event, supporting the Down Syndrome Awareness Group of East Tennessee.

MEDIA POLICIES

COVERING PRACTICE

Please contact Eric Trainer at the Strategic Communications Office at least a week in advance to arrange player or coach feature interviews. If you plan to cover an open practice session, please contact the Strategic Communications Office on a daily basis to check about changes in the schedule.

PLAYER AND COACH INTERVIEWS

Media wishing to interview coaches or players are encouraged to set up interviews in advance with the Strategic Communications Office. Generally, the best time to conduct an interview is on a designated day with an open portion of practice and pre-practice media opportunity. The Strategic Communications Office will help with all requests.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in obtaining credentials to cover Lady Vol basketball home games must apply for those online via Sports Systems. To apply, please visit: http://www.sportssystems.com/seccredentials. Applications for single-game credentials should be submitted five days prior to a game. Once you receive your approval letter via email, you will be provided options for credential pick-up.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers or those individuals on special assignment. During regular season games, work area includes the floor area at both ends of the court and alongside the corners of the playing floor opposite the team benches. Special arrangements for strobes or catwalk access must be made through the Strategic Communicationsand Food City Center Management Offices no later than one week in advance of the game. UT's arena security policy requires that all photographers placing strobes will go through a screening process and must be accompanied by a UT police officer or representative when placing strobes.

THE SEC MEDIA POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

MEDIA PARKING PASSES AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

Parking space is limited. The media must request parking access along with other credential requests. Media coverage on a regular basis will insure first priority in UT parking garage G-10. The media entrance is located adjacent to this parking area on Phillip Fulmer Way. Please be advised that everyone must proceed through metal detectors to enter Food City Center and is subject to having their bags checked.

PRESS ROW (NEW LOCATION THIS YEAR)

Press row is located just below the concourse in section 113 on the east end of the arena nearest the G-10 garage. Only accredited media will be allowed in this area. Children are not permitted on press row.

MEDIA ROOM SERVICES

The media room is on the east end of the arena. Soft drinks and a pregame meal will be offered just outside the media room in a curtained area. Postgame interviews will be conducted in the media room, and the working press has numerous electrical outlets and wireless internet available. Wireless internet also is available on press row. If you choose to install a phone line on press row, please contact UT Telephone Services at (865) 974-3121.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Services provided include statistics generated from the Genius Sports computer statistics program. Statistics can be accessed via laptop or iPad. Hard copies of halftime boxscores, final boxscores and final game books will be available. To access up-to-date stats during a game, visit UTstats.com for a live feed.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

A formal post-game interview is held in the basketball media room following each game. The media will be solicited for player names with five minutes left in the game. After a 10-minute cooling-off period, the visiting team coach and selected players will be brought to the media room. Following the visiting team's media session, select UT players will come to the media room, followed shortly afterward by head coach Kim Caldwell. Risers for television cameras and a distribution box for radio will be available in the back of the area.

RADIO

Requests to broadcast must be made in writing at the earliest possible date to receive permission. Stations are responsible for contacting Glenn Thackston at Learfield/Lady Vol Network in Knoxville for use of the phone lines in Food City Center. Mr. Thackston can be reached during business hours at (865) 212-3570. The radio broadcast location is on the floor level at the main scorer's table.

TELEVISION GAMES

Food City Center permits the inside parking of television tractor-trailer units and offers secure parking adjacent to the arena for satellite uplink units. Personnel from Food City Center Management, including electricians, are available to meet arriving trucks in advance of the game. Please notify the Strategic Communications Office of arrival plans.

UTSPORTS.COM

UTSports.com is the official online home for Tennessee Athletics. Here, one can find schedules, results, rosters, player bios and stats. There is unique content including photo galleries of events, behind-the-scenes features, video highlights and features, video interviews with players and coaches, as well as the latest news on every team on campus.

UTSports.com features links to game video being provided by SEC Network+, WatchESPN and other entities. By using the live (Sidearm Stats) stats link, fans can also follow the action online and stay updated on general statistics and trends.

LADY VOL NETWORK

For 75 years, the Vol Network has served as the main communications link between the University of Tennessee and its fans. As the broadcast rights holder to University of Tennessee Athletics, Learfield/Vol Network manages UT radio and television programming, game day publications, on-line services, venue signage and various other marketing and promotional activities related to Big Orange athletics. Learfield is recognized as the world's premier sports, entertainment and media company. With 50 radio affiliates and statewide coverage, the Vol Network boasts one of the largest collegiate basketball networks in the country. The Kim Caldwell Television Show, which begins in early January and runs weekly during basketball season is shown on network television stations across the state in four major Tennessee television markets.

LADY VOL BASKETBALL PROGRAMMING

The Tennessee Lady Vols first found a home on the radio during the 1977-78 season. At that time, a handful of games were aired with John Ward, former play-by-play guru of UT football and men's basketball, handling the microphone. Bob Kesling debuted as the full-time voice for Lady Vol basketball and called the action through 1998-99 before handing off duties to Mickey Dearstone for 23 seasons until the conclusion of the 2021-22 campaign.

In 2022-23, Brian Rice stepped in as the network's third full-time play-by-play announcer after calling Lady Vol softball games for 10 years and serving as a fill-in for Mickey Dearstone in 2020-21. The Knoxville native also co-hosts The Erik Ainge Show from 9 a.m. to noon weekdays on Sports Radio WNML.

The flagship station of the University of Tennessee Lady Vol basketball broadcasts is the very same WNML (990 AM/99.1 FM) in Knoxville. This marks the 48th year of Lady Vol games on the air. The Lady Vol Network, with affiliates across the state, is the largest women's basketball radio network in the country. For more information about joining the Learfield/Lady Vol Network, contact Glenn Thackston at Learfield/Vol Network: (865) 212-3570.

Additionally, Lady Vol basketball games will again find a home on the Internet at www.utsports.com, as fans worldwide will be able to access the broadcasts. For more info., visit the Live Audio/Video section under the Fans tab.

Approximately 20 radio stations across the state of Tennessee will carry Lady Vol basketball games during the 2024-25 season. For listeners outside the range of the radio network, games can be heard on UTSports.com and the Tennessee Athletics App. Additionally, select Lady Vol games will once again be carried on SiriusXM Satellite Radio.

THE KIM CALDWELL SHOW

The Kim Caldwell TV Show takes Tennessee fans inside the workings of the winningest program in women's basketball. This entertaining 30-minute television show is hosted by head coach Kim Caldwell and the Lady Vol Network's Brian Rice. The show includes game highlights, exclusive behind-the-scenes player and team features as well as a scouting report for the upcoming week in Lady Vol basketball.

The show airs for nine consecutive weeks during basketball season and is shown in Knoxville on WVLT (Saturday, 11:30 a.m.) and WBXX (Sunday, 12:30 p.m.), in Chattanooga on WTVC-TV (Saturday, 12:30 p.m.), in Nashville on WUXP (Saturday, 11:30 a.m.) and in the Tri-Cities on ABC Tri-Cities (Saturday, 12:30 p.m.). All times are local. Stations and times are subject to change. Check local listings for The Kim Caldwell TV Show in your area.

Brian Rice is the "Voice of the Lady Vols."

SEC ON THE WEB: For all you need to know about the Southeastern Conference and its member schools, access the SEC Web Page at www.SECSports.com. The site contains team information, scores, conference standings and statistics, awards recipients, history and records, feature stories, television information on conference events, details about tickets to SEC events, SEC merchandise and much, much more.

WEEKLY HONORS: The SEC will name a Player and Freshman of the Week each week throughout the regular season. Each week's selections will be released late Tuesday morning and also will be announced in the league's weekly release. The league women's basketball sports information directors make nominations for the award each week.

SEC HISTORY: The Southeastern Conference was formed Dec. 8-9, 1932, and included 13 schools at the time: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. The league's first president was Frank L. McVey of Kentucky. Due to the continually increasing amount of work administering the league, the office of Commissioner was established by its member institutions in 1940. Former Mississippi governor Martin Conner was named as the first commissioner, a post he held until 1948. Following Conner were Bernie Moore (1948-66), A.M. Coleman (1966-72), Dr. Boyd McWhorter (1972-86), Dr. Harvey Schiller (1986-90), Roy Kramer (1990-2002), and Mike Slive (2002-2015). Greg Sankey is currently Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference and its 16 member institutions.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. Cross country, golf, swimming, tennis and indoor track were added later. The SEC began recognizing women's championships during the 1979-80 academic year. The conference office officially took over regulation of women's athletics on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 13 women's sports. Baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming and diving, tennis and track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country) are currently sanctioned for men. The women's sports are basketball, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track (indoor, outdoor and cross country) and volleyball.

SEC WEBSITE

The SEC has an extensive online presence at SECSports.com. The SEC offers a media-only section of the website (SECsportsmedia.com). Media covering the SEC can retrieve information from the conference office as well as the 14 SEC institutions from the media site. A championship credentialing system is also available on the site.

SEC NETWORK

Already the most competitive and visible conference in college sports, the SEC debuted its brand-new television network, in partnership with ESPN, on Aug. 14, 2014. The SEC Network reached more than 90 million homes coast to coast at its inception, making it the largest launch of a cable network ever.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The media credential system for the 2025 SEC Tournament will be available online from early January until late February. Go to www.SECsportsmedia.com for the online credentialing system.

For further information concerning media coverage of the 2025 SEC Tournament, please contact the SEC Communications Department.

TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

On Feb. 7, 1980, the first SEC women's basketball tournament began play. It ended four days later with Tennessee defeating Ole Miss for the title. Fast forward 40 years later and the SEC Tournament is still enjoying success and increased popularity.

Beginning with its inception and through 1986, the tournament was held at campus sites. The tournament was then sent to Albany, Ga., which served as the site for six years from 1987-92. The tournament then moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., where it was held from 1993-2000, with the exception of 1998 when the tournament moved to Columbus, Ga.

Since 2001 the tournament has enjoyed many new sites, including Memphis (2001), Nashville (2002, 2004, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2018, 2022), Little Rock, Ark. (2003, 2006, 2009, 2015), Greenville, S.C. (2005, 2017, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2023, 2024, 2025), Duluth, Ga. (2007, 2010, 2013, 2014) and Jacksonville, Fla. (2016).

The winner of the tournament will receive the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds and conference champion will be determined by the 16-game regular-season SEC schedule.

TICKET INFORMATION

Tickets for the 2025 Southeastern Conference Women's Basketball Tournament are on sale at www.ticketmaster.com. The 2025 tourney will be held at on Secours Wellness Arena in Greenville, S.C., on March 5-9.

This is the eighth appearance in Greenville for the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament. The city previously hosted in 2005, 2017, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2023 and 2024.

All fans, regardless of age, must have a ticket to enter Bon Secours Wellness Arena for the SEC Tournament.

Jewel Spear averaged 18.3 ppg. in the 2024 SEC Tournament, tallying 24 vs. Alabama and 21 vs. South Carolina in UT's second and third games of the event.
